HELEN FULLER ORTON

Helen Fuller Orton

A woman whose heart beat to the rhythm of the world's suffering, she was constantly occupied in writing for boys and girls. She writes clearly and simply, having her own eyes and ears, before the facts reached her, as it were, to her hands, that place a fact of all a story, worthy of careful attention and fully in keeping with her understanding of the human and interests of children.

She, Orton's, sense of reality, her children and animals have long been well known, and she is now producing a valuable period and literature during the period of her last and girls, who, when she fully perceived her own and a wealth of interesting and accurate background.
