Mystery And The Passion Homiletic Reading Of The Gospel Traditions:

The mystery and the passion : A homiletic reading of the gospel traditions David Buttrick,1992 Preaching as a Theological Task David Buttrick,Thomas G. Long,Edward Farley,1996-01-01 How do particular world situations impact preaching How does a preacher use the gospel and Scripture to speak to those situations This volume in honor of homiletician David Buttrick explores the complex and important relationships between world gospel and Scripture and their relevance for preaching theology This book is for those seeking thoughtful and challenging new ways to approach the preaching task now and into the twenty first century Homiletic David G. Buttrick,1987-01-01 Buttrick presents a complete homiletic that focuses on how sermons form in consciousness and how the language of preaching functions in the communal consciousness of a congregation His phenomenological approach marks a sharp departure from older homiletics

The Mystery and the Passion David G. Buttrick,2002-09-06 resurrection and death in order to connect modern preaching with the excitement of a changed world Although we may be jaded by sermons that chase Bible verses tediously for twenty minutes or more original listeners heard the gospel as a huge excitement The apostles announced a changed world The human world they claimed had begun all over again we are living now in a new creation They invited startled listeners to join God s new humanity From the Introduction Buttrick s treatment is no romanticizing of early Christianity The church then was as dismaying as it is now Instead this book focuses on the early Christian sense that they had passed from death to new life a reversal that began with Jesus resurrection then explored his passion and finally his ministry and life This book carefully examines the Gospel traditions so that this great reversal can be captured in Christian theology and proclamation

Pitfalls in Preaching Richard Eslinger,1996 Richard Eslinger discusses with insight humor and concision what he sees as the most critical pitfalls in the various contexts of preaching and offers practical strategies for avoiding them The Word Before the Powers Charles L. Campbell,2002-01-01 In this examination of the ethical significance of preaching Charles Campbell provides both fresh insights into the relationship between preaching and ethics and a challenging moral vision for the contemporary church Moving beyond a narrow focus on moral decision making or social issues sermons Campbell argues that a particular ethic nonviolent resistance is inherent in the practice of preaching and shapes the moral life of the church In the face of the powers the fundamental ethical task of preaching involves building up the church as a community of resistance Employing three dimensions of character ethics vision practices and virtues Campbell demonstrates the concrete ways in which preachers may undertake this task Preaching Jesus Charles L. Campbell,2006-09-01 The post liberal cultural linguistic theology of the Yale School has been one of the most important theological developments in the United States during the latter twentieth century In this unique book which combines theological analysis and homiletical reflection Charles Campbell examines post liberal theology as it is embodied in the work of Hans Frei and develops the implications of this theological position for the theory and practice of preaching Arguing that the trouble with homiletics today is fundamentally theological Campbell offers Frei's theological position as a means for enriching the Christian pulpit and renewing the church Plain Truth for Plain People Brad Estep, 2019-03-22 Having studied preaching at a doctoral level and practiced the craft for more than thirty years Brad Estep offers fifty biblically grounded theologically informed and congregationally contextualized sermons centered around the different seasons of the Christian year In addition to the sermon itself Estep provides additional analysis that revolves around the homiletical structure reasons for effectiveness and usage of illustrative material This work is designed for preachers who are interested and committed to the craft of preaching Intended for reflective practitioners Plain Truth for Plain People helps to reveal how and why sermons are crafted in the way that they are Because of that this book is also of interest to parishioners in the pews At the top of the list of desirable skills in a pastor is preaching This work helps provide examples of what that looks like or more accurately what that sounds like

The Living Church, 1961 Visually Speaking Jolyon P. Mitchell, 1999-01-01 What can preachers learn from the art of radio broadcasting How can preachers develop more imaginative patterns of speaking Jolyon Mitchell analyzes religious broadcasting in Britain and America exploring how the speaker can create pictures with words and engage listeners in multisensory ways This book offers theological insights and practical guidelines to enable preachers to listen and to communicate more creatively in today's media saturated world Risking the Terror Christine Marie Smith, 2011-01-01 In Risking the Terror Christine M Smith challenges readers to open up their lives to the radical power of resurrection Relating perspectives from those who are oppressed the author explores disciplines that enable Christians and preachers in particular to resist crucifixions and proclaim resurrection life Teaching Death and Dying Christopher M Moreman, 2008-10-03 The academic study of death rose to prominence during the 1960s Courses on some aspect of death and dying can now be found at most institutions of higher learning These courses tend to stress the psycho social aspects of grief and bereavement however ignoring the religious elements inherent to the subject This collection is the first to address the teaching of courses on death and dying from a religious studies perspective Calendar Dr. Laurence Hull Stookey, 2011-12-01 A probing but clearly written book Calendar will find an appreciative audience beyond academia and clergy to the laity of the church choirs and their directors worship planners adult study groups and others who want to understand better the church's times of preparation and celebration Calendar centers largely on theological meaning and parish practice in relation to liturgical time Deliberately almost no attention is given to detailed historical development much of which is exceedingly complex in its origins and technical in its detail An appendix entitled Forgetting What You Were Always Taught Or This Book in a Nutshell aptly describes the radical reordering that Stookey believes occurs when our understanding of time and the story of Jesus takes its bearings from the Incarnation So just as the Christian week begins with Sunday the day of Resurrection Stookey follows the Christian year beginning with the season of Easter and only then Lent Christmas then Advent Illuminating discussions of Ordinary and Extraordinary Time and the Sanctoral Cycle follow Lent Through Eastertide David L.

Bartlett, Barbara Brown Taylor, 2010-10-01 Feasting on the Word offers pastors focused resources for Sermon preparation written by companions on the way With four different essays on each of the four biblical texts assigned by the Revised Common Lectionary this series offers preachers sixteen different ways into the proclamation of God's Word on any given occasion For each reading preachers will find brief essays on the exegetical theological homiletical and pastoral challenges of the text The page layout is unusual By setting the biblical passage at the top of the page and placing the essays beneath it we mean to suggest the interdependence of these four approaches without granting priority to any one of them Some readers may decide to focus on the Gospel passage for instance by reading all four essays provided for that text Others may decide to look for connections between the Hebrew Bible Psalm Gospel and Epistle texts by reading the theological essays on each one Wherever they begin preachers will find what they need in a single volume produced by writers from a wide variety of disciplines and religious traditions These authors teach in colleges and seminaries They lead congregations They write scholarly books as well as columns for the local newspaper They oversee denominations In all these capacities and more they serve God's Word joining the preacher in the ongoing challenge of bringing that Word to life We have been honored to work with a multitude of gifted thinkers writers and editors We present these essays as their offering and ours to the blessed ministry of preaching From the introduction by David L Bartlett Barbara Brown Taylor The Mark Commentary Collection David E. Garland, Mark L. Strauss, Walter W. Wessel, 2016-12-20 This Mark commentary bundle features volumes from the NIV Application Commentary Series Zondervan Exegetical Commentary Series and Expositor's Bible Commentary series authored by David E Garland Mark L Strauss and Walter W Wessel The diverse features from each of the volumes gives you all the tools you need to master the book of Mark Preaching the Hard Sayings of Jesus John T. Carroll, James R. Carroll, 1996 When it comes to stirring others to hear that hard message of the Cross and to guiding the faithful in understanding the same James R Carroll and his son John T Carroll provide a blend of seasoned ministerial experience and solid scholarly talents that yields a rich interpretation that is down to earth yet original and insightful This is a book to be savored by preachers and teachers of all denominations Donald Senior C P Catholic Theological Union NIVAC Bundle 6: Gospels, Acts Michael J. AAR/SBL Annual Meeting Program American Academy of Religion. Meeting,1991 Reading the Tapestry Larry Darnell George,2000 Reading the Tapestry proposes a literary rhetorical temporal process of reading the fourth Gospel's resurrection narrative John 20-21 from the perspective of the implied reader in the text according to the strategies of the implied author Informed by narrative criticism and reader response criticism Larry Darnell George unpacks the narrative and rhetorical devices of the three episodes and twelve scenes and argues that the entire resurrection narrative represents a finely woven tapestry a coherent unified narrative text on its own terms and as it now stands
