originally published in 1976 Patricia Spacks analyses the female view of the world Juxtaposing sometimes in startlingly original combination some eighty books written between the seventeenth century and the present day she uses both literary and psychological analysis to explore patterns that recur again and again in the stories women tell whether about their own lives or the lives of their fictional characters She dissects female experience in the twentieth century as viewed by an array of writers ranging from Kate Millet to Virginia Woolf examines the interplay of social passivity and psychic power that dominates characters such as Maggie Tulliver and Jane Eyre the altruism that impels Jane Austen's and Mrs Gaskell's heroines the acceptance of Virginia Woolf's Mrs Ramsey the personal and social conflicts that beset so many of the adolescent girls that figure in both nineteenth century and contemporary literature reveals the complex motives that can be bound up in a woman's deliberate choice of the artist's role as appears in the writings of Isadora Duncan's and Dora Carrington Marie Bashkirtseff and Mary McCartney and the surprising forms freedom can take as for Beatrice Webb in the East End of London or Isak Dinerson in the wilds of Africa The voices echo and re echo across the years in fascinating counter point Their range is enormous rebels and reformers actresses and painters Society ladies and unknown girls in small towns novels poems memoirs diaries and letters both English and American and alongside classics such as Wuthering Heights and well known modern works such as The Bell Jar Patricia Spacks introduces an intriguing selection of relatively unknown writers such as Napoleon's psychoanalyst great niece Marie Bonaparte the Victorian arch fantasist Mary MacLane and the autobiography of a seventeenth century Duchess The Female Imagination is much more than a study of women's writing It is an inquiry into the nature of female thought self expression and experience As such it should appeal to every educated woman and to many men too New Age Journal ,1998 Wising Up Kathy Black,Heather Murray Elkins,2010-04-01 Wising Up provides rituals and guidance for women as they age It helps them make the often difficult life transitions wisely and in the context of their faith communities Instead of focusing exclusively on time worn thresholds such as menopause marriage and divorce and dying the book contains affirming rituals on coming to terms with the changes in one's body learning to live with and depend on an item like a walker or a hearing aid giving up one's driver's license deciding how to give away one's household contents and being orphaned In addition to the rituals and guidelines on how to create one's own rituals the book contains a number of short stories hymns prayers quotations and poems to help ease women through the aging process Contributors Susan Beehler Teresa Berger Kathy Black Ruth Duck Heather Murray Elkins Brigitte Enzner Probst Martha Whitmore Hickman Martha Ann Kirk Mary Elizabeth Mullino Moore Susan Roll Deborah Sokolove Linda J Vogel and Janet Walton Essays in Honour of Boris Berić's Sixty-Fifth Birthday Gabrijela Buljan,Ljubica Matek,Biljana Oklopčić,Jasna Poljak Rehlicki,Sanja Runtić,Jadranka Zlomislčić,2020-07-29 Written as a Festschrift honouring a beloved professor colleague and friend this volume comprises a collection of essays offering a wide array of contemporary approaches to literature linguistics and applied linguistics It covers a variety of topics ranging from medieval to contemporary literature and language and explores genres as diverse as fantasy dystopia drama poetry and film addressing issues such as post and transhumanism age gender identity family metonymy and narrative discourse The diversity of themes and methodologies here makes the collection a widely applicable resource in the academic discussion of literature language and culture both as a significant contribution to different philological fields and a useful educational tool for anyone teaching or studying English Anglophone literature British American and German studies English as a Second Language linguistics cognitive linguistics and applied linguistics or conducting research in these fields

Saint Hysteria Cristina Mazzoni, 1996

Saint Hysteria examines scientific literary and religious texts that share a fascination with the otherness of the female body whether in ecstatic pleasure or in neurotic pain Cristina Mazzoni focuses on material from the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries mainly in Italy and France Her approach uses the methodologies of cultural studies and feminism but also benefits from the insights of psychoanalytic criticism She asks how the identification of mysticism with hysteria became prevalent and explores the continuing dialogue between a historicizing view of hysteria and a view of hysteria as repressed religious mysticism According to Mazzoni this dialogue is discernible at various levels and in a variety of discourses The medical history of hysteria she maintains is often linked to the religious history of supernatural phenomena and the medical discourse of positivism depends on the religious feminine element that it attempts to repress Similarly she finds a continuity between the literature of naturalism and that of decadence in their representations of the interdependence of neurosis and religion Finally the religious writings of women mystics and the discourses they inspired reveal an unresolved tension between nature and supernature body and soul or psyche which Mazzoni suggests mirrors and complicates the very issues raised by hysterical conversion Among those whose views she considers are the writers Jules and Edmond de Goncourt Gabriele d'Annunzio and Antonio Fogazzaro as well as Graham Greene and Simone Weil the mystics Angela of Foligno Gemma Galgani and Teresa of Avila and the theorists Jean Martin Charcot Cesare Lombroso Jacques Lacan Simone de Beauvoir Julia Kristeva and Luce Irigaray

Hagitude Sharon Blackie, 2022-10-11

RADICALLY REIMAGINE THE SECOND HALF OF LIFE There can be a certain perverse pleasure as well as a sense of rightness and beauty in insisting on flowering just when the world expects you to become quiet and diminish from the book For any woman over fifty who has ever asked What now Who do I want to be comes a life changing book showing how your next phase of life may be your most dynamic yet As mythologist and psychologist Sharon Blackie describes it midlife is the threshold to decades of opportunity and profound transformation a time to learn flourish and claim the desires and identities that are often limited during earlier life stages This is a time for gaining new perspectives challenging and evolving belief systems exploring callings uncovering meaning and ultimately finding healing for accumulated wounds Western folklore and mythology are rife with brilliantly creative fulfilled feisty and furious role models for aging women despite our culture's focus on youthfulness Blackie explores these archetypes in Hagitude presenting them in a way sure to appeal to contemporary women Drawing inspiration from these examples as well as modern mentors you can reclaim midlife as a liberating alchemical moment rich with possibility and your elder years as a path to feminine power eyes to the pervasiveness of ageism however we can begin to fight it and Gullette lays out ambitious plans for the whole life course from teaching children anti ageism to fortifying the social safety nets and thus finally making possible the real pleasures and opportunities promised by the new longevity A bracing controversial call to arms Agewise will surprise enlighten and perhaps most important bring hope to readers of all ages
