

Mystic

The air is a mill of hooks --
Questions without answer,
Glittering and drunk as flies
Whose kiss stings unbearably
In the fetid wombs of black air under pines in summer.

I remember
The dead smell of sun on wood cabins,
The stiffness of sails, the long salt winding sheets.
Once one has seen God, what is the remedy?
Once one has been seized up

Without a part left over,
Not a toe, not a finger, and used,
Used utterly, in the sun's conflagration, the stains
That lengthen from ancient cathedrals
What is the remedy?

The pill of the Communion tablet,
The walking beside still water? Memory?
Or picking up the bright pieces
Of Christ in the faces of rodents,
The tame flower-nibblers, the ones

Whose hopes are so low they are comfortable --
The humpback in his small, washed cottage
Under the spokes of the clematis.
Is there no great love, only tenderness?
Does the sea

Remember the walker upon it?
Meaning leaks from the molecules.
The chimneys of the city breathe, the window sweats,
The children leap in their cots.
The sun blooms, it is a geranium.

The heart has not stopped.

Mystic Poems:

For Lovers of God Everywhere Roger Housden, 2009-11-01 Discover the beauty and variety of Christian verse Roger Housden author of the best selling Ten Poems to Change Your Life celebrates the growing popularity of mystical poetry with this beautiful compilation from the Christian contemplative tradition Although the writings of the Sufi mystics Rumi and Hafez and the Indian mystics Mirabai and Kabir have reached a wide audience in recent years the poetry of the Christian mystics has yet to be discovered by a general audience For Lovers of God Everywhere a collection of nearly 100 poems from both historic and contemporary writers heralds the reemergence of the great spiritual voices of the Christian tradition a tradition with its own love songs to God cries of longing and bliss of union In this collection Roger introduces us to some of the foremost poets of both the Eastern and Western Christian traditions He takes us from the wisdom of the Desert Fathers to the passion of St Augustine through the medieval ecstasies of St Francis of Assisi and St Catherine of Siena to the subtleties of St John of the Cross and St Teresa of Avila and on to contemporary voices such as Rainer Maria Rilke T S Eliot and Mary Oliver Roger's insightful commentary on each poem inspires us to take its words more deeply into our souls and shows how the mystical tradition transcends sectarian divides and speaks to the heart of humanity A Manual of Mystic Verse Louise Collier Willcox, 1917 Whitman Walt Whitman, 2004 This sampling of Whitman's most important poetry from Leaves of Grass and selections from his prose writings offers a glimpse into the spiritual side of his most radical themes love for country love for others and love of Self Whitman seeks to tear down the belief that the spiritual resides only in the religious and embraces the idea that nothing is more divine than humankind nothing greater than the individual soul BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems Joe Moffett, 2014-10-28 Written from a literary critic's perspective Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems borrows insights from Religious Studies and critical theory to examine the role of spirituality in contemporary poetry specifically the genre of the long poem Descending from Whitman's Song of Myself the long poem is often considered the American twentieth century equivalent of the epic poem but unlike the epic it carries few generic expectations aside from the fact that it simply must be long This makes the form particularly pliable as a tool for spiritual inquiry The period following World War II is often described as a secular age but spirituality continued as a concern for poets as evidenced by this study These writers look beyond conventional faith systems and instead seek individual paths of understanding they engage in mysticism in other words With chapters on H D and Brenda Hillman Robert Duncan James Merrill Charles Wright and Galway Kinnell and Gary Snyder this study demonstrates how these poets engage the culture of consumption in the postwar years at the same time they search for opportunities for transcendence Not content to throw over the earthly in favor of the otherworldly these poets reject the familiar binary of the worldly and metaphysical to produce distinctive paths of spiritual understanding that fuel what Wright calls a contemplation of the divine Mystical Poems of Rumi Jalal al-Din

Rumi, 2010-04-15 My verse resembles the bread of Egypt night passes over it and you cannot eat it any more Devour it the moment it is fresh before the dust settles upon it Its place is the warm climate of the heart in this world it dies of cold Like a fish it quivered for an instant on dry land another moment and you see it is cold Even if you eat it imagining it is fresh it is necessary to conjure up many images What you drink is really your own imagination it is no old tale my good man Jalal al Din Rumi 1207 73 legendary Persian Muslim poet theologian and mystic wrote poems acclaimed through the centuries for their powerful spiritual images and provocative content which often described Rumi's love for God in romantic or erotic terms His vast body of work includes more than three thousand lyrics and odes This volume includes four hundred poems selected by renowned Rumi scholar A J Arberry who provides here one of the most comprehensive and adept English translations of this enigmatic genius Mystical Poems is the definitive resource for anyone seeking an introduction to or an enriched understanding of one of the world's greatest poets Rumi is one of the world's greatest lyrical poets in any language as well as probably the most accessible and approachable representative of Islamic civilization for Western students James W Morris Oberlin College Mystic Poems A. Gondal and its citizens that she imagined with Anne and remain the only surviving record of their joint creation Other visionary works including Remembrance and No coward soul is mine boldly confront mortality and anticipate life after death And poems such as Redbreast early in the morning and The blue bell is the sweetest flower evoke the wild beauties of nature she observed on the Yorkshire moors while also examining the state of her psyche Aldous Huxley, from Poet to Mystic Jerome Meckier,2011 Aldous Huxley began as a poet He perfected the voice of the modern satirical poet of ideas who used art against itself to produce a parodic poetry of breakdowns collapses stalemates and dead ends best suited to the apparent pointlessness of the post war era His cleverest most irreverent poems are contrapuntal they in effect silence venerable poets and cancel traditional formats Huxley s poetic personas either fail to preserve conventional forms or purposely sabotage them By 1920 Huxley became the parodic equivalent of the formative intelligences i e Dante Goethe and Lucretius who once synthesized their respective eras positively In this book author Jerome Meckier explicates most of Huxley s poems including Leda his masterpiece an ironical modern myth Meckier traces Huxley s development in terms of the poets he inserted in five of his eleven novels along with their poems These poets mostly fail as poets their different stances falling apart one after another But Huxley began to detect a spiritual significance underlying the creative urge This allowed him to rehabilitate many of the Romantic and Victorian poets he formerly ridiculed as frauds and liars Eventually he celebrated mystical contemplation as silent poetry positing a utopia in which everyone is a poet to the limits of his or her potentiality Huxley became the perennial philosopher a neo Brahmin the sage like figure he initially personified parodically His paradigmatic career took him from a Pyrrhonic silencing of outmoded poems and poets to the advocacy of a poetry of silence Series Human Potentialities Studien zu Aldous Huxley zeitgenossischer Kultur Studies in Aldous Huxley Contemporary Culture Vol 11

Mystic Modernity Ashim Dutta,2021-12-05 This is a transnational and bilingual investigation of the cross fertilisation of mystical religiosity and modern poetical imagination in the works of the Bengali poet Rabindranath Tagore and the Irish poet W B Yeats The book demonstrates how their commitments to transnational mysticism deeply form and inform the modernist literary projects of these poets as well as their understanding of cultural modernity Although its primary interest lies in their poetry and poetics the monograph also includes some of their relevant prose works This study begins with a close look at and around the phase of 1912 1913 when Yeats and Tagore met over the collection of the latter s English translations of his spiritual verses Gitanjali and took mutual interests in each other s works and cultural significances The monograph then expands on both sides of that phase selectively covering the whole career of the poets in its exploration of their parallel mystic modern cultural poetical projects HeartWords Shruti Bakshi,2021-05-03 HeartWords is a collection of poems flowing from the ecstasy of devotion joy of being and the beauty and depth of Life perceived in its wholeness With illustrations by the author these Heart words on Krishna Shiva Devotion Love Life and Freedom are invitations into true Intimacy through the doorways of poetry and art Shruti Bakshi s poems seem to flow effortlessly from some ambrosial spring
