Clint Eastwood's America Sam B. Girgus,2014-01-08 The steady rise of Clint Eastwood's career parallels a pressing desire in American society over the past five decades for a figure and story of purpose meaning and redemption Eastwood has not only told and filmed that story he has come to embody it for many in his public image and film persona Eastwood responds to a national yearning for a vision of individual action and initiative personal responsibility and potential for renewal An iconic director and star for his westerns urban thrillers and adventure stories Eastwood has taken film art to new horizons of meaning in a series of masterpieces that engage the ethical and moral consciousness of our times including Unforgiven Million Dollar Baby and Mystic River He revolutionized the war film with the unprecedented achievement of filming the opposing sides of the same historic battle in Flags of Our Fathers and Letters from Iwo Jima using this saga to present a sharply critical representation of the new America that emerged out of the war a society of images and spectacles This timely examination of Clint Eastwood's oeuvre against the backdrop of contemporary America will be fascinating reading for students of film and popular culture as well as readers with interests in Eastwood's work American film and culture

Boston Noir Dennis Lehane,2025-07-01 Dennis Lehane steps up to the plate as editor and presents a scintillating collection of deep dark fiction Dennis Lehane advises us not to judge the genre by its Hollywood images of sharp men in fedoras lighting cigarettes for femmes fatales standing in the dark alleys Lehane writes persuasively of the gentrification that has left people feeling crushed New York Times Crime Fiction Column Akashic Books continues its groundbreaking series of original noir anthologies launched in 2004 with Brooklyn Noir Each story is set in a distinct neighborhood or location within the city of the book Brand new stories by Dennis Lehane Stewart O'Nan Patricia Powell John Dufresne Lynne Heitman Don Lee Russ Aborn J. Itabari Njeri Jim Fusilli Brendan DuBois and Dana Cameron From the introduction by Dennis Lehane Boston is a city that produces guys or in the city's vernacular knuckleheads who once stole the replica of a cow that sat in front of a Braintree steak house The cow weighed what a car weighed and yet these knuckleheads had the industry to get it onto a pickup truck drive it back to South Boston and deposit it in the middle of Broadway They did this solely so they could then call the Boston Police Department and ask them to respond to a beef going down on Broadway So we have our distinct humor and our distinct accent and our distinct vocabulary All of which sadly possibly is now endangered by progress Because one can't ignore that Boston has been beset by a new class war of late one you'll see reflected in the stories herein It's a war of gentrification As the city continues to lose its old school parochialism and overt immigrant tribalism it's also losing a lot of its character Whether that's a bad thing or a good thing is up for debate but what can't be argued is that it is in fact happening That's the paradox of the new Boston what's lost has in many cases been taken what's left is what people can't sell Noir is a genre of loss of men and women unable to roll with the changing times so the changing times instead roll over them
