Mystical Theology Of Saint Bernard

Dom Cuthbert Butler

Mystical Theology Of Saint Bernard:

The Mystical Theology of Saint Bernard Étienne Gilson,1990 In the half century since its first publication in English this small book has become a classic of medieval theology Directing his attention to perhaps the most neglected aspect of Cistercian mysticism the great French medievalist and philosopher Etienne Gilson directs attention to that part of Bernard s theology on which his mysticism rests his systematics Cistercian Publications brings this important book back into print in celebration of the nine hundredth anniversary of the birth of Saint Bernard hoping that new generations of scholars will find it food for thought and further research

Western Mysticism Dom Cuthbert Butler,2012-04-19 Extracts from the writings of three of Western Christianity s most revered teachers of mystical theology express what they themselves wrote and thought about their mysticism

The Concept of Freedom in the Writings of St. Francis de Sales Eunan McDonnell,2009 Through the examination of the concept of freedom in the writings of St Francis de Sales the author concludes that in contradistinction to a contemporary understanding of freedom perceived as self determination a Salesian understanding privileges freedom s relationship to the good This situates St Francis de Sales in the classical Thomistic tradition of freedom s necessary relationship to the good but involves a methodological shift as he employs the Renaissance starting point of the turn to the subject This study demonstrates how St Francis arrives inductively at what St Thomas demonstrated deductively namely the essential relationship of freedom to the good Along with this Thomistic influence the author analyses the Salesian indebtedness to Augustinian anthropology which explains the primacy St Francis gives to the will and consequently to love Love understood as the heart s movement towards the good allows the Salesian approach to move beyond the confines of a traditional faculty psychology to embrace a more biblical understanding of the human person This examination of love s relationship to freedom reveals their teleological and archaeological natures coming back to our origins wherein we discover the source of our freedom bestowed on us as a gift from God

Introduction to the Medieval Mystics of Europe Paul E. Szarmach, 1985-06-30 The European Middle Ages bequeathed to the world a legacy of spiritual and intellectual brilliance that has shaped many of the ideals preconceptions and institutions we now take for granted An Introduction to the Medieval Mystics of Europe examines this phenomenon in vivid and scholarly accounts of the lives and achievements of those men and women whose genius most inspired their own and subsequent ages These great mystics explored and consciously realized the relationship between human life and unconditioned transcendence Representing both the contemplative and scholastic traditions the mystics in these studies often found their solutions to ultimate questions in radically different ways Some of them such as Eckhart Aquinas and Cusa may already be familiar and here the reader will benefit from a new approach and summary of extensive research Others such as Smaragdus and several of the women mystics are little known even to specialists Finally and unusually for a study of European mysticism the influence of Spanish Kabbalists is discussed in relation to the Zohar and two figures from the mystical school of Safed Cordovero and Luria Though the essays focus on individuals the cultural and social implications of their lives and work are never ignored for the mystic way did not exist separately from the rest of medieval life it functioned as an integral part of the whole influencing the development of Christian and Jewish religions in both their internal and external forms

The Changing Face of Arthurian Romance International Arthurian Society. British Branch, 1986 These essays on Arthurian prose romances published as a tribute to Cedric E Pickford reflect their development and the reshaping of the romances in response to changing taste and fashion from the death of Chr tien de Troyes to the end of the medieval period in England Topics include the question of religious influences the transition of Arthurian material to foreign contexts and the fortunes of the prose romance in England focusing on the Prose Merlin and Malory The contributors are ELSPETH KENNEDY REN E L CURTIS FANNI BOGDANOW JANE H M TAYLOR DAVID BLAMIRE CERIDWEN LLOYD MORGAN CAROL M MEALE KAREN STERN DEREK BREWER FAITH LYONS ROGER MIDDLETON

Benedictine Monachism Cuthbert Butler, 1919 Atonement, Christology and the Trinity Vincent Brmmer, 2020-10-07 For many believers today the doctrines of Atonement Christology and the Trinity seem like puzzling constructions produced by academic theologians They are cast in unintelligible forms of thought derived from Platonism or from feudal society and for many their existential relevance for life today remains unclear This book introduces these doctrines and proposes a reinterpretation in the light of the claim of many Christian mystics that ultimate happiness is to be found in enjoying the loving fellowship of God This claim is amatrix of faith in terms of which these doctrines are shown to be relevant for the life of faith of believers today Furthermore since this matrix can be defended within all three Abrahamic traditions Judaism Christianity and Islam the proposed understanding of these doctrines can also contribute usefully to the necessary dialogue between these traditions in a globalised world

A Feast for Hungry Souls Susan

Muto,2020-05-29 Winner of a first place award in spirituality from the Catholic Media Association Renowned scholar Susan Muto presents her spiritual legacy with a rich introduction to thirty Christian masters These voices from the ancient medieval and modern Church have been the focus of Muto s work for more than forty years and the trusted guides of her own spiritual life Masters such as Benedict of Nursia Clare of Assisi Thomas Merton and Teresa of Avila will help answer your most pressing spiritual questions and satisfy the deepest cravings of your heart From the simplicity and solitude of the desert mystics and other ancient masters to the practicality and prayerfulness of medieval saints such as Julian of Norwich and Catherine of Siena to the relatable sensibilities of modern masters such as Evelyn Underhill and Thomas Merton Susan Muto executive director of the Epiphany Association and dean of the Epiphany Academy of Formative Spirituality draws deeply from the well of the Christian spiritual tradition to address some of our most pressing spiritual hungers The Desert Fathers teach us how to hear God above the noise of everyday life Augustine of Hippo acknowledges the restlessness that precedes spiritual growth Julian of Norwich reflects on the universality and purpose of suffering Jean Pierre de Caussade explores what it means to have a heart fully surrendered to God Th r se of Lisieux shares her little way of spiritual childhood In each chapter Muto introduces a spiritual master who she finds helpful in meeting a particular condition or challenge commonly faced in the Christian life and places that master within the historical and spiritual contexts of their time Muto then introduces a classic work associated with that master identifying key themes or principles to apply to your own life Each chapter concludes with reflection questions to ponder individually or discuss in a group setting Rich yet accessible this book will fortify your soul with time tested spiritual insight and practical wisdom so you can enter more deeply into the mystery of spiritual union with God

Sacred Rhetoric Michael Pasquarello III,2012-06-01 Modern approaches to preaching today are largely fixated on how to s how to make preaching more relevant more interesting more entertaining Michael Pasquarello suggests that this fixation may stem from a preaching imagination more beholden to technical scientific reason than theological wisdom Rather than devising new techniques or strategies for effective speaking Pasquarello offers something more salutary portraits of ten exemplary preachers from the Christian tradition Included in Pasquarello s gallery are Augustine of Hippo Gregory the Great Benedict Bernard of Clairvaux Bonaventure Thomas Aquinas Erasmus Hugh Latimer Martin Luther and John Calvin These excellent preachers conceived of Christian speech as a unique theological practice learned through prayerful attention to the Bible and aimed at communion with God Sacred Rhetoric invites readers to join an extended conversation with the past in order to become faithful preachers of the gospel in a post Christian society Preachers seminarians and students of Christian history will find much to learn from Pasquarello s fresh perspective and passion for the past

Western Mysticism Butler,2012-10-12 A renewed interest in the spiritual with an increasing number of people today wishing to incorporate the contemplative in their active lives prompts the reissue of this classic work a doctrine that is at once elevated and practical The writings are meant to be studied from three distinct points of view religious philosophy material for the study of those states between mind and body such as ecstasy and trance and for the sake of their mysticism Drawn from the writings and teachings of Saint Augustine Saint Gregory and Saint Bernard the writings form a coordinated body of doctrine with what three great teachers of mystical theology in the Western Church have written concerning their own religious experience and the theories they based on it In addition the book discusses such important topics as speculative contemplation what mysticism is the characteristics of Western mysticism the practical and the contrasts between the contemplative and active lives No student of mysticism can possibly afford to neglect a volume so full of valuable suggestions and real insight into spiritual conditions The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature George Thomas Kurian, James D. Smith III, 2010-04-16 The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy Covering 2 000 years The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books In addition to an overview of the Christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age The companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles
