Mysticism And Morality Oriental Thought And Moral Philosophy:

Mysticism and Morality Arthur Coleman Danto, 1987      Mysticism and Morality: Oriental Thought and Moral Philosophy Arthur C. Danto, 1972      Mysticism and Morality Arthur C. Danto, 1976      Mysticism and Morality Richard H. Jones, 2004-01-01 In Mysticism and Morality author Richard Jones explores an often neglected question of religious ethics. Is mysticism moral? Through a discussion of several religious traditions including Hinduism, Jainism, Buddhism, Tantrism, Daoism, and Christianity, Jones fills a major void in the scholarly literature by considering all relevant points pertaining to mysticism. Rather than looking at mysticism abstractly, the book focuses on such topics as ritual practice and the processes of mystical becoming. This work provides new perspectives for those interested in ethics and will prove essential to anyone interested in comparative philosophy and cross-cultural studies of religion.      Mysticism And Morality Arthur C. Danto, 1973-01-16      Venturing Beyond - Law and Morality in Kabbalistic Mysticism Elliot R. Wolfson, 2006-05-25 Venturing Beyond Law and Morality in Kabbalistic Mysticism is an investigation of the relationship of the mystical and moral viewed through the prism of the kabbalistic tradition. Elliot R. Wolfson's analysis focuses in particular on the multi-layered corpus of Zohar, the major sourcebook of theosophic symbolism that has informed the variegated evolution of kabbalistic thought and practice. BOOK JACKET      The Teachings of the Odd-Eyed One David Peter Lawrence, 2008-08-20 This book offers the first published translation of the contemplative manual Vir p kspace written circa the twelfth century CE and the commentary on it Vivrti by Vidyacakravartin. These late works from the Pratyabhij tradition of monistic and tantric Kashmiri aiva philosophy focus on means to deindividualize and disclose the primordial divine essential natures of the human ego and body-sense. David Peter Lawrence situates these writings in their medieval South Asian religious and intellectual contexts. He goes on to engage Pratyabhij philosophical psychology in dialogue with Western religious and psychoanalytic conceptions of identity and narcissism and also demonstrates the aiva tradition's strong concern with ethics. The richly annotated translation and glossary illuminate the texts for all readers.      Heidegger and the Environment Casey Rentmeester, 2015-12-04 In the past few decades it has become clear that the Western world's relation to nature has led to environmental degradation so wide-ranging that it threatens the existence of human civilizations as we have come to know them. The onset of anthropogenic climate change and the increasing threats of resource depletions are the most obvious signs of an environmental crisis. This book attempts to examine the metaphysical underpinnings of our current environmental crisis, thereby viewing it from a philosophical perspective. Using Martin Heidegger's writings on the history of being as its lynchpin, it examines how humans have come to view nature as a giant array of mere resources to be maximally exploited. Following Heidegger, Casey Rentmeester argues that this understanding of nature is rooted in the understanding of what it means to be that came about in ancient Greece. Rentmeester then utilizes elements of Heidegger's post-metaphysical later philosophy and aspects of early philosophical Daoism to create an alternative way to think about the relation between humans and nature.

that is environmentally sustainable      Reflective Equilibrium Wibren van der Burg, Theo van Willigenburg, 2012-12-06 Robert Heeger has been professor of ethics at Utrecht University since 1977 both at the Faculty of Theology and at the Faculty of Philosophy Since 1985 he has also been teaching at the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine Before he came to Utrecht he had worked at Uppsala University for many years He has always stayed in close contact with his Swedish colleagues and twice he was a visiting professor at Uppsala University With his eastern German background his roots partly in Russia his thesis on the Italian philosopher Gramsci and his interest in Anglo American analytical philosophy he has a broad international orientation It is no wonder therefore that he always felt much at home in the Societas Ethica the European Society for Research in Ethics which he served as its president from 1991 to 1995 Robert Heeger is primarily a teacher and excels as a discussion partner With his sharp analytical mind and his great intellectual curiosity he not only exposes critically the weak points in an argument but often also brings up creative suggestions to improve it Thus he has greatly influenced his many students he co supervised fourteen doctoral theses and his colleagues both in the Netherlands and abroad Moreover he was one of the first moral philosophers in the Netherlands and even in Europe to be involved in environmental ethics and in animal and veterinary ethics      Believing and Acting G. Scott Davis, 2012-03-16 How should religion and ethics be studied if we want to understand what people believe and why they act the way they do In the 1980s and 90s postmodernist worries about led to debates that turned on power truth and relativism Since the turn of the century scholars impressed by cognitive science have introduced concepts drawn from evolutionary biology neurosciences and linguistics in the attempt to provide naturalist accounts of religion Deploying concepts and arguments that have their roots in the pragmatism of C S Peirce Believing and Acting argues that both approaches are misguided and largely unhelpful in answering the questions that matter What did those people believe then How does it relate to what these people want to do now What is our evidence for our interpretations Pragmatic inquiry into these questions recommends an approach that questions grand theories advocates a critical pluralism about religion and ethics that defies disciplinary boundaries in the pursuit of the truth Rationality on a pragmatic approach is about solving particular problems in medias res thus there is no hard and fast line to be drawn between inquiry and advocacy both are essential to negotiating day to day life The upshot is an approach to religion and ethics in which inquiry looks much like the art history of Michael Baxandall and advocacy like the art criticism of Arthur Danto      Ecomysticism Carl von Essen, 2010-10-19 Explores the philosophy science and spirituality of nature mysticism and its Green calling Offers a solid bridge between spiritual practice and environmental activism Reveals how we can heal the environment by renewing our connection to it Shows how spiritual encounters in nature are healing the Nature Deficit Disorder of our psyches and bodies Many have been struck by a majestic moment in nature a sole illuminated flower in a shady grove an owl swooping silently across a wooded path or an infinitely starry sky and found themselves in a state of expanded awareness so profound they can feel the interconnectedness of all life These trance like moments of clarity unity and wonder often incite a call to protect and preserve the earth to support Nature as she supports us Termed nature mysticism people from all cultures have described such experiences However the ever increasing urbanization of the world's population is threatening this ancient connection as well as the earth itself In Ecomysticism Carl von Essen explores nature mysticism through the recorded experiences of outdoor enthusiasts as well as scientific studies in biology psychology and neuroscience Citing consciousness scholar William James and a variety of well known nature lovers such as Ansel Adams Henry David Thoreau and Ralph Waldo Emerson von Essen shows how the spiritual transcendence from an encounter in nature like other mystical experiences is healing the Nature Deficit Disorder of our psyches and bodies leading to an expansion of our worldview and a clearer understanding of our self and of our natural world Offering a solid bridge between spiritual practice and environmental activism von Essen's spiritual ecology reveals how only through a renewal of humanity's spiritual connection to nature can we effect true environmental healing

Taoism Russell Kirkland, 2004 Presents volume thirteen of a fourteen volume series on World Religions exploring the origins of Taoism in China its central beliefs and restoration under China's religious freedom clause rituals sacred sites and more

Hinduism Shyam Ranganathan, 2018-07-06 Hinduism A Contemporary Philosophical Investigation explores Hinduism and the distinction between the secular and religious on a global scale According to Ranganathan a careful philosophical study of Hinduism reveals it as the microcosm of philosophical disagreements with Indian resources across a variety of topics including ethics logic the philosophy of thought epistemology moral standing metaphysics and politics This analysis offers an original and fresh diagnosis of studying Hinduism colonialism and a global rise of hyper nationalism as well as the frequent acrimony between scholars and practitioners of Hindu traditions This text is appropriate for use in undergraduate and graduate courses on Hinduism and Indian philosophy and can be used as an advanced introduction to the problems of philosophy with South Asian resources

Red Sea-Red Square-Red Thread Lydia Goehr, 2022 Designed as a philosophical detective story Red Sea Red Square Red Thread follows the extraordinary number of thinkers and artists who have used the Red Sea anecdote to make so much more than a merely anecdotal point Leading the large cast are the philosophers Arthur Danto and Søren Kierkegaard the poet and playwright Henri Murger the opera composer Giacomo Puccini and the painter and print maker William Hogarth Strange companions perhaps until their use of the anecdote is shown as working its extraordinary passage through so many cosmopolitan cities of art and capital Lydia Goehr explores these narratives of emancipation in philosophy theology politics and the arts

Nothingness and Desire James W. Heisig, 2013-07-31 The six lectures that make up this book were delivered in March 2011 at London University's School of Oriental and Asian Studies as the Jordan Lectures on Comparative Religion They revolve around the intersection of two ideas nothingness and desire as they apply to a re examination of the questions of self God morality property and the East West philosophical divide Rather than attempt to harmonize East and West philosophies into a single chorus Heisig undertakes what he calls a philosophical antiphony

Through the simple call and response of a few representative voices Heisig tries to join the choir on both sides of the antiphony to relate the questions at hand to larger problems that press on the human community He argues that as problems like the technological devastation of the natural world the shrinking of elected governance through the expanding powers of financial institutions and the expropriation of alternate cultures of health and education spread freely through traditional civilizations across the world religious and philosophical responses can no longer afford to remain territorial in outlook Although the lectures often stress the importance of practice their principal preoccupation is with seeing the things of life more clearly Heisig explains By that I mean not just looking more closely at objects that come into my line of view from day to day but seeing them as mirrors in which I can see myself reflected Things do not just reveal parts of the world to me they also tell me something of how I see what I see and who it is that does the seeing To listen to what things have to say to me I need to break with the habit of thinking simply that it is I who mirror inside of myself the world outside and process what I have captured to make my way through life Only when this habit has been broken will I be able to start seeing through the reflections to scrape the tain off the mirror as it were so that it becomes a window to the things of life as they are with only a pale reflection of myself left on the pane Everything seen through the looking glass myself included becomes an image on which reality has stamped itself This I am persuaded is the closest we can come to a ground for thinking reasonably and acting as true to life as we can

Cultivating Personhood Stephen Palmquist, 2010 Authors from all over the world unite in an effort to cultivate dialogue between Asian and Western philosophy The papers forge a new East West comparative path on the whole range of issues in Kant studies The concept of personhood crucial for both traditions serves as a springboard to address issues such as knowledge acquisition and education ethics and self identity religious political community building and cross cultural understanding Edited by Stephen Palmquist founder of the Hong Kong Philosophy Caf and well known for both his Kant expertise and his devotion to fostering philosophical dialogue the book presents selected and reworked papers from the first ever Kant Congress in Hong Kong held in May 2009 Among others the contributors are Patricia Kitcher New York City USA G nther Wohlfahrt Wuppertal Germany Cheng Chung ying Hawaii USA Sammy Xie Xia ling Shanghai China Lau Chong fuk Hong Kong Anita Ho Vancouver Kelowna Canada Ellen Zhang Hong Kong Pong Wen berng Taipei Taiwan Simon Xie Shengjian Melbourne Australia Makoto Suzuki Aichi Japan Kiyoshi Himi Mie Japan Park Chan Goo Seoul South Korea Chong Chaeh yun Seoul South Korea Mohammad Raayat Jahromi Tehran Iran Mohsen Abhari Javadi Qom Iran Soraj Hongladarom Bangkok Thailand Ruchira Majumdar Kolkata India A T Nuyen Singapore Stephen Palmquist Hong Kong Christian Wenzel Taipei Taiwan Mario Wenning Macau

religion is a discipline that explores a wide range of issues related to religious beliefs and practices. However, the field has historically exhibited a narrow focus predominantly centring on the Christian tradition and lacking substantial interaction between philosophers from distinct religious and cultural backgrounds. To address this, Global Dialogues in the Philosophy of Religion includes contributions from eminent scholars that address the world's five major religious traditions: Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam, and Judaism. These dialogues delve into the philosophical aspects of religion, covering significant topics including revelation and religious experience, analysis of faith, science and religion, the foundations of morality, and life and the afterlife. In each section, one of these critical issues is examined by three distinguished philosophers, each specializing in a particular religious tradition. These authors not only present their own perspectives on the subject matter but also respond to the viewpoints of philosophers from other traditions. This dynamic exchange gives readers valuable insight into how philosophical inquiries can be approached from various religious standpoints. This unique collection offers a rich tapestry of ideas and fosters a greater understanding of the philosophical dimensions of religion across diverse cultural and religious contexts. David Carrier, 2008-11-28. Is writing a world art history possible? Does the history of art as such even exist outside the Western tradition? Is it possible to consider the history of art in a way that is not fundamentally Eurocentric? In this highly readable and provocative book, David Carrier, a philosopher and art historian, does not attempt to write a world art history himself. Rather, he asks the question of how an art history of all cultures could be written or whether it is even possible to do so. He also engages the political and moral issues raised by the idea of a multicultural art history. Focusing on a consideration of intersecting artistic traditions, Carrier negotiates the way meaning and understanding shift or are altered when a visual object from one culture, for example, is inserted into the visual tradition of another culture. A World Art History and Its Objects proposes the use of temporal narrative as a way to begin to understand a multicultural art history. Law, A Personal View
