Mysticism And The Doctrine Of Deification:

Mystical Doctrines of Deification John Arblaster, Rob Faesen, 2018-10-03 The notion of the deification of the human person theosis theopoi sis deificatio was one of the most fundamental themes of Christian theology in its first centuries especially in the Greek world It is often assumed that this theme was exclusively developed in Eastern theology after the patristic period and thus its presence in the theology of the Latin West is generally overlooked The aim of this collection is to explore some Patristic articulations of the doctrine in both the East and West but also to highlight its enduring presence in the Western tradition and its relevance for contemporary thought The collection thus brings together a number of capita selecta that focus on the development of theosis through the ages until the Early Modern Period It is unique not only in emphasising the role of theosis in the West but also in bringing to the fore a number of little known authors and texts and analysing their theology from a variety of fresh perspectives Thus mystical theology in the West is shown to have profound connections with similar concerns in the East and with the common patristic sources By tying these traditions together this volume brings new insight to one of mysticism s key concerns As such it will be of significant interest to scholars of religious studies mysticism theology and the history of religion

Onishi, 2016-03-09 In the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries secular French scholars started re engaging with religious ideas particularly mystical ones Mysticism in the French Tradition introduces key philosophical undercurrents and trajectories in French thought that underpin and arise from this engagement as well as considering earlier French contributions to the development of mysticism Filling a gap in the literature the book offers critical reflections on French scholarship in terms of its engagement with its mystical and apophatic dimensions A multiplicity of factors converge to shape these encounters with mystical theology feminist devotional and philosophical treatments as well as literary historical and artistic approaches The essays draw these into conversation Bringing together an international and interdisciplinary range of contributions from both new and established scholars this book provides access to the melting pot out of which the mystical tradition in France erupted in the twenty first century and from which it continues to challenge theology today      Christian Mysticism William Ralph Inge, 1899      The Arnhem Mystical Sermons Ineke Cornet, 2018-12-06 In this book on The Arnhem mystical sermons Ineke Cornet offers the first in depth study of the mystical and theological content of this sixteenth century sermon collection from St Agnes in Arnhem      Triadosis Eduard Borysov, 2021-01-01 The complex nature of Christian communion with a personal God requires a nuanced expression Since its inception the early church affirmed God's unknowable nature and also participation in God through Christ The church fathers employed the language of theosis in talking about union with God and human transformation in the likeness of God However the term theosis or deification is a broad category and requires precise explanation to avoid human dissolution into the divine in the mystical union it attempts to describe In Triadosis Eduard Borysov offers a new approach to the
