God-creature-revelation Jerry D. Korsmeyer,1995 Educated Western Christians seek to understand the scientific basis of evolution as well as to justify why a God worth worshiping can be responsible yet not indictable for evil The author creates an innovative theological framework that addresses these concerns and provides part of a structure for fundamental theology which is based on the neoclassical metaphysics of Charles Hartshorne and the speculative cosmology of Alfred North Whitehead His model of the divine has three basic principles God is love God is the creator and this creativity is an integral part of divine essence From this model he develops a fundamental theology which focuses on the nature of divinity the interaction between human and the divine and divine revelation He attributes much of his own concept of revelation to Whitehead s model in which revelation is indicative of a successful communion between human and divine This revelation is achieved through symbolic mediation and it is as much inter personal reconciliation as it is a universal resonance of the creative essence between heaven and earth This framework shows initial agreement with Christian traditions it is highly coherent universal in scope and most importantly it has rich potential for future Christian understanding The Story of the Jewish People Jack M. Myers,1925 The Big Book of Christian Mysticism Carl McColman,2021-11-16 In popular usage mysticism typically refers to New Age or Eastern forms of spirituality However the mystical tradition is also an important component of the Christian tradition At its heart and much like its expression in other faith traditions Christian mysticism is an ancient practice that incorporates meditation contemplation worship philosophy the quest for personal enlightenment and the experience of Divine presence This volume is a comprehensive introduction and guide to Christian mysticism It is a big book about a big possibility the hope of achieving real blissful experiential unison with God Among the
