Myth In The Works Of Chingiz Aitmatov:

Myth in the Works of Chingiz Aitmatov Nina Kolesnikoff, 1999-05-13 Myth in the Works of Chingiz Aitmatov examines the use of mythology in the work of the contemporary Kirghiz writer Chingiz Aitmatov Nina Kolesnikoff traces Aitmatov's reliance on myth beginning with his early stories which introduce mythological motifs and ending with his latest novels which juxtapose mythological and realistic narratives She particularly focuses on Aitmatov's two novellas which use myth as a structural element that influences all other components and determines the final structure In addition she traces the sources of his mythological influence to Central Asia including that of the Kirghiz tribe but she also uncovers elements of Greek mythology and the Bible Kolesnikoff explores the unexpected influence of the Bible on a writer from within the Muslim tradition yet the Bible provides a rich source for many of his latest novels She concludes by contending that Aitmatov's The White Steamship and Spotted Dog Running Along the Seashore represent the most successful examples of modern prose constructed in accordance with the general mythological traditions and structural principles The Myth of the Non-Russian Erika Haber, 2003-01-01 The Myth of the Non Russian explores the magical realist prose of two non Slavic authors writing in Russian in the Soviet Union in the 1970s 1980s Erika Haber argues that these authors juxtaposed their native myth with Soviet myth thus undermining the Soviet prescription of national conformity in art by suggesting a plurality of worlds and truths Myth, Metaphor and Meaning Jill K. Sigman, 1998 New Directions in Soviet Literature Sheelagh Duffin Graham, 1992-12-13 This is a selection of papers on Russian literature of the Soviet period presented at the IVth World Congress for Soviet and East European Studies in 1990 The ten articles range from the experimental prose and drama of the 1920s to studies of work by younger writers of the 1980s The articles include analyses of works by individual writers and examinations of general phenomena for example village prose or the way Stalin is presented in literature of the glasnost era

Chingiz Aitmatov and the Poetics of Moral Prose Joseph P. Mozur, 1985

Spirit of the Totem Irena Maryniak, 1995 The book presents an original interdisciplinary analysis of religious and mythological perspectives in fiction published in the Soviet Union between the mid 1960s and the mid 1980s In doing so it points to ways in which anthropological theory can be used as a framework for literary criticism It also shows how in the two decades before perestroika religion and mythology served as alternative models for the intellectual and political reorientation of Soviet society Selected works are explored with reference to a formative debate in anthropological studies on the nature and development of religion based on Edward B Tylor's theory of animism and Emile Durkheim's theory of totemism It is shown how the animist totemist dichotomy highlighted by the controversy is reflected in Russian religious thought before 1917 and particularly in the literature of the Soviet era Within the framework of this debate a selection of novels is discussed in the light of a range of mythological and religious systems Attention is drawn to the connection between Valentin Rasputin's religious vision and traditional Siberian beliefs particularly those of the Buryat The Georgian novel Data Tutashkia by Chabua Amiredzhibi is analysed with reference to Zoroastrian thought Daniil Granin's Kartina The Picture serves as an example of a work where in accordance with Tylor's theory notions of art and beauty take on an animist quality It is argued that early fiction by Chingiz Aitmatov reveals a tension between animist perceptions and the totemic understanding of religion and mirrors aspects of pre Islamic Central Asian religious tradition The writing of Vladimir Tendriakov offers an example of a vision divided between an awareness of Christian dilemmas and loyalty to Marxist Leninist sociological models The study also shows how Durkheim's theory of religion as an expression of a group's awareness of its identity can be related to ideas put forward by Russian nationalist writers Iurii

Bondarev Sergei Alekseev and Vasilii Belov It suggests that examples of fiction by Petr Proskurin and later works by Chingiz Aitmatov and Vladimir Tendriakov indicate revived interest in the God building theory of Maksim Gor kii and Anatolii Lunacharskii In conclusion the book argues that subtextual religious and mythological narratives in Soviet fiction published in the years between the fall of Khrushchev and the Millenium of Christianity in Rus provided a model for new literary discourse under perestroika and for subsequent political transformations American Book Publishing Record ,1999 On Russian Soil Mieka Erley,2021-06-15 Blending close readings of literature films and other artworks with analysis of texts of political philosophy science and social theory Mieka Erley offers an interdisciplinary perspective on attitudes to soil in Russia and the Soviet Union from the early nineteenth to the mid twentieth century As Erley shows in On Russian Soil the earth has inspired utopian dreams reactionary ideologies social theories and durable myths about the relationship between nation and nature In this period of modernization soil was understood as the collective body of the nation sitting at the crux of all economic and social problems The soil question was debated by nationalists and radical materialists Slavophiles and Westernizers poets and scientists On Russian Soil highlights a selection of key myths at the intersection of cultural and material history that show how soil served as a natural national and symbolic resource from Fedor Dostoevsky s native soil movement to Nikita Khrushchev s Virgin Lands campaign at the Soviet periphery in the 1960s Providing an original contribution to ecocriticism and environmental humanities Erley expands our understanding of how cultural processes write nature and how nature inspires culture On Russian Soil brings Slavic studies into new conversations in the environmental humanities generating fresh interpretations of literary and cultural movements and innovative readings of major writers

Have the Mountains Fallen? Jeffrey B. Lilley,2018-01-25 A thought provoking book about the long journey of the Kyrgyz people to independence that melds the stories of Chingiz Aitmatov and Azamat Altay Roza Otunbayeva former president of the Kyrgyz Republic After surviving the blitzkrieg of World War II and escaping from three Nazi prison camps Soviet soldier Azamat Altay fled to the West and was charged as a traitor in his homeland of Kyrgyzstan in Soviet Central Asia Chingiz Aitmatov became a hero of Kyrgyzstan propelled by family loss to write novels about the everyday lives of his fellow citizens While both came from small villages in the beautiful mountainous countryside they found themselves caught on opposite sides of the Cold War struggle between world superpowers Altay became the voice of democracy on Radio Liberty broadcasting back into his shuttered homeland while Aitmatov rose through the ranks of Soviet society a quiet rebel whose prose masked ugly truths about Soviet communism Yet just as they seemed to be pulled apart by the divisions of the Cold War they found their lives intersecting in compelling ways joined by a common mission to save their people The stories of Chingiz Aitmatov and Azamat Altay are best told together a herculean task which Jeffrey B Lilley s Have The Mountain s Fallen Two Journeys of Loss and Redemption in the Cold War manages deftly Their story because it is in essence a single story is that of Kyrgyzstan itself replete with tragedy and sacrifice hope and triumph The Diplomat A Cold War story that

Mozur Jr., 2017-12-20 James Mozur traces the development of Chingiz Aitmatov's fiction from the early 1950s through the mid 1970s including Farewell Gul sary The White Ship The Day Lasts More Than a Hundred Years and The Place of the Skull He discusses each major work against the political and cultural background in which it was created and thereby widens our understanding of post Stalinist Soviet literature Chingiz Aitmatov was born in Kirghizstan in 1928 and published his first stories in the 1950s in both Russian and Kirghiz He soon took his place as spokesman for the progressive wing of official Soviet Russian literature striving for greater openness in Soviet letters and for a new approach toward diverse nationalities Unlike many other writers Aitmatov continued to flourish in the cultural tumult following the collapse of the communist state being appointed to government posts by Gorbachev and becoming Soviet ambassador to Luxembourg in 1991      East European Languages and Literatures, VII ,1997
