is that the benefits of development so long promised over the past sixty years have not come about for most people Nor are they going to State driven and market led development models have both failed Many countries and their cities in particular are collapsing into ungovernable chaotic entities under the control of warlords and mafias Oswaldo de Rivero argues that the wealth of nations agenda must be replaced by a survival of nations agenda In order to prevent increasing human misery and political disorder many countries must abandon dreams of development and adopt instead a policy of national survival based on providing basic water food and energy and stabilizing their populations This much anticipated new edition features both updated statistics and fresh material including an essential new argument that the present global crisis is not simply economic but a much more profound crisis of the California Model a crisis of our way of life and of our unsustainable global urban civilization The Politics of the New International Financial Architecture Susanne Soederberg,2004-11 This is a critique of the attempts of the G7 industrialized countries to rewrite the rules of international finance It includes case studies on capital controls from Chile and Malaysia and is aimed at scholars and students of international political economy and development and reform activists Identity and Literacy Development Gregorio Hernandez Zamora,2004

Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2001-06 Globalization or Empire? Jan Nederveen Pieterse,2004-08-01 In this smart and concise examination of the trends driving contemporary globalization Jan Nederveen Pieterse argues that the United States pursuit of global primacy is based upon a complex melding of neoliberal economics and hegemonic politics Do alternate capitalisms offer viable alternatives to the American way Globalization or Empire looks at globalization with acuity and thoughtfulness and uncovers its underlying dramas The Security Intersection Greg Mills,2005 The rising influence of non state actors in the management of international relations reflects both the increasing importance of economic affairs in a rapidly integrating and financially interdependent world and the emergence of so called new issues that have to be factored into any foreign policy the promotion of human rights and democracy humanitarian concerns drug abuse and trafficking the spread of contagious diseases including HIV AIDS transnational crime the safeguarding of the environment
