schooling that commodifies learning and turns the student into an object has neuroticizing effects that will spread throughout that student's entire life. In Part I Mayes explores the interaction between archetypes and various types of time ultimately focusing on the individual but always mediated by the cultural unconscious. In Parts II and III he brings together education with post Jungian and post Freudian psychology examining transference countertransference in the classroom the Jungian idea of the shadow applied to educational processes Jung's unique vision of the symbol and its importance for educational theory and Jung's transcendent function as a prime educational modality. Mayes concludes by looking to the future of archetypal pedagogy. This groundbreaking work in the emerging field of Jungian pedagogy is invaluable reading in Jungian Studies depth psychological theory educational theory and for teachers and psychotherapists. Becoming a Global Citizen Dinah D'Antoni, Clifford Mayes, 2022-11-28 The modern world becomes significantly even exponentially more interconnected with each passing year month and even day. The global flow of goods services news ideas and cultural practices and perspectives provides individuals with opportunities to experience and participate in an unprecedented array of intercultural experiences. All of this defines a new global situation and requires new approaches to educating students to not only survive but prosper on this new geopolitical landscape. This requires that we venture into ethical and spiritual dimensions of the process if we are to go about it in a humane and psychospiritually productive way. This book in the case study tradition examined the lived experiences of 12 former high school students who participated in an exchange trip to Argentina in connection with intercultural competency development. The Fundamentalist Mind Stephen Larsen, 2014-05-27 We are all fundamentalists whether we acknowledge it or not. We were born into a world of myth and metaphor and have come to internalize the stories we were told as children as the literal interpretations of much greater and deeply symbolic lessons. When we fall into such patterns according to author and psychotherapist Stephen Larsen we lose all flexibility and freedom of thought. We become split by dualistic thinking bad versus good black versus white and are weighted down by definitive concretistic principles and behaviors that alienate us from one another. Dr. Larsen explains that we can avoid such pitfalls by identifying our inner fundamentalist and becoming more open minded individuals.
