

"This was the push I needed to propel me towards finishing my debut. Within a couple of years I had an agent, a publisher and a novel on the shelves of bookshops and libraries across the land. Today I am the author of nine novels, working on my tenth, and a mentor with the Royal Literary Fund. All those years ago I could hardly have imagined it. Putting yourself out there is not easy, but I hope to encourage all you underground writers to take courage and release your words."
