

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a man with light brown hair, smiling, wearing a light blue button-down shirt and light-colored trousers. He is standing in a garden with various plants, including a large green bush and some red flowers in the foreground. The title 'what grows here?' is written in a mix of blue and black fonts. A small circular inset in the top right corner shows a close-up of a plant. A banner at the top right says 'The gardening tradition continues'.
