

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a desert landscape. The foreground is a vast, flat, sandy area with some small, dark rocks scattered across it. In the middle ground, there is a dark silhouette of a person, possibly a Bedouin, standing and looking towards the right. The person is wearing traditional attire, including a head covering and a long robe. The background is a hazy, light-colored horizon under a pale sky. The overall tone of the image is warm and historical.
