Augustine, 2023-03-28 In When Prophets Preach

Leadership and the Politics of the Pulpit Jay Augustine urges twenty first century preachers to speak openly against social injustice establishing such preaching as a key component of prophetic leadership Beginning with the premise that the church was birthed to address salvation in the kingdom to come and social justice in the kingdom at hand Augustine presents prophetic preaching as part of the ministry of reconciliation Jesus left to the church Addressing topics such as abusive immigration policies and racial injustices he urges the church to return to its foundation of prophetic leadership as exemplified not only by Jesus but by the Old Testament prophets and the New Testament apostles When Prophets Preach demonstrates that faithfulness to this ministry requires preachers to break the pulpit silence Then the church can lead in bridging social and ethnic gaps among its members It can show society at large how to heal many of the social economic and political divisions in our world the very rifts that underscore the need for social justice ministries and that necessitate prophetic preaching Return to Viet Nam: One Veteran's Journey of Healing Linda G.
