Reconstructing Pastoral Theology A Christological Foundation:

Reconstructing Pastoral Theology Andrew Purves, 2004-09-20 In Pastoral Care in the Classical Tradition Andrew Purves argued that pastoral care and theology has long ignored Scripture and Christian doctrine and pastoral practice has become secularized in both method and goal the fiefdom of psychology and the social sciences He builds further on this idea here presenting a christological basis for ministry and pastoral theology

A Perichoretic Pastoral Theology Jim Horsthuis, 2022-09-08 This book articulates a perichoretic pastoral theology offering a pastoral theological response to the question of how ministering persons practice ministry in communion with the triune God Key elements from contemporary pastoral theology theologies of human experience concern for human suffering and situational attentiveness are drawn into conversation with the doctrine of perichoresis Jim Horsthuis provides a vision for life and ministry in relational participational and spiritual communion with the Father Son and Holy Spirit The chapters explore four spiritual movements that foster this vision 1 the move from experience to relationship 2 the move from concern to presence 3 the move from competence to communion and 4 the move from practice to prayer The book represents a unique academic contribution to both pastoral theology and Trinitarian theology

Evangelical Calvinism Myk Habets, Bobby Grow, 2012-06-08 In this exciting volume new and emerging voices join senior Reformed scholars in presenting a coherent and impassioned articulation of Calvinism for today's world Evangelical Calvinism represents a mood within current Reformed theology The various contributors are in different ways articulating that mood of which their very diversity is a significant element In attempting to outline features of an Evangelical Calvinism a number of the contributors compare and contrast this approach with that of Federal Calvinism currently dominant in North American Reformed theology challenging the assumption that Federal Calvinism is the only possible expression of orthodox Reformed theology This book does not however represent the arrival of a new Calvinism or even a neo Calvinism if by those terms are meant a novel reading of the Reformed faith An Evangelical Calvinism highlights a Calvinistic tradition that has developed particularly within Scotland but is not unique to the Scots The editors have picked up the baton passed on by John Calvin Karl Barth Thomas Torrance and others in order to offer the family of Reformed theologies a reinvigorated theological and spiritual ethos This volume promises to set the agenda for Reformed Calvinist discussion for some time to come

Exploring Christology and Atonement Andrew Purves, 2015-08-07 The Scottish theologians John McLeod Campbell Hugh Ross Mackintosh and Thomas F Torrance were theologians of reconciliation who emphasized the reality of God's redemptive grace in the person and work of Jesus Christ In this magisterial treatment Andrew Purves unfolds the riches of their theology for pastoral ministry today

Beyond Snakes and Shamrocks Ross A. Lockhart, 2018-07-02 Somewhere in the mists of time between history and hagiography stands the great evangelist and missionary St Patrick Raised a cultural Christian Patrick's encounter with God during captivity in Ireland transformed his life and the history of a people Freedom from slavery and a return home to Britain produced the divine summons Vox Hibernia to return to Ireland and the place of captivity in order to witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ Christian witness in twenty first century Vancouver Seattle or Portland is a world away from fifth century Armagh Slane or Cashel Yet the great evangelist to pre Christian peoples of Hibernia has much to teach us as we seek to engage our secular post Christian context There is wisdom in the missional leadership of the one we call St Patrick that goes well beyond tales of snakes and shamrocks How might Patrick s mission experience with pre Christian peoples direct our contemporary missional encounter with post Christian peoples Come explore the story of the shepherd slave turned shepherd of souls and discover that there is power still in the legacy of Patrick when yoked with the Spirit filled presence and purpose of the risen Christ

Evangelical Calvinism Dr. Myk Habets,Bobby Grow,2017-05-04 Continuing the discussion initiated in volume one volume two of Evangelical Calvinism further articulates the central motifs of this mood within Reformed theology by examining themes having to do with dogmatics and devotion After further clarifying the methodological and dogmatic aspects common to an Evangelical Calvinism the heart of the present volume is an explication of the vicarious ministry of Christ as it is worked out in its diverse theological dimensions The volume offers constructive accounts of various aspects of liturgy sacraments and doxology showing the vitality and lived spirituality of this Christian vision of faith and practice Both advocates and critics of Evangelical Calvinism now have an extended and thorough body of work with which to interact As with volume 1 this volume promises to set the agenda for contemporary and constructive Reformed studies in a way that provides an alternative to neo Calvinism and Westminster Calvinism alike Thomas F. Torrance's Theology of the Ascension Stavan Narendra John,2025-05-29 The ascension is a crucial doctrine integrally related to the incarnation When it is underemphasized it results in an impoverishment of our theology of Christ the church human beings and eschatology T F Torrance s theology offers a compelling vision and holistic doctrine of the ascension that notwithstanding its flaws deserves a careful and detailed examination Torrance develops a holistic account of the ascension by considering the ontology spatiality and present ministry of the ascended Jesus What results is a theological construction that affirms the ascended body of Christ and understands the Lord to be currently serving as our human representative in a ministry of priestly intercession prophetic declaration and ascended kingship Torrance is able to do this without succumbing to literalism space travel demythologization metaphorical reading or Pelagianism human effort based sanctification and glorification This book interprets and then develops Torrance s theology of the ascension in critical dialogue with contemporary theological interlocutors T. F. Torrance as Missional Theologian Joseph H. Sherrard,2021-06-01 What contribution can T F Torrance make to the discussion of a missional view of the church Theologian and pastor Joseph Sherrard considers how Torrance s theology can inform the church s understanding of its ministry and mission in particular his appeal to the church s participation in the ascended Christ s threefold office as king prophet and priest Brimming with God Barbara J. Blodgett,Matthew Floding,2015-08-13 The yearning to be a theologian is widespread Pastors students supervisors and mentors all wish to think theologically about their ministries but often feel inadequately prepared This book seeks to respond by showcasing a variety of approaches to theological reflection brought to bear upon actual situations in ministry It is written by theological field educators We define theological reflection as reflection upon lived embodied experiences in ministry that seeks to make sense of practice and form reflectors in habits for competent ministry An introductory chapter defines theological reflection as practiced within field education and points readers toward a diversity of approaches Eleven subsequent chapters present two reflections upon the same case each reflection written by a different author and representing a different reflection method The book's significance is as a resource for teaching theological reflection in a range of settings It not only offers a definition of and rationale for theological reflection but models various approaches to it Its use of cases furthermore models the use of case studies in theological education and pastoral practice more widely

Wholeness in Hope Care Daniel Johannes Louw, 2015 Throughout his life the apartheid activist Nelson Mandela Madiba maintained In the darkest moment there is always hope We must never give up Hope as a mode of the courage to be Paul Tillich points to what the Sociologist Peter Berger calls signals of transcendence Wholeness in Hope Care explores the rich tradition of hope in wisdom philosophy and Christian theology It connects non hope un hope Gabriel Marcel inespore to a theology of compassion in soul care cura animarum Resurrection hope theologia resurrectionis points to the healing of life cura vitae and the preservation of land cura terrae In order to describe the helping and healing dimension in pastoral caregiving the term promissiotherapy has been coined Daniel Johannes Louw was Dean of the faculty of theology at the University of Stellenbosch 2001 2005 President of the International Academy of Practical Theology IAPT 2003 2005 and President of the International Council for Pastoral Care and Counselling ICPPC 2011 2015 Series Pastoral Care and Spiritual Healing Series Pastoral Care and Spiritual Healing Vol 3 Subject Pastoral Studies Religious Studies Christianity T&T Clark Handbook of Thomas F. Torrance Paul D. Molnar, Myk Habets, 2020-02-20 This handbook explores Thomas F Torrance's importance in modern theology with each contribution bringing Torrance's deep and nuanced insights to a broad range of contemporary theological concerns The contributors to this volume present cutting edge Torrance scholarship for a new generation which will enable readers to see the timely significance of Torrance for today Comprising both contexts and dogmatics these essays not only introduce key themes in Torrance's extensive published writings including his work on the Trinity ecumenism incarnation atonement and eschatology but also provide fresh interpretations fully conversant with theological problems facing the church in the world today Designed as both a guide for students and a reference point for scholars this handbook thoroughly explores the frameworks of key debates related to Torrance's theology while also suggesting fresh interpretative strategies concerning his thought Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God John Jefferson Davis, 2015-07-13 Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God presents a new paradigm for church ministry one that is based on fundamental truths of the Christian faith such as the Trinity union with Christ and the already presence of the Holy Spirit in the church This new paradigm can help busy pastors avoid burnout in the ministry and model Trinitarian New Testament patterns of ministry to their people Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God reflects the best of recent New Testament scholarship sensitivity to the contexts of globalized postmodern cultures dominated by digital media and practical applications for Christian life discipleship worship and mission Relational Integration of Psychology and Christian Theology Steven J. Sandage, Jeannine K. Brown, 2018-02-19 Relational Integration of Psychology and Christian Theology offers an in depth interdisciplinary relational framework that integrates theology psychology and clinical and other applications Building on existing models and debates about the relationship between psychology and theology the authors provide a much needed examination of the actual interpersonal dynamics of integration and its implications for training and clinical practice Case studies from a variety of clinical and educational contexts illustrate and support the authors model of relational integration Using an approach that is sensitive to theological diversity and to social context this book puts forward a theological and therapeutic framework that values diversity the repairing of ruptures and collaboration Chaplaincy Mark A. Jumper, Steven E. Keith, Michael W. Langston, 2024-03-26 This comprehensive introduction to the ministry of chaplaincy brings together three authors who oversee three of the leading chaplaincy programs in the United States Written from an evangelical perspective the book covers the foundations of chaplaincy and surveys specific types of chaplaincy work In the first half of the book the authors delve into the history of chaplaincy work as well as its biblical theological and philosophical foundations They introduce students to important topics such as endorsement placement and the constitutional and legal parameters of such work They also consider the person of the chaplain and the understanding of chaplaincy as Christian ministry In the second half of the book the authors bring together expert contributors to survey ten specific contexts for chaplaincy work such as education healthcare the military corporations prisons public safety and sports and they explore the future of chaplaincy This book will be an invaluable resource for students of chaplaincy The Sense of the Call Marva J. Dawn, 2006-02-21 In Keeping the Sabbath Wholly Dawn introduced the vital Sabbath aspects of resting ceasing feasting and embracing Now she expands these into a way of life for serving God and the Kingdom every single day of the week Practical Life Complementarian Spirituality Natalie Brand, 2013-10-09 In this work Dr Brand seeks to contribute a unique complementarian expression of Reformed spirituality in order to stimulate a spiritual renewal in the contemporary Reformed tradition Using a distinctively feminine approach in a theological arena largely monopolized by male theologians the author anchors corporate and personal spirituality upon the unio mystica so returning to a Calvinistic appreciation of the Christian life Grounding Reformed spirituality on the marital union between Christ and the church a corporate portrait of the church is explored Critical of the neglect of women in Reformed church life and practice the author calls the tradition to reform proposing an intentional complementarian use of women that can practically and spiritually profit the whole church body The book culminates with an initial tracing of a Reformed feminine spirituality which is pastorally relevant to women as well as encouraging a renewed experiential enjoyment of Christ for both men and women

The Claim of Humanity in Christ Alexandra S Radcliff, 2017-05-25 Much of the preaching and teaching today demands that people actively earn their relationship with God This prevailing understanding runs counter to the theology of the brothers Thomas F Torrance 1913 2007 and James B Torrance 1923 2003 who promoted the radical notion that all of humanity has its true being in Christ In The Claim of Humanity in Christ Alexandra Radcliff refutes the Torrances many critics asserting the significance of their controversial understanding of salvation for the interface between systematic and pastoral theology Radcliff then widens the scope of her argument constructively applying the implications of the Torrances work to a liberating doctrine of sanctification The Christian life is conceived as the free and joyful gift of sharing by the Spirit in the Son s intimate communion with the Father revealing the reality of who we are in Christ

A Shared Mercy Jon Coutts, 2016-10-02 Combining systematic and pastoral theology Jon Coutts explores what it means to forgive and reconcile in the context of the Christ confessing community Both a constructive practical theology and a critical commentary on Barth s theology in Church Dogmatics this work explains the place and meaning of interpersonal forgiveness in Christ s ongoing ministry of reconciliation

Mystic Bonfires Kevin Goodrich OP, 2022-06-08 For centuries people have been drawn to the Christian mystics women and men who have known God in powerful and experiential ways Mystic Bonfires is for students scholars and practitioners of ministry theology and spiritual formation It explores theology and theory and shares insights for practice and prayer Readers will encounter classical concepts about the spiritual life and how to apply these concepts to their ministries in faithful and creative ways Mystic Bonfires includes questions for students in academic and formation settings as well as project ideas for congregations Mystic Bonfires explores the intersection of spiritual theology and practical theology Walter Hilton a 14th century English mystic and a contemporary of Julian of Norwich serves as a case study for the intersection of these fields called practical spiritual theology

Where Do Broken Hearts Go? W. Ross Hastings, 2016-06-28 Grounded in the narrative of the loss of his own wife Ross Hastings seeks to provide insight into the universal human condition of loss and grief and speaks comfort All kinds of losses produce grief loss of jobs homes friendships health losses through divorce and loss through death of parents children and spouses and we are often unprepared for it Applicable to all who go through loss this book will also offer skills for pastors pastors in training and friends seeking to offer comfort to grieving people It will weave together first order theological as well as integrated psychological insights that relate to loss and grieving interspersed with personal stories The ultimately redemptive nature of grief is highlighted with sensitivity to the grieving process It offers comfort for the grieving found in fresh awareness of the orientation and action of the triune God who is for us who invites us to participate in his life and love and gathers up our grief and in Christ suffers with us It beckons us towards spiritual attentiveness permission for emotional honesty normalization of the grief process practices that enable coping and redemptive transformation in the present and hope grounded in future resurrection reality
