Europe Jens Stilhoff Sørensen, 2022-02-04 Europe today is deeply divided Thirty years after the end of the Cold War and the celebratory moment when the wall came down we are faced with a new Cold War Russia Western relations are arguably more dangerous than ever since the Cuban missile crisis Diplomatic relations are frozen sanctions installed the old arms control treaties abandoned and new nuclear weapons and carriers developed EU Europe itself is divided It is not just Brexit marking the first real break away from the Union but also clashes within From the yellow vests clashes with police in the heart of Paris to so called populist movements on the rise in the periphery and across the continent The Visegrad countries Hungary Poland Slovakia Czech Republic are regularly at odds with the EU core Brussels and the France Germany axis to a degree where the idea of sanctions is invoked The Western security framework and NATO itself appears to break down with Turkey the NATO member with the organisations second largest military numerically now purchasing Russian weapon systems and seeking strategic relations in Eurasia How did it come to this and what happened with the post Cold War dream And what has happened to the post world war visions of European integration and security order What are the critical processes and events that have led us unto this path This book aims to address and explore these historical problems

Europe's Postwar Recovery Barry Eichengreen, 1995-12-07 Western Europe's recovery from World War II was nothing short of miraculous From the chaos of the war and the crisis of 1947 Europe moved directly to the most rapid quarter century of economic growth in her history The contributors to this volume seek to identify the sources of this singularly successful recovery That all European countries shared in the miracle suggests that its roots may lie at the international level coverage of the often neglected urbanization post 1945 which allows us to more clearly understand the modernizing arc Europe has followed over the last two centuries Urban Reconstruction in Europe After World War II ,1989 The Greening of London, 1920-2000 Matti O. Hannikainen,2017-05-15 The long term development of public green spaces such as parks public gardens and recreation grounds in London during the twentieth century is a curiously neglected subject despite the fact that various kinds of green spaces cover huge areas in cities in the UK today This book explores how and why public green spaces have been created and used in London and what actors have been involved in their evolution during the course of the twentieth century Building on case studies of the contemporary boroughs of Camden and Southwark and making use of a wealth of archival material the author takes us through the planning and creation stages to the intended and actual uses and ongoing management of the spaces By highlighting the rise and fall of municipal authorities and the impact of neo liberalism after the 1970s the book also deepens our understanding of how London has been governed planned and ruled during the twentieth century It makes a crucial contribution to academic as well as political discourse on the history and present role of green space in sustainable cities Proposed U.S. Participation in the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD), and Update on Exchange Rate Report United States. Elayah, Laurent A. Lambert, 2023-03-12 This book explores the challenges of the governance and public policy in the midst and after conflicts revolutions and civil wars in the Middle East and Africa As anywhere else the task of rebuilding peace and institutionalizing stability in countries experiencing a conflict or just emerging from it is daunting uncertain and context specific Yet focusing on the Middle East and Africa is of particular relevance as these two regions feature the highest numbers of inter and intra state conflicts on the one hand and the central states are more often contested than in the rest of world regions The first half of the book proposes different cases addressing the fundamental challenge of inclusion and cohesion as well as the recurring issue of exclusion in conflict affected situations with four different cultural and institutional settings The second half of the book offers more theoretical insights and proposed pathways to develop more inclusive and peaceful governance settings in Africa the Middle East and beyond This edited book has been designed to be a helpful contribution to the analysis of conflict and post conflict governance and peacebuilding To do so it deploys different lenses of social sciences especially public policy and international relations but also benefits from social psychology political anthropology and other disciplines that enable a more comprehensive understanding of the multifaceted complex and dynamic issues at play
