An Early History of the Mon Region (India) and its Relationship with Tibet and Bhutan Lobsang Tenpa, 2018-01-01 This book a contribution towards South and Inner Asian Studies focuses on the socio political history of the Mon region Mon yul comprising Tawang and West Kameng districts in the state of Arunachal Pradesh India While exploring the historical developments of the region within Tibet and Bhutan during the 16th and 17th centuries this book examines how the region also known simply as Mon was incorporated into Tibet via an edict issued in 1681 and the subsequent reiterating edict in 1731 by the Lhasa's Tibetan Government The book also provides an analysis of the term Mon its etymology and not least its usage on a broader scale The monograph is based on critical textual research investigating Tibetan legal documents and the historical texts including auto biographies A number of those sources are presented along with their annotated translations and the facsimile editions. The detailed study of the region is essential and timely. It is not only offering a historical overview of the region but also a wider context and background for understanding the current Sino Indian border relations That relation is very much concentrated on this historical Indo Tibetan border region Lobsang Tenpa Ph D is a post doctoral researcher and visiting fellow at the Center for Development Studies Shimla India His research focuses on the socio cultural history of the Tibeto Himalayan region in the framework of mowdern South and Inner Asian The Dukery Records, 1904 Creating the Universe Eric Huntington, 2019-01-22 Winner 2018 Edward Studies Cameron Dimock Jr Prize in the Indian Humanities Buddhist representations of the cosmos across nearly two thousand years of history in Tibet Nepal and India show that cosmology is a rich language for the expression of diverse religious ideas with cosmological thinking at the center of Buddhist thought art and practice In Creating the Universe Eric Huntington presents examples of visual art and architecture primary texts ritual ideologies and material practices accompanied by extensive explanatory diagrams to reveal the immense complexity of cosmological thinking in Himalayan Buddhism Employing comparisons across function medium culture and history he exposes cosmology as a fundamental mode of engagement with numerous aspects of religion from preliminary lessons to the highest rituals for enlightenment This wide ranging work will interest scholars and students of many fields including Buddhist studies religious studies art history and area studies Art History Publication Initiative For more information visit http arthistorypi org books creating the universe The Jewish Encyclopedia: a Descriptive Record of the History, Religion, Literature, and Customs of the Jewish People from the Earliest Times to the Present Day ,1906 A Cultural History of Civil Examinations in Late Imperial China Benjamin A. Elman, 2000-03-22 In this multidimensional analysis Benjamin A Elman uses over a thousand newly available examination records from the Yuan Ming and Ch ing dynasties 1315 1904 to explore the social political and cultural dimensions of the civil examination system one of the most important institutions in Chinese history For over five hundred years the most important positions within the dynastic government were usually filled through these difficult examinations and every other year some one to two million people from all levels of society attempted them Covering the late imperial system from its inception to its demise Elman revises our previous understanding of how the system actually worked including its political and cultural machinery the unforeseen consequences when it was unceremoniously scrapped by modernist reformers and its long term historical legacy He argues that the Ming Ch ing civil examinations from 1370 to 1904 represented a substantial break with T ang Sung dynasty literary examinations from 650 to 1250 Late imperial examinations also made Tao Learning Neo Confucian learning the dynastic orthodoxy in official life and in literatic culture. The intersections between elite social life popular culture and religion that are also considered reveal the full scope of the examination process throughout the late empire The Weekly record of the temperance movement [afterw.] The Weekly record.
