Denton* Mike Cochran, 2021-11-15 Denton County and the City of Denton are named for pioneer preacher lawyer and Indian fighter John B Denton but little has been known about him In this extensive in depth look into the life and death of Denton Mike Cochran has made use of new materials not available to previous biographers to help bring the story to life John B Denton was an orphan in frontier Arkansas who became a circuit riding Methodist preacher and an important member of a movement of early settlers bringing civilization to North Texas He was a participant in the first missionary effort to bring Methodism to Texas answering a call from William B Travis to bring Methodists to the new republic Denton then became a ranger on the frontier ultimately being killed in the Tarrant Expedition a Texas Ranger raid on a series of villages inhabited by various Caddoan and other tribes near Village Creek on May 24 1841 He was leading a small raiding party that had separated from the larger group led by General Edward Tarrant when he was shot by native defenders Denton's true story has been lost or obscured by the persistent mythologizing by publicists for Texas especially by pulp western writer Alfred W Arrington and by the self aggrandizing stories told by members of the Tarrant raiding party His death came at a time when entrepreneurs were trying to attract Anglo settlers to the Republic of Texas and were especially apt to glorify the early settlers Denton was further made a martyr of the church by Methodist historians Cochran separates the truth from the myth in this meticulous biography which also contains a detailed discussion of the controversy surrounding the burial of John B Denton and offers some alternative scenarios for what happened to his body after his death on the frontier This is the definitive fact based biography of John B Denton San Francisco Municipal Record, 1921 The Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine, 1904 The English Catalogue of Books [annual] Sampson Low, 1904 Vols for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers New Catalogue of British Literature. 1896-1897 Cedric Chivers, Armistead Cay, 1897

who owns antiquity is a contentious question in many of today's international conflicts. About Antiquities offers an interdisciplinary study of the relationship between archaeology and empire building around the turn of the twentieth century. Starting at Istanbul and focusing on antiquities from the Ottoman territories, Zeynep elik examines the popular discourse surrounding claims to the past in London, Paris, Berlin, and New York. She compares and contrasts the experiences of two museums: Istanbul's Imperial Museum and the Metropolitan Museum of Art, that aspired to emulate European collections and gain the prestige and power of owning the material fragments of ancient history. Going beyond institutions, elik also unravels the complicated interactions among individuals: Westerners, Ottoman decision makers and officials, and local laborers, and their competing stakes in antiquities from such legendary sites as Ephesus, Pergamon, and Babylon. Recovering perspectives that have been lost in histories of archaeology, particularly those of the excavation laborers whose voices have never been heard, About Antiquities provides important historical context for current controversies surrounding nation building and the ownership of the past.
