Radhakrishnan,2009-09-17 One of the most profoundly religious books of our time The Spectator Science is a system of second causes which cannot describe the world adequately much less account for it In this remarkable treatise Radhakrishnan explores aspects of the modern intellectual debate on science vis a vis religion and the vain attempts to find a substitute for religion He discusses drawing upon the traditions of East and West the nature and validity of religious experience Finally he creates a fine vision of mans evolution and the emergence of higher values The range of subjects combined with the authors own faith undogmatic and free of creed makes this book a philosophical education in itself Search for Truth Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan,1977
