L. Conrad,2023 J L Conrad s Recovery inhabits a dreamscape filled with fragments of conversation remembered loved ones and the profound disorientation that accompanies loss Written over the span of a week this poetic sequence invites us to imagine how a body flooded with grief or physical pain becomes self identified with these sensations a takeover that Elaine Scarry describes as annihilation blurring all that is inside and outside and knotting them together If grief is an unreality that parallels dreams this doesnt t feel real then poetry with its heightened awareness is what brings us back to the world outside the body The incantatory poems in this sequence offer a way of moving beyond the self at a time when the only way through is through Or in the words that Shoshana Felman offers about Paul Celan s poetry To seek reality is both to set out to explore the injury inflicted by it to turn back on and try to penetrate the state of being stricken wounded by reality wirklichkeitswund

and to attempt at the same time to reemerge from the paralysis of this state to engage reality Wirklichkeitsuchend as an advent a movement and as a vital critical necessity of moving on As Conrad s poetry provides glimpses into questions of human frailty loss and sentience itself the speaker in Recovery looks not for transcendence but embraces a body marked and wounded a body trailing ghosts From Recovery In my dream we were in a tree and we were suffering In this case suffering with could not alleviate suffering It proved impossible to overlook the pits in our stomachs The car lurched forward into the knees of the pedestrian the line of pilgrims
