Recreating the World Michael Bopp,2020 Holistic Teacher Education Rupert Clive Collister,2021-11-03 This collection brings together approaches to the teacher education and preparation curriculum that may be described as holistic It also discusses teacher education curricula that are reconstructionist and reconceptualist in nature seeking to shift the trajectory of society through teacher education The book serves as an introductory text for the field of holistic curriculum studies and will open it up to a wider audience SAGE Visual Methods Jason Hughes,2012-07-23 In contemporary Western societies the visual domain has come to assume a hitherto unprecedented cultural centrality Daily life is replete with a potentially endless stream of images and other visual messages from the electronic and paper based billboards of the street to the TV and Internet feeds of the home The visual has become imbued with a symbolic potency a signifying power that seemingly eclipses that of all other sensory data The central aim of this four volume collection is to explore key approaches to visual research methods and to consider some of the core principles issues debates and controversies surrounding the use of visual techniques in relation to three key enterprises 1 documentation and representation 2 interpretation and classification and 3 elicitation and collaboration Volume One Principles Issues Debates and Controversies in Visual Research serves as a theoretical backdrop to the field as a whole It introduces core epistemological ethical and methodological debates that effectively cut across the four volume collection as a whole Volume Two Documentation and Representation illustrates approaches to visual documentation and representation from classical documentaries to contemporary state of the art modes of visual anthropology and ethnography Volume Three Interpretation and Classification examines core debates surrounding and approaches to visual analysis Volume Four Elicitation and Collaboration explores participative approaches to visual inquiry Making It Better Lorraine Greaves ,Ann Pederson ,Nancy Poole ,2014 In this innovative collection leading thinkers in clinical medicine sociology epidemiology kinesiology education and public policy reveal how health promotion is failing communities by failing women Despite a longstanding consensus that social inequalities shape global patterns of illness and opportunities for health mainstream health promotion frameworks continue to ignore gender at relational household community and state levels Exploring the ways in which gendered norms affect health and social equity for all human beings Making It Better invites us to rethink conventional approaches to health promotion and to strive for transformative initiatives and policies Offering practical tools and evidence based strategies for moving from gender integration to gender transformation this anthology is required reading for policymakers health promotion and healthcare practitioners researchers community developers and social service providers Social Science Research Turner Lomand,2016-09-13 This new edition gives students valuable practice in reading and evaluating research All major methods of research are illustrated including qualitative research content document analysis survey research observational research experimental research and program evaluation The articles deal with contemporary topics that will hold your students attention The lines in each article are sequentially numbered This allows easy reference to specific parts of the articles during classroom discussions Factual Questions at the end of each article encourage students to read for methodological and substantive points The Answer Key provides answers to the Factual Questions The line numbers where the answers can be found are included making the key easy to use The Questions for Discussion at the end of each article address broad issues of research design and overall research quality Ideal for homework assignments followed by classroom discussions at the next class meeting Routledge Handbook of Sustainable and Regenerative Food Systems Jessica Duncan, Michael Carolan, Johannes S.C. Wiskerke, 2020-08-13 This handbook includes contributions from established and emerging scholars from around the world and draws on multiple approaches and subjects to explore the socio economic cultural ecological institutional legal and policy aspects of regenerative food practices The future of food is uncertain We are facing an overwhelming number of interconnected and complex challenges related to the ways we grow distribute access eat and dispose of food Yet there are stories of hope and opportunities for radical change towards food systems that enhance the ability of living things to co evolve Given this activities and imaginaries looking to improve rather than just sustain communities and ecosystems are needed as are fresh perspectives and new terminology The Routledge Handbook of Sustainable and Regenerative Food Systems addresses this need The chapters cover diverse practices geographies scales and entry points They focus not only on the core requirements to deliver sustainable agriculture and food supply but go beyond this to think about how these can also actively participate with social ecological systems The book is presented in an accessible way with reflection questions meant to spark discussion and debate on how to transition to safe just and healthy food systems Taken together the chapters in this handbook highlight the consequences of current food practices and showcase the multiple ways that people are doing food differently The Routledge Handbook of Sustainable and Regenerative Food Systems is essential reading for students and scholars interested in food systems governance and practices agroecology rural sociology and socio environmental studies Innovative Voices in Education Eileen Gale Kugler, 2012-01-31 Diverse schools offer enriched academic and social environments as students and families of different backgrounds and experiences provide a vibrant mosaic of insights perspectives and skills To take advantage of the unique opportunities that diversity brings schools must value and effectively connect with students and families of all backgrounds Committed educators are taking on this challenge with gusto engaging their diverse communities on a daily basis This book highlights stories from around the world as innovative teachers educational leaders and community activists passionately share personal accounts of their successes challenges and lessons learned These are unsung heroes doing vital work each day with little attention beyond the appreciation of their own school communities The 17 chapters each by different authors with unique experiences provide insights strategies and new tools that will be of value to anyone who is concerned about improving education for all These diverse innovative voices will inform engage and most of all inspire you The ABCs of Human Survival Arthur

Clark,2010 The ABCs of Human Survival examines the effect of militant nationalism and the lawlessness of powerful states on the well being of individuals local communities and global citizenship Based on the analysis of world events Dr Arthur Clark presents militant nationalism as a pathological pattern of thinking that threatens our security while emphasizing effective democracy and international law as indispensable frameworks for human protection Within the contexts of history sociology philosophy and spirituality The ABCs of Human Survival calls into question the assumptions of consumer culture and offers as an alternative strategies to improve overall well being through the important choices we make as individuals

The Art of Noticing Deeply David Buley,Jan Buley,Rupert Clive Collister,2016-12-14 The theme of deeply noticing the world of teaching and learning around us unifies the collected commentaries celebrated in this book The contributing storytellers teachers researchers poets photographers writers mentors and guides are integral to sustaining the art of noticing deeply to foster wide awakesness as Maxine Greene termed it years ago and engagement in teaching and learning settings and beyond Such settings might be a forest a global village a virtual place or a classroom They may be places where skills of collaboration social justice problem solving critical thinking ethical practice and lifelong learning are highlighted and celebrated Together the authors here explore the spaces where we teach and learn spaces where we explore and interact and the spaces where we pause and wonder This book offers insight into ways in which the arts intersect teachers creative beings and nudges the reader to think about refreshing and renewing what they thought they knew about teaching and learning

Critical Resilience and Thriving in Response to Systemic Oppression Melissa L. Morgan,2023-03-31 This book offers new insight into how individuals utilize resilience in the face of structural and social injustice By drawing on qualitative research methods to foreground the voices of Holocaust survivors and Latinx immigrants to the United States Critical Resilience and Thriving in Response to Systematic Oppression illustrates the role of cultural values spirituality and perseverance in the face of severe institutionalized oppression Using this to extend current understandings of resilience the text posits critical resilience as a response to embedded social inequalities and goes on to offer a nuanced reconceptualization of overcoming such hardship not only as overcoming adversity but as recognizing strengths despite ongoing injustice It synthesizes feminist and critical theories to elaborate on the framework of critical resilience and thriving Highlighting the importance of qualitative research on the strengths and resources of oppressed groups this volume will be of interest to students scholars and researchers with an interest in trauma studies qualitative methods and personal development as well as in mental health research

First Nations Gaming in Canada Yale D. Belanger,2011-11-30 While games of chance have been part of the Aboriginal cultural landscape since before European contact large scale commercial gaming facilities within First Nations communities are a relatively new phenomenon in Canada First Nations Gaming in Canada is the first multidisciplinary study of the role of gaming in indigenous communities north of the 49th parallel Bringing together some of Canada s leading gambling researchers the book examines the history of Aboriginal gaming and its role in indigenous political economy the rise of large scale casinos and cybergaming the socio ecological impact of problem gambling and the challenges of labour unions and financial management The authors also call attention to the dearth of socio economic impact studies of gambling in First Nations communities while providing models to address this growing issue of concern Consciousness-in-Action: Toward an Integral Psychology of Liberation & Transformation Raúl Quiñones

Rosado,2007-04 Drawing from psychology sociology social theory integral theory and years of work in communities of struggle this book proposes a unique approach to personal change and social transformation With implications for helping professionals educators community organizers activists and others committed to social change Consciousness in Action offers an integral view of well being and development in the context of institutional and internalized oppression Consciousness in action as a personal and group process is presented as a practice to liberate people from emotional and behavioral reactivity of learned superiority and inferiority based on race gender culture class and other social identities a process central to social transformation and the evolution of human consciousness Security, With Care Elizabeth M.

Elliott,2020-05-21T00:00:00Z Restorative justice as it exists in Canada and the U S has been co opted and relegated to the sidelines of the dominant criminal justice system In Security With Care Elizabeth M Elliott argues that restorative justice cannot be actualized solely within the criminal justice system If it isn t who we are says Elliott then the policies will never be sustainable Restorative justice must be more than a program within the current system it must be a new paradigm for responding to harm and conflict Facilitating this shift requires a rethinking of the assumptions around punishment and justice placing emphasis instead on values and relationships But if we can achieve this change we have the potential to build a healthier more ethical and more democratic society American bison : status survey and conservation guidelines 2010
