Hacker, Don C.

Dodson, M. Thane Forthman, 1995 A Marketing Approach to Physician Recruitment is a how to manual designed to assist hospitals in the physician recruitment process or to enhance already existing recruitment programs. Given the ever changing status on health care reform hospital administrators and physicians are faced with the challenge of meeting the growing needs of patients as well as their own internal priorities. In order to survive the medical profession as a whole must make the commitment to identify the needs of the community it serves while integrating the activities and roles of departments, boards and staff. In the past physician recruitment has tended to itself. As part of a competitive system neither the individual provider nor the medical group can afford to ignore its physician profile. This book is aware of the needs of today's hospitals and presents a program to facilitate the process of recruiting physicians. The authors provide the reader with a step by step physician recruiting process. They include additional materials to support the recruiting process. The book is comprised of four sections. The process section provides organization for the recruitment program by assisting readers with creating a written plan. The resources section facilitates that plan's effectiveness by providing information for developing pro forms, community support letters, tracking forms, incentive packages and legal documents. The reference section lists organizations, contact names, addresses and phone numbers needed for recruiting. A Marketing Approach to Physician Recruitment is the only book of its kind. Hospitals can use it to develop a practical and proven process for recruiting physicians. It is an effective tool for meeting the needs of patients and physicians alike.

Technical Report, 1991. The suitability of social media for headhunters to recruit managers from and for the fashion business Robin Schlesinger, 2014-10-01. Headhunters take on an enormous responsibility with the acceptance of a mandate to search for competent, qualified top executives. In living up to expectations and identifying eligible, appropriate high performing candidates of great personal integrity, numerous new and partly unknown tools are available to them thanks to the rapid expansion of social media platforms. In times when recruitment tasks are increasingly performed internally by personnel managers, it is particularly crucial for headhunters to adapt to such new trends. The present study examines whether social media are a suitable medium for the recruitment of executives by headhunters and identifies the new opportunities and challenges they present to recruitment experts. By means of a survey, the extent to which social media platforms are already being used by headhunters in particular in their search for executives for the German fashion business is investigated. Taking into account the results of this survey as well as the latest research concerning headhunters, social media and the fashion business, the study concludes by putting forward recommendations for the use of social media in headhunting executives.
