

Grandas house

As I stand outside the house,
Filled with all my childhood memories,
I think back to when we would
Stay up all night under the old oak trees.

The 99s after school every Friday evening,
Were the highlights of my childhood
And that is without reasoning.

Eiski, Bomber and Maggie,
The most playful dogs in town,
Are the reasons that you never,
Stopped to have a sit down.

Even though I know you get upset easily,
You never fail to tell me the stories
About my grandmother Kathleen.

Since I never got to meet her
You always make it clear
That she was your world
And nobody else could ^{Possibly} come as near.

This is the most special place that I have known,
These are the little things that makes this house a home.
