Red Runs The Earth Inscribed:

Report on Some Excavations in the Theban Necropolis During the Winter of 1898-9 William George Spencer Scott Compton Northampton (5th marquis of), Wilhelm Spiegelberg, Percy Edward Newberry, 1908 The Ogam inscribed monuments of the Gaedhill in the British islands; with a dissertation on the Ogam character by Richard Rolt Brash. Ed. by George M. Atkinson Richard Rolt Brash, 1879 Creating the Mediterranean Tarek Kahlaoui, 2018-01-16 In Creating the Mediterranean Maps and the Islamic Imagination Tarek Kahlaoui treats the subject of the Islamic visual representations of the Mediterranean. It tracks the history of the Islamic visualization of the sea from when geography was created by the Islamic state's bureaucrats of the tenth century C E located mainly in the central Islamic lands to the later men of the field specifically the sea captains from the fourteenth to the sixteenth centuries C E located in the western Islamic lands. A narrative has emerged from this investigation in which the metamorphosis of the identity of the author or mapmaker seemed to be changing with the rest of the elements that constitute the identity of a map: its reader or viewer, its style and structure and its textual content. Catalogue of the Art Collection Formed by the Late Mrs. Mary J. Morgan to be Sold by Auction ..., 1886 Catalogue of the Art Collection Formed by the Late Mrs. Mary J. Morgan... Mary Jane Morgan, 1886 Catalogue of the Art Collection Morgan, 1886 The Mongol World Timothy May, Michael Hope, 2022-05-25 Drawing upon research carried out in several different languages and across a variety of disciplines The Mongol World documents how Mongol rule shaped the trajectory of Eurasian history from Central Europe to the Korean Peninsula from the thirteenth century to the fifteenth century. Contributing authors consider how intercontinental environmental, economic and intellectual trends affected the Empire as a whole and where appropriate situate regional political, social and religious shifts within the context of the broader Mongol Empire. Issues pertaining to the Mongols and their role within the societies that they conquered therefore take precedence over the historical narrative of the societies that they conquered. Alongside the formation, conquests, administration and political structure of the Mongol Empire, the second section examines archaeology and art history, family and royal households, science and exploration and religion, which provides greater insight into the social history of the Empire, an aspect often neglected by traditional dynastic and political histories. With 58 chapters written by both senior and early career scholars, the volume is an essential resource for all students and scholars who study the Mongol Empire from its origins to its disintegration and legacy. The Tomb of the Priests of Amun Rogério Sousa, 2018-10-16 The Tomb of the Priests of Amun, also known as Bab el Gasus, was uncovered in 1891 at Deir el Bahari, Thebes. The site proved to be the largest undisturbed tomb ever found in Egypt, as there were found the intact burials of 153 individuals that lived under the 21st Dynasty ca. 1069-945 BC. This outstanding find was subsequently divided into lots of antiquities and dispersed by 17 nations. This volume presents the first comprehensive publication of the Italian Lot kept in the Egyptian Museum of Florence. Besides the formal description of the objects, a critical assessment of the collection is provided regarding the reconstruction of the burial assemblages the reuse of the burial equipment and the art historical examination of coffin decoration Although aimed primarily at specialists this is a splendid volume and will be easy to use by anyone having an interest in these objects Lester L Grabbe Journal for the Study of the Old Testament 44 5 2020 Caxton head catalogues.
