Ann Cole, 2025-10-07 In his world trust is deadly But with her it's the sweetest risk She walks into my world like a secret wrapped in smoke claiming she needs my protection I don't believe a damn word Those emerald eyes hide secrets That sharp tongue spins lies as easily as promises She's deception wrapped in temptation and I should send her packing But my empire is under fire My enemies are circling And she has skills that could help us in our war against a faceless threat I can't decide if she's a gift Or a trap Keeping her close is a gamble Letting her go could be dangerous And with every lingering glance every charged encounter the line between suspicion and desire blurs I don't trust her I shouldn't want her But she's in my villa in my affairs and under my skin And God help me if she doesn't kill me She'll ruin me
