Red Ivy Green Earth Mother:

Red Ivy, Green Earth Mother Ai Bei, 2000-08 Before her expatriation in the United States after the events on Tiananmen Square in June 1989 Ai Bei was recognized in her homeland as one of the outstanding talents of a new generation of young Chinese writers Red Ivy Green Earth Mother contains three of her best short stories and a novella and represents the first of her work to be translated into English Provocative shocking and always interesting her work strikes a universal chord while illuminating a culture and society that for many people seems clouded in mystery and stereotypes Readers will be surprised and intrigued by the revelatory power and sensual quality of Ai Bei's writing and its insights into women's roles in contemporary China With these hauntingly dark but beautifully written and translated stories of the defoliation of beauty and sensuality Chinese fiction takes a great leap forward onto the stage of contemporary world fiction Through Ai Bei's searing honest narrative of a woman's interior battle to remain human we become privy to a whole new dimension of China's heroic efforts to once again liberate itself Orville H Schell Red Ivy, Green Earth Mother Ai Bei, 1990 Red Ivy, Green Earth Mother Bei Ai, 1990 Mothers and Daughters Alberto Manguel, 1998-04 Turning his inspired anthologizing skills to a subject all readers can relate to celebrated writer and editor Alberto Manguel offers an exceptional collection of complete short stories about the relationship between mothers and daughters Contributors include Dorothy Allison Daphne du Maurier Carson McCullers Katherine Mansfield Edith Wharton Janet Frame and others The Quotable Mom Kate Rowinski, 2004 Everyone has had a mother and most of us would admit that these women have profoundly affected our lives The Quotable Mom gathers together some of the wisest and most memorable words ever written or spoken about and by the women who gave birth to us This well rounded volume includes quotes from individuals as diverse as Mick Jagger Ann Landers Mother Teresa and Beatrix Potter This gem of a book makes the perfect gift for any mother or grandmother It is a heartwarming and inspiring collection of humorous profound thoughtful and compelling remarks and observations by and about mothers and their children Publisher description Third World Women's Literatures Barbara Fister, 1995-09-14 This reference volume serves as a companion to Third World women's literatures in English and in English translation by presenting entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes What plays have been written by women in the developing world What books have been written by Sri Lankan or Brazilian women Which works address themes of feminism or exile or politics in the Third World These are the types of questions that can now be answered through Fister's companion to Third World women's literatures in English and English translation Organized alphabetically this reference volume presents entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women an important and largely marginalized literature Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers scholars and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do An important book for all public and college level libraries

Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko, Keren Dali, Glenda Garbutt, 2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions

Style in Translation: A Corpus-Based Perspective Libo Huang, 2015-01-26 This book attempts to explore style a traditional topic in literary translation with a corpus based approach A parallel corpus consisting of the English translations of modern and contemporary Chinese novels is introduced and used as the major context for the research The style in translation is approached from perspectives of the author the source text the translated texts and the translator Both the parallel model and the comparable model are employed and a multiple complex model of comparison is proposed The research model both quantitative and qualitative is duplicable within other language pairs Apart from the basics of corpus building readers may notice that literary texts offer an ideal context for stylistic research and a parallel corpus of literary texts may provide various observations to the style in translation In this book readers may find a close interaction between translation theory and practice Tables and figures are used to help the argumentation The book will be of interest to postgraduate students teachers and professionals who are interested in corpus based translation studies and stylistics

Chinese Literature in the Second Half of a Modern Century Pang-Yuan Chi, David Der-wei Wang, 2000-09-22 an important contribution to the study of recent Chinese literature Choice This fine scholarly survey of Chinese literature since 1949 discusses such trends as modernism nativism realism root seeking and scar literature misty poets and political feminist and societal issues in modern Chinese literature Library Journal This volume is a survey of modern Chinese literature in the second half of the twentieth century It has three goals 1 to introduce figures works movements and debates that constitute the dynamics of Chinese literature from 1949 to the end of the century 2 to depict the enunciative endeavors ranging from ideological treatises to avant garde experiments that inform the polyphonic discourse of Chinese cultural politics 3 to observe the historical factors that enacted the interplay of literary post modernities across the Chinese communities in the Mainland Taiwan Hong Kong and overseas

The Great Wall of Confinement Philip F. Williams, Yenna Wu, 2004-08-17 China is the only major world power to have entered the twenty first century with a thriving prison camp network a frightening mostly hidden realm known since 1951 as the laogai system This book the most comprehensive study of China s prison camps to date draws from a wide range of primary sources including many compelling literary documents to illuminate life inside China s prison camps Focusing mainly on the second half of the twentieth century Philip F Williams and Yenna Wu outline the evolution of the laogai system construct a vivid picture of prisoners lives from arrest and interrogation to release and provide a troubling new perspective on the human rights issues plaguing China

The Libidinal Economy of China Perry Johansson Vig, 2015-10-29 This study of postsocialist China explores the development of a Chinese consumer culture in the 1990s with a special focus on advertising and shifting ideals on female beauty On an analytical level it is an investigation into Chinese nationalism that demonstrates how the desire for recognition as a powerful nation is linked to anxieties about Chinese femininity The book is also on a theoretical level about the libidinal economy of an imaginary China In other words it attempts to unravel the sexuality of geopolitics by describing the association between femininity and China in popular culture and nationalist discourse In addition to advertisements political writings plays and films the archive for this inquiry consists of fieldwork observations and interviews The Libidinal Economy of China engages a range of post colonial and psychoanalytically informed thinkers in a truly cross disciplinary study Lacanian theories on hysteria femininity and narcissism are applied in the international domain of geopolitics to formulate a general theory on China s relationship to the West David Eng and Homi Bhabha are employed for discussing racial fetishism in contemporary China while Slavoj i ek s ideas on violence and the Other are engaged in explaining the emotional dimension of national identification The study concludes that China and the New Chinese Nationalism is firmly under the gaze of a Western Other analogous to a male gaze That Other rules the libidinal economy of consumer culture which explains China s recurring history of wanting to emulate and catch up with the West while simultaneously reacting to such an attained intimacy with castration anxiety and aggressive hysteria

Gender and Sexuality in Twentieth-Century Chinese Literature and Society Tonglin Lu, 1993-05-13 Only women and inferior men are difficult to deal with Confucius Two thousand years after Confucius the contributors to this book ask if

Chinese women have succeeded in changing their status as the equivalent of inferior men Gender and Sexuality in Twentieth Century Chinese Literature and Society approaches the role of women in social change through analyzing literature and culture during the May Fourth and the Post Cultural Revolution periods Turbulence Pingwa Jia,2002 Follows the lives of two peasants Golden Dog and Water Girl through the post Mao years and sets their star crossed love for each other against the political upheavals of China itself Reading Amy Tan Lan Dong,2009-06-08 This essential discussion of Amy Tan s life and works is a necessity for high school students and an enriching supplement for book club members A tour de force in Asian American writing Amy Tan has created works that are essential to high school and undergraduate literature classes and are often book club selections Reading Amy Tan is a handy resource that offers both groups plot summaries of five of Tan s novels as well as character and thematic analysis The handbook also provides an overview of Tan s life and discusses how she emerged onto the scene as a novelist Tan s typical themes including Asian American issues and mother daughter relationships are examined in relation to today s current events and pop culture Readers will also discover how and where they can find Tan on the Internet and how the media has received her works The What Do I Read Next chapter will help readers find other authors and works that deal with similar subjects This handbook is an indispensable tool for both high school and public libraries San Francisco Review of Books ,1989 Modern Chinese Writers Helmut Martin,Jeffrey C. Kinkley,2016-09-16 This volume gathers personal reflections on life and literature by 44 of China s leading authors It aims to illustrate how Chinese society and its creative writing have supported competed and fought with each other for the past 40 years and more Much of what is revealed here is mundane but the pressure of bringing art to social and political causes indeed the universal pressure to survive forges this collection into a very human document The strengths and weaknesses of these essays offer a window on those of modern Chinese literature itself Realism was the favoured literary doctrine of the day and reflecting this most of these essays speak for themselves about war revolution betrayal and commitment Short Story Index ,1994
