Red Letter Plays:

The Red Letter Plays Suzan-Lori Parks, 2001 Two new controversial plays based on The Scarlett Letter The Red Letter Plays: in the Blood and Fucking A Suzan-Lori Parks, 2020-04-23 Two haunting riffs on Nathaniel Hawthorne's novel The Scarlet Letter from a leading American playwright Hester La Negrita of In the Blood is an unapologetic mother of five illegitimate children whose daily struggle among many is to master writing the alphabet to help herself one day get a leg up She remains unable to get further than the letter A scrawled in chalk beneath a railway bridge Suzan Lori Parks play In the Blood was first staged at the Joseph Papp Public Theater New York in 1999 It was shortlisted for the Pulitzer Prize for Drama in 2000 Hester Smith of Fucking A works the only job available back street abortionist in order to save for a reunion picnic with her imprisoned son Her branded A bleeds afresh every time a patient comes to see her Fucking A was first staged at the DiverseWorks Artspace in Houston Texas in February 2000 The American Play Marc Robinson, 2009-05-26 In this brilliant study Marc Robinson explores more than two hundred years of plays styles and stagings of American theater Mapping the changing cultural landscape from the late eighteenth century to the start of the twenty first he explores how theater has and has not changed and offers close readings of plays by O'Neill Stein Wilder Miller and Albee as well as by important but perhaps lesser known dramatists such as Wallace Stevens Jean Toomer Djuna Barnes and many others Robinson reads each work in an ambitiously interdisciplinary context linking advances in theater to developments in American literature dance and visual art The author is particularly attentive to the continuities in American drama and expertly teases out recurring themes such as the significance of visuality He avoids neatly categorizing nineteenth and twentieth century plays and depicts a theater more restive and mercurial than has been recognized before Robinson proves both a fascinating and thought provoking critic and a spirited guide to the history of American drama Dramas and Plays J. Bentley Mulford, 1922 New Plays for Red Letter Days Elizabeth Hough Sechrist, Janette Woolsey, 1953 The authors present twenty five original non royalty easy to produce plays in which the keynote is simplicity of costume and setting Covers plays for important celebrations special weeks days of historical significance and such up to date observances as Brotherhood Week United Nations Day and Book Week News Notes of California Libraries California State Library, 1925 Vols for 1971 include annual reports and statistical summaries Catalogue of Copyright Entries, 1922 Books and Beyond Kenneth Womack, 2008-10-30 There is a strong interest in reading for pleasure or self improvement in America as shown by the popularity of Harry Potter and book clubs including Oprah Winfrey's Although recent government reports show a decline in recreational reading the same reports show a strong correlation between interest in reading and academic achievement This set provides a snapshot of the current state of popular American literature including various types and genres The volume presents alphabetically arranged entries on more than 70 diverse literary categories such as cyberpunk fantasy literature flash fiction GLBTQ literature graphic novels manga and anime and zines Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a definition of the genre an overview of its history a look at trends and themes a discussion of how the literary form engages contemporary issues a review of the genre s reception a discussion of authors and works and suggestions for further reading Sidebars provide fascinating details and the set closes with a selected general bibliography Reading in America for pleasure and knowledge continues to be popular even while other media compete for attention While students continue to read many of the standard classics new genres have emerged These have captured the attention of general readers and are also playing a critical role in the language arts classroom This book maps the state of popular literature and reading in America today including the growth of new genres such as cyberpunk zines flash fiction GLBTQ literature and other topics Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a definition of the genre an overview of its history a look at trends and themes a discussion of how the literary form engages contemporary issues a review of the genre s critical reception a discussion of authors and works and suggestions for further reading Sidebars provide fascinating details and the set closes with a selected general bibliography Students will find this book a valuable guide to what they re reading today and will appreciate its illumination of popular culture and contemporary social issues The Methuen

Drama Anthology of American Women Playwrights: 1970 - 2020 Wesley Brown,Aimée K. Michel,2020-05-14 In this exciting new anthology Wesley Brown and Aim e K Michel bring together six wonderfully teachable plays by some of the greatest American women dramatists of the past fifty years Ntozake Shange Suzan Lori Parks Paula Vogel Lynn Nottage Beth Henley and Susan Yankowitz The editors provide a helpful Introduction to the last 100 years of theatrical activity from suffrage and anti lynching plays through the explosive 1960s to recent Broadway triumphs highlighting women s struggle a struggle that continues to put their vision and voices on the American stage Elin Diamond Rutgers University USA This volume celebrates the iconoclastic power of six American women playwrights who pushed the boundaries of the form outside the box of conventional drama Each play is accompanied by a short introduction providing the biographical background of the playwright as well as discussing the dramatic style of her writing the extent to which her work is informed by major playwrights of the period and how the specific work illustrates the overarching themes of her body of work The plays included are Gun by Susan Yankowitz Spell 7 geechee jibara quik magic trance manual for technologically stressed third world people by Ntozake Shange The Jacksonian by Beth Henley The Baltimore Waltz by Paula Vogel In the Blood by Suzan Lori Parks Intimate Apparel by Lynn Nottage Precarious Parenthood Tina-Karen Pusse,Katharina Walter,2013 We all experience parenthood if not as parents then by way of having been parented or in the face of ubiquitous images of idyllic family life in the longing to be parents or to be parented Thus parenthood is one of the most powerful social constructs This collection of essays gives evidence of the fact that families have never been real that family like gender or race is not primarily based on biological criteria but above all has to be performed and is a result of narratives The relationship between these narratives their variations in Irish English German Mexican and Chilean literature or film and their material
