Syllabic Writing on Cyprus and its Context Philippa M. Steele, 2013-03-28 This volume offers a new and interdisciplinary treatment of syllabic writing in ancient Cyprus A team of distinguished scholars tackles epigraphic palaeographic linguistic archaeological historical and terminological problems relating to the island's writing systems in the Late Bronze Age and Iron Age from the appearance of writing around the fifteenth century down to the end of the first millennium BC The result is not intended to be a single unified view of the scripts and their context but rather a varied collection that demonstrates a range of interpretations of the evidence and challenges some of the longstanding or traditional views of the population of ancient Cyprus and its epigraphic habits This is the first comprehensive account of the Cyprian Minoan and Cypriot syllabic scripts to appear in a single volume and forms an invaluable resource for anyone studying Cypriot epigraphy or archaeology

Mortuary Ritual and Society in Bronze Age Cyprus Priscilla Keswani, 2004 A ground breaking investigation of burial practices and social transformations in the era when Cypriot agricultural communities moved from village to urban life and became major players in the eastern Mediterranean copper trade The author develops an innovative theoretical and methodological approach that enables her to define and elucidate the shifting spatial relationships between tombs and habitation areas the elaboration of rituals involving secondary treatment and collective burial and changing patterns of mortuary expenditure and symbolism throughout the Bronze Age Keswani proposes that during the Early Middle Bronze periods the growing elaboration of mortuary festivities and their crucial importance in negotiating status hierarchies contributed to the intensification of Cypriot copper production and the expansion of interregional exchange relations Subsequent changes in mortuary practice suggest that the importance of collective burial rites and traditional modes of ritual display diminished over the course of the Late Bronze Age as urban institutions multiplied and the bases of social prestige were transformed
