Women of Red River William J. Healy, Women's Canadian Club, Winnipeg, 1923 A tribute to the women of an earlier day by the Women's Canadian club Making Ends Meet Charlotte van de Vorst, 2002-12-17 Based on hundreds of interviews with Manitoba farm men and women Making Ends Meet reconstructs the common history shared by modern farm women as well as by their mothers and grandmothers It explores women's changing roles on the farm from the early days of the Red River settlement to the twentieth century farm community The women's own stories reveal their ingenuity and tenacity in making ends meet through economies shared labour and generation of new resource income as varied as raising poultry and custom woodworking These stories prove that the contributions of farm women have been vital in establishing and maintaining the family farm and are critical to its continued survival Women of the First Nations Christine

Miller, Patricia Chuchryk, 1996-08-15 From diversity comes strength and wisdom this was the guiding principle for selecting the articles in this collection Because there is no single voice identity history or cultural experience that represents the women of the First Nations a realistic picture will have many facets Accordingly the authors in Women of the First Nations include Native and non Native scholars feminists and activists from across Canada Their work examines various aspects of Aboriginal women's lives from a variety of theoretical and personal perspectives They discuss standard media representations as well as historical and current realities They bring new perspectives to discussions on Aboriginal art literature historical and cultural contributions and they offer diverse viewpoints on present economic environmental and political issues This collection counters the marginalization and silencing of First Nations women's voices and reflects the power strength and wisdom inherent in their lives Crime and Deviance in Canada Chris McCormick, Christopher Ray
