From Black Power to Black Studies Fabio Rojas, 2010-09 The black power movement helped redefine African Americans identity and establish a new racial consciousness in the 1960s Today there are more than a hundred black studies degree programs in the United States The author explores how this radical social movement evolved into a recognized academic discipline Resources in Education , 1976 The History of Black Studies Abdul Alkalimat, 2021-10-20 A surge of African American enrolment and student activism brought Black Studies to many US campuses in the 1960s Sixty years later Black Studies programmes are taught at more than 1 300 universities worldwide This book is the first history of how that happened Black Studies founder and movement veteran Abdul Alkalimat offers a comprehensive history of the discipline that will become a key reference for generations to come Structured in three broadly chronological sections Black Studies as intellectual history as social movement and as academic profession the book demonstrates how Black people themselves established the field long before its institutionalisation in university programmes At its heart Black Studies is profoundly political Black Power the New Communist Movement the Black women s and students movements each step in the journey for Black liberation influenced and was influenced by this revolutionary discipline

Research Method in the Postmodern James Scheurich, 2014-01-02 In recent years research in the social sciences has been dominated by the debate on the merits of qualitative method versus quantitative methodology Until recently the debate appeared to have been won by those promoting the qualitative approach but then postmodern theory appeared on the scene challenging all our preconceptions about research method This book goes one step further than those working at the philosophical level showing the implications of postmodernism for practice Multidisciplinary Knowledge Production and Research Methods in Sub-Saharan Africa Tobias Marevesa, Ernest Jakaza, Esther Mavengano, 2023-08-25 This book Multidisciplinary Knowledge Production and Research Methods in Sub Saharan Africa Language Literature and Religion contributes to the polemical conversations about existing architectures of knowledge and research practices in postcolonial sub Saharan Africa It creates an academic platform for multi interdisciplinary research that brings to the fore inspiring efforts to break away from long standing disciplinary bordering thinking and practices in modern day sub Saharan Africa This distinctive edited collection is a valuable resource for scholars researchers and students of multi interdisciplinary research across the globe The volume also promotes wide ranging research focused on how to address complexities which hamper the promise of multi interdisciplinary research in contemporary sub Saharan African contexts It provides thought provoking perspectives on academic conversations about the uniqueness of embracing multidisciplinary research The traditional methods of interpretation are challenged by the radical emerging demand to shift from a mono disciplinary thinking to a cross disciplinary epistemic endeavour in order to successfully address unfolding problematic realities that demand the pursuit of novel heuristic terrains
