Managing The Curriculum In South African Schools Managing Schools In South Africa Series:

Leadership and Strategic Management in South African Schools Marianne Coleman, Tony Bush, 2003 Focusing on leadership and strategic management this volume offers insights into effective strategic management as a contribution towards educational transformation in South Africa and guidelines on important aspects of good school management

Managing to Learn Ursula Hoadley, Catherine L. Ward, 2009 Internationally and locally there is growing emphasis on the importance of effective school management and leadership in contributing to good student achievement outcomes Instructional leadership has become a key concept in the research literature reflecting an attempt to better understand the relationship between school leadership curriculum and instructional matters and student achievement Managing to Learn is the first study of its kind in South Africa considering these issues in a sample of 200 schools in two provinces The research reported in this monograph provides an extensive review of the literature around the management of curriculum and instruction a framework and methodology for the research and the empirical findings from the study Through a series of regression analyses the study presents those management factors identified across a wide range of schools as most crucial to improved performance of students It brings greater clarity to the somewhat undifferentiated view of school management currently and a sharper focus on its importance in relation to how students learn

Investigating the Roles of School Management Teams in Curriculum Delivery Mawela, Ailwei Solomon, van Wyk, Micheal M., Lebeloane, Lazarus, Mudau, Awelani V., 2021-06-25 The COVID 19 pandemic has introduced a new paradigm in education that has forced school management teams to re imagine their curricula delivery functions and obligations during and post COVID 19 Now there are concerns about the state to which curriculum delivery in schools is likely to become planned implemented and managed Investigating the Roles of School Management Teams in Curriculum Delivery improves the quality of planning implementation and management of curriculum delivery to advance the quality of teaching and learning in schools Particularly it envisages innovative strategies best practices and addresses problems in the planning implementation and delivery of curricula by school management teams Covering topics such as curriculum delivery theory curriculum delivery in planning implementation and management during and post COVID 19 curriculum delivery in assessment and alternative assessment and reimagining inclusivity in curriculum delivery this edited book is essential for departmental heads deputy principals education district officials department of basic education curriculum designers instructional designers administrators academicians university teachers researchers and post graduate students

Provision of Psychosocial Support and Education of Vulnerable Children Taukeni, Simon George, Mathwasa, Joyce, Ntshuntshe, Zoleka, 2021-12-24 Globally children are highly vulnerable and unjustifiably affected by the difficulties afflicting society They face social physical psychological and emotional turmoil that stems from varying degrees of violence abuse neglect abandonment bereavement and other psychosocial needs that often affect their education Parental and other key stakeholders involvement is essential in ensuring that children develop to their full potential Provision of Psychosocial Support and Education of Vulnerable Children highlights the plight of children and explores a transdisciplinary and multisectoral approach in providing sustainable psychosocial support to have quality education that is inclusive of 21st century skills Childhood is an inimitable experience that is common to every individual child in the world irrespective of their ethnicity culture or any other arbitrary extractor we choose to apply Covering topics such as life skills education psychosocial support and holistic integration this book is an essential reference for education stakeholders school personnel private pre primary schools teacher training institutions parents pre service teachers human services professionals researchers and academicians Combating School-Based Violence Using African Indigenous Knowledge Systems Mfundo Mandla Masuku, Nomakhosi Nomathemba Sibisi, 2025-05-12 Using African epistemologies to understand contributing social and cultural factors around African school violence this book investigates various kinds of school based violence suffered by learners and teachers in order to further research into the impact of educational interventions on crime prevention in African schools Investigating various kinds of school violence including gender based violence and gang violence the book uses African Indigenous Knowledge Systems and the philosophy of Ubuntu for example to tackle important concerns surrounding school violence social cohesion community engagement and role of education in fostering sustainable communities Chapters demonstrate a qualitative research approach that encompasses empirical and conceptual studies to provide an in depth exploration of violence in educational settings the book draws on human experiences and emotions as well as teachers learners communities and other relevant stakeholders perceptions of school violence This highly interdisciplinary volume will be of immense value to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of sociology of education philosophy of education and educational psychology Curriculum developers involved with module design may also find the volume of use Self-directed learning research and its impact on educational practice Elsa Mentz, Roxanne Bailey, 2021-05-17 This scholarly book is the third volume in an NWU book series on self directed learning and is devoted to self directed learning research and its impact on educational practice The importance of self directed learning for learners in the 21st century to equip themselves with the necessary skills to take responsibility for their own learning for life cannot be over emphasised The target audience does not only consist of scholars in the field of self directed learning in Higher Education and the Schooling sector but includes all scholars in the field of teaching and learning in all education and training sectors The book contributes to the discourse on creating dispositions towards self directed learning among all learners and adds to the latest body of scholarship in terms of self directed learning Although from different perspectives all chapters in the book are closely linked together around self directed learning as a central theme following on the work done in Volume 1 of this series Self Directed Learning for the 21st Century Implications for Higher Education to form a rich knowledge bank of work on self directed learning South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together

many of South Africa's leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90/10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people's future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this very valuable volume if not an exact blueprint for the future then certainly at least a crucial and evidence based itinerary for the next few steps Dr Luis Crouch RTI

Preparation and Development of School Leaders in Africa Pontso Moorosi, Tony Bush, 2019-11-28 The book is based on African research and reviews on school leadership preparation and development taking stock of where the field is in this geographical region and what lies ahead The exclusive focus on sub-Saharan African countries is driven by the desire to foreground African experiences highlighting gaps and asking critical questions about contextually relevant models of leadership that can drive towards improved educational outcomes for African children The countries explored include Botswana Cameroon Ghana Kenya Lesotho Namibia Nigeria South Africa and Tanzania Written by a collective of seasoned researchers with extensive experience in the field and on the continent this volume is timely as the field is in need of serious political attention For these reasons the book is an important resource for policy makers school leaders and other practitioners students educators of school leadership preparation programmes as well as researchers in the field on the continent and the diaspora

Middlewood, 2003 The introduction of Curriculum 2005 and Outcomes Based Education mark both a sea change in the way in which education is offered in schools and a challenge to all involved This book considers the main issues in curriculum management as education switches to a more devolved framework Contextualising Rural Education in South African Schools , 2023-04-03 South Africa's democratic government inherited a divided and unequal system of education Under apartheid South Africa had nineteen different educational departments separated by race language geography and ideology This education system prepared learners in different ways for the positions they were expected to occupy in social economic and political life under apartheid and was funded and resourced in ways that favoured white people and disadvantaged black people who remain in the working class The newly elected democratic government in 1994 laid a foundation for a single national education system Twenty five years after the dawn of democracy education is still in a parlous state in many communities in South Africa but it is in the rural areas mainly in the former homelands that learners are most disadvantaged Contributors are Olufemi Timothy Adigun Oluwatoyin Ayodele Ajani Alan Bhekisisa Buthelezi Joyce Phikisile Dhlamini Bongani Thulani Gamede Samantha Govender Lawrence Kehinde Nontobeko Prudence Khumalo Primrose Ntombenhle Khumalo Azwidohwi Philip Kutame Manthekeleng Linake Sive Makeleni Nkhensani Maluleke Bothwell Manyonga Mncedisi Christian Maphalala Takalani Mashau Hlengiwe Romualda Mhlongo Rachel Gugu Mkhasibe Dumisani Wilfred Mncube Nicholas Tumelo Mollo Ramashego Shila Mphahlele Fikile Mthethwa Grace Matodzi Muremela Edmore Mutekwe Nokuthula Hierson Ndaba Clever Ndebele Thandiwe Nonkululeko Ngema Phiwokuhle Ngubane Sindile Ngubane Dumisani Nzima Livhuwani Peter Ramabulana and Maria Tsakeni
