Improving Schools in Difficulty Paul Clarke, 2005-04-15 For the last few years there has been wave after wave of reform aimed at improving a lot of the schools struggling at the bottom of the ladder of performance and despite what can be interpreted as best intentions the problem persists As a social problem it draws down significant sums of public money it exercises many talented people and yet time after time we find that three four maybe five years down the road after extended efforts the impact of the work diffuses and the challenges remain doggedly evident in people s daily lives It suggests that perhaps something is wrong in our interpretation in our analysis in our approach and our consequent measure of effect of our activity with difficult schools

Improving Schools in Difficulty is structured around two parts part one examines the principles of engagement with schools in difficulty and part two looks at ways of improving the process of supporting schools in difficulty

Supporting Improving Primary Schools Paul Lincoln, Geoff Southworth, 2005-06-27 Drawn from the experience of the Essex Primary School Improvement programme this book shows how primary schools in the county have improved their standards subsequent to OFSTED inspection It explores the role of the LEA in supporting schools and their efforts to improve It also looks at the collaborative relationship that LEAs and schools can form and the implications for school leadership and for students The book also sheds light on issues of consultancy information and data handling and evaluating school improvement
