Mandate Of Heaven The Divine Command And The Natural Order:

Chinese Gleams of Sufi Light Sachiko Murata, 2000-08-03 The first study in English of Islamic thought in China this book shows that this tradition was informed by both Sufism and Neo Confucianism translations of two classic works are included

Aquinas's Summa Theologiae Brian Davies, 2006 Thomas Aquinas authored many works but his greatest achievement is undoubtedly the Summa Theologiae which presents his most mature thinking and the best introduction to his philosophical and theological ideas Distinguishing itself from other secondary works on Aquinas this volume focuses solely on the Summa with essays by some of the best Aquinas scholars of the last half decade It offers a solid introduction to one of the landmarks of Western thinking Back cover

The Mandate of Heaven Michael Keeling, 1995 This study seeks to re establish the concept of law in Christian ethics without sacrificing the gains in moral freedom that have come from the concept of situation ethics

Createdness and Ethics Hans Schaeffer, 2012-02-13 This book contains a systematic description of the theologies of Colin E Gunton 1941 2003 and Oswald Bayer b 1939 Their use of the doctrine of creation in systematic theology has remarkable consequences for late modern theological ethics This book explores those consequences from the example of the theological doctrine of marriage The author also contributes to the ecumenical debate by building on the Neo Calvinist theological heritage

The Word Became Flesh David Graham Griffin, 2016-05-16 Is following Jesus natural Many would say no but this book argues yes Saying no suggests that grace and human nature are alternate moral categories Saying yes implies that our humanity is gracious in origin capacity and intent Much of this discussion hangs on what is meant by nature and natural and this book explores these ideas creationly and christologically Part One considers natural law as commonly found in the classical Christian tradition Part Two explores the radical christological tradition of Anabaptism Part Three then proposes the two nature christology of the Chalcedonian definition as a theological resource enabling their reconciliation The Chalcedonianism of the modern Barth and the ancient Maximus the Confessor are appropriated along with scientific theology of T F Torrance and Nancey Murphy If Chalcedon correctly affirms Jesus s humanity as being homoousios one nature with our humanity created like Adam s through the eternal Spirit then Jesus s life was natural proper to its created intent And as his divine nature was homoousios with the Father s nature he is the human expression of the divine Word which gives creation its contingent moral rationality As such the life of Jesus Anabaptists concern is morally normative for all humanity natural law s concern

Pathways to the Public Square International Academy of Practical Theology. Meeting, 2005 This volume represents the proceedings of the 2003 meeting of the International Academy of Practical Theology which was held in Manchester UK on the theme of public theology Featuring over twenty papers from some of the world s leading practical theologians Pathways to the Public Square offers a wide variety of perspectives on the relationship between theology and politics education law culture and economics They include subjects as diverse as the role of religion in the constitution of the European Union theological themes in popular music Roman Catholic Muslim dialogue in the U S A and the spirituality of the public realm This book will be of interest to theological educators and students church leaders policy makers and all those interested in the relationship between religion and public life

Autonomy and Food Biotechnology in Theological Ethics Cathriona Russell, 2009 What does autonomy mean from a Christian perspective What could a Christian environmental ethics bring to the debate about genetically modified food This book investigates conflicting claims in the public realm about food biotechnology It critically evaluates the contribution such technologies make to sustainable agricultural production and environmental stewardship Challenging the received wisdom in popular environmental theology the book defends the role of the human person as steward of creation and presents a human centred Christian environmental ethics rooted in the Kantian tradition of moral philosophy From this vantage point the author critiques the partiality of many contemporary environmental theologies which argue for a return to the technological simplicity of an idealised past or emphasise virtue while taking little account of the role that institutional issues play in framing and defining policy and good practice In this context the author examines whether or not under current conditions transgenic food can contribute to sustainable agricultural production

Understanding the Analects of Confucius Peimin Ni, 2017-02-07 Winner of the 2019 Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for a Translation of a Scholarly Study of Literature presented by the Modern Language Association The Analects of Confucius is arguably the single most influential work of China's cultural heritage In this new English translation Peimin Ni accomplishes the rare feat of simultaneously providing a faithful translation of the text offering his own reading based on gongfu practice perspective and presenting major alternative readings to help the reader understand how diverse interpretations and controversies arise In addition to the inclusion of the original Chinese text Ni adds a comprehensive introduction a discussion of key terms annotations and extensive cross references In doing so Ni makes the text accessible and engaging for today's audience

People of Passion Elizabeth Stuart, Adrian Thatcher, 1997 Deals with what Christian Churches are saying now and have said in the past about sex It provides a basic theological resource for those who want to explore issues around sex and sexuality from a Christian point of view but feel they need to acquire a broader more informal perspective on the historical background and the contemporary developments
