Mandated Landscape British Imperial Rule In Palestine 1929 1948:

Mandated Landscape Roza El-Eini, 2004-11-23 In this ground breaking authoritative study a highly documented and incisive analysis is made of the galvanising changes wrought to the people and landscape of British Mandated Palestine 1929 1948 Using a comprehensive and interdisciplinary approach the book's award winning author examines how the British imposed their rule dominated by the clashing dualities of their Mandate obligations towards the Arabs and the Jews and their own interests The rulers Empire wide conceptions of the White man's burden and preconceptions of the Holy Land were potent forces of change influencing their policies Lucidly written Mandated Landscape is also a rich source of information supported by numerous maps tables and illustrations and has 66 appendices a considerable bibliography and extensive index With a theoretical and historical backdrop the ramifications of British rule are highlighted in their impact on town planning agriculture forestry land the partition plans and a case study presenting discussions on such issues as development ecological shock law and the controversial division of village lands as the British operated in a politically turbulent climate often within their own administration This book is a major contribution to research on British Palestine and will interest those in Middle East history geography development and colonial postcolonial studies Zionism and Land Tenure in

Mandate Palestine Aida Essaid, 2013-12-04 A fundamental aspect of the conflict between Palestinians and Israelis is the territorial dispute which began long before the State of Israel was established Analysing the land tenure system in Palestine under the administration of the British Mandate this book questions whether and to what extent the land tenure system in Palestine facilitated Zionist land acquisition The research uses benchmarks elaborated in the guidelines of the United Nations Human Settlements Programme as its analytical starting point and looks at the formation and implementation of the land tenure system in Palestine It goes on to place the penetration of Zionism into the land tenure system within the theoretical context of a colonial settler framework employing information from land registry records located at the Jordanian Department of Lands Providing a political historical analysis of the land tenure system from the end of Ottoman Rule until the end of the British Mandate this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Middle Eastern History Imperial and Colonial History and Middle Eastern Politics The Jewish Community of Acre in Mandatory Palestine Anat Kidron, Shuli Linder Yarkony, 2024-05-20 For a brief moment in the history of Acre there was a Hebrew community that linked old and new settlements It had a national Zionist orientation and consisted of Jews of local and Mizrahic origin This community is no longer visible in the cityscape and its history has disappeared from the collective Zionist memory but it played a role in building the Jewish national community in Palestine The unusual history of Acre shows how it succeeded in attracting new nationalist settlers The book seeks to illuminate the complexity and diversity of the Zionist enterprise in relation to the Arab and mixed towns of Mandatory Palestine by raising questions about the relationship between the history of a place and national history By describing the failure of the Hebrew settlement in the Mandate territory of Acre the book views the

Zionist project as a fascinating intersection between the dreams of those who created the leading narratives and between local interests and the unique geographical conditions of the region

Britain, Palestine and Empire: The Mandate Years Dr Rory Miller, 2013-06-28 In 1948 Britain withdrew from Palestine bringing to an end its 30 years of rule in the territory What followed has been well documented and is perhaps one of the most intractable problems of the post imperial age However the long standing connection between Britain and Palestine before May 1948 is also a fascinating story This volume takes a fresh look at the years of the British mandate for Palestine its politics economics and culture Contributors address themes such as religion mandatory administration economic development policy and counter insurgency violence art and culture and decolonization This book will be valuable to scholars of the British mandate but also more broadly to those interested in imperial history and the history of the West's involvement in the Middle East

Antisemitism and Islamophobia in Europe James Renton, Ben Gidley, 2017-04-05 This is the first book to examine the relationship between European antisemitism and Islamophobia from the Crusades until the twenty first century in the principal flashpoints of the two racisms With case studies ranging from the Balkans to the UK the contributors take the debate away from politicised polemics about whether or not Muslims are the new Jews Much previous scholarship and public discussion has focused on comparing European ideas about Jews and Judaism in the past with contemporary attitudes towards Muslims and Islam This volume rejects this approach Instead it interrogates how the dynamic relationship between antisemitism and Islamophobia has evolved over time and space The result is the uncovering of a previously unknown story in which European ideas about Jews and Muslims were indeed connected but were also ripped apart Religion empire nation building and war all played their part in the complex evolution of this relationship As well as a study of prejudice this book also opens up a new area of inquiry how Muslims Jews and others have responded to these historically connected racisms The volume brings together leading scholars in the emerging field of antisemitism Islamophobia studies who work in a diverse range of disciplines anthropology history sociology critical theory and literature Together they help us to understand a Europe in which Jews and Arabs were once called Semites and today are widely thought to be on two different sides of the War on Terror

Demonization in International Politics Linn Normand, 2016-06-08 This book investigates demonization in international politics particularly in the Middle East It argues that while demonization's origins are religious its continued presence is fundamentally political Drawing upon examples from historical and modern conflicts this work addresses two key questions Why do leaders demonize enemies when waging war And what are the lasting impacts on peacemaking In providing answers to these inquiries the author applies historical insight to twenty first century conflict Specific attention is given to Israel and Palestine as the author argues that war time demonization in policy media and art is a psychological and relational barrier during peace talks

Educating Palestine Yoni Furas, 2020-04-17 Educating Palestine through the story of education and the teaching of history in Mandate Palestine reframes our understanding of the Palestinian and Zionist national movements It argues that Palestinian and Hebrew pedagogy could only be truly understood through an analysis of the conscious or unconscious dialogue between them The conflict over Palestine the study shows shaped the way Arabs and Zionists thought taught and wrote about their past British rule over Palestine promised the Jews a national home but had no viable policy towards the Palestinians and established an education system that lacked a sustainable collective ethos Nevertheless Palestinian educators were able to produce a national pedagogy that knew how to work with the British and simultaneously promoted an ideology of progress and independence that challenged colonial rule

The breakup of India and Palestine Victor Kattan,Amit Ranjan,2023-08-15 This book is the first study of political and legal thinking about the partitions of India and Palestine in 1947 The chapters in the volume authored by leading scholars of partition draw attention to the pathways of peoples geographic spaces colonial policies laws and institutions that connect them from the vantage point of those most engaged by the process political actors party activists jurists diplomats philosophers and international representatives from the Middle East South Asia and beyond Additionally the volume investigates some of the underlying causes of partition in both places such as the hardening of religious fault lines majoritarian politics and the failure to construct viable forms of government in deeply divided societies

The Naqab Bedouins Mansour Nasasra,2017-05-02 Conventional wisdom positions the Bedouins in southern Palestine and under Israeli military rule as victims or passive recipients In The Naqab Bedouins Mansour Nasasra rewrites this narrative presenting them as active agents who in defending their community and culture have defied attempts at subjugation and control The book challenges the notion of Bedouin docility under Israeli military rule and today showing how they have contributed to shaping their own destiny The Naqab Bedouins represents the first attempt to chronicle Bedouin history and politics across the last century including the Ottoman era the British Mandate Israeli military rule and the contemporary schema and document its broader relevance to understanding state minority relations in the region and beyond Nasasra recounts the Naqab Bedouin history of political struggle and resistance to central authority Nonviolent action and the strength of kin based tribal organization helped the Bedouins assert land claims and call for the right of return to their historical villages Through primary sources and oral history including detailed interviews with local indigenous Bedouins and with Israeli and British officials Nasasra shows how this Bedouin community survived strict state policies and military control and positioned itself as a political actor in the region
