The Savage City T. J. English, 2011-03-15 In the early 1960s uncertainty and menace gripped New York crystallizing in a poisonous divide between a deeply corrupt cynical and racist police force and an African American community buffeted by economic distress brutality and narcotics On August 28 1963 the day Martin Luther King Jr declared I have a dream on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial two young white women were murdered in their Manhattan apartment Dubbed the Career Girls Murders case the crime sent ripples of fear throughout the city as police scrambled fruitlessly for months to find the killer But it also marked the start of a ten year saga of fear racial violence and turmoil in the city an era that took in events from the Harlem Riots of the mid 1960s to the Panther Twenty One trials and Knapp Commission police corruption hearings of the early 1970s The Savage City explores this pivotal and traumatic decade through the stories of three very different men George Whitmore Jr the near blind destitute nineteen year old black man who was coerced into confessing to the Career Girls Murders and several other crimes Whitmore an innocent man would spend the decade in and out of the justice system becoming a scapegoat for the NYPD and a symbol of the inequities of the system Bill Phillips a brazenly crooked NYPD officer who spent years plundering the system before being caught in a corruption sting and turning jaybird to create the largest scandal in the department's history Dhoruba bin Wahad a son of the Bronx and founding member of New York's Black Panther Party whose militant activism would make him a target of local and federal law enforcement as conflicts between the Panthers and the police gradually devolved into open warfare Animated by the voices of the three participants all three of whom spent years in prison and are still alive today The Savage City emerges as an epic narrative of injustice and defiance revealing for the first time the gripping story of how a great city marred by fear and hatred struggled for its soul in a time of sweeping social political and economic change Framed! Joseph Occhipinti, 2022-06-22 Joseph Occhipinti is a native New Yorker where his desire to be involved in community service led him to a career in law enforcement He graduated from Brooklyn College where he earned a BA degree In January 1969 Joe joined the U S Army Reserves where for six years he served as a Military Policeman In March 1972 Joe was appointed as a Customs Patrol Officer where he was assigned to investigate international smuggling and organized crime In 1976 Joe transferred to the INS as a Special Agent where he became one of the country's foremost experts on ethnic organized crime Joe worked deep undercover and infiltrated a drug cartel that led to one of the largest cocaine seizures at that time In 1984 Joe became the youngest agent to be promoted to Chief of the NYC Anti Smuggling Unit In 1989 Joe initiated a multi agency task force Project Bodega to investigate a drug cartel implicated in the murder of a NYPD officer In retaliation the cartel set up Joe on fabricated civil rights allegations that led to his prosecution conviction and imprisonment However due to public outrage President George H W Bush granted Joe Executive Clemency on January 15 1993 and on December 23 2020 President Donald J Trump granted him a Full and Unconditional Pardon with a personal apology for Joe s injustice In 1995 Joe established the National Police Defense Foundation where he still volunteers as its Executive Director Joe has been instrumental in exposing through national media many injustices against officers He also established the congressionally recognized Safe Cop program that helps arrest and convict criminals who shoot at or kill an officer Joe s notoriety as a humanitarian is attributed to his Operation Kids program which arranges life saving operations for children worldwide Joe has been recognized for these efforts by the media elected officials state legislatures and foreign governments including Pope Francis Joe served on the executive board of several fraternal police organizations which included the Federal Agents PBA as President for 18 years Today Joe is considered one of the most decorated federal agents in the United States credited with 3 Attorney General Awards and 78 commendations for meritorious service and valor Joe resides in New Jersey with his wife Angela of 50 years 3 married daughters and 6 grandchildren

The Shelter of His Arms Dawn Stewardson,2013-03-01 Sworn to Protect Celeste Langley may be the NYPD s prime suspect in her brother s murder but Detective Travis Quinn is convinced she didn t do it She s too kind and warmhearted and his feelings for her are far too strong But before they can have any kind of future Travis must keep Celeste safe First from the very system he has sworn to uphold and then from a cold blooded murderer who has marked Celeste as his next victim Now the safest place for her to be is in the shelter of Travis s arms

Gangbusters Michael Stone,2010-04-28 An elite homicide investigation unit takes on one of the most savage and destructive gangs in New York City history in this gritty true crime narrative The investigation into the late night murder of a college student on the West Side Highway leads to the Wild Cowboys a group of young men who for years terrorized Upper Manhattan and the Bronx while running a 30 000 a day drug business What follows is a tale of dogged pursuit that offers a fascinating inside look at the workings of a complex police investigation and a satisfying account of how a city took back its streets Dead End

Jeanne King,2002-03-20 The focus of this book is the trial and conviction of Sante and Kenneth Kimes for the bizarre murder of Irene Silverman whose New York mansion they were attempting to steal Short Stories of Life and Death ,
