Manimekhalai The Dancer With The Magic Bowl:

Manimekhalai மணிமேகலை, 1989 Never before translated into English the Manimekhala is one of the great classics of Indian culture A second century Tamil verse epic it is a sequel to the Shilappadikaram New Directions 1965 which was also masterfully translated into prose by the acclaimed musician and scholar of Hinduism Alain Dani lou Rich with details of the period s arts customs and religions the Manimekhala provides an extraordinary picture of an age that suddenly comes back to life It is the story of a beautiful young dancer who decides to forego her looming career as a courtesan in order to dedicate her life with the aid of gods demigods and a magic bowl called the Cow of Abundance to charity and to attaining the bright light of knowledge

Manimekhalai Cāttanār, 1989 A second century Tamil verse epic reflects the ancient culture of India in the story of a beautiful young dancer who abandons her future as a courtesan in order to dedicate her life to the pursuit of the bright light of knowledge

Imagining a Place for Buddhism Anne Elizabeth Monius, 2001 This study argues that in early medieval south India it was in the literary arena that religious ideals and values were publicly contested

Heritage and Ruptures in Indian Literature, Culture and Cinema Cornelius Crowley, Geetha Ganapathy-Doré, 2017-03-07 This book investigates the millennial history of the Indian subcontinent Through the various methods adopted the objects and moments examined it questions various linguistic literary and artistic appropriations of the past to address the conflicting comprehensions of the present and also the figuring imagining of a possible future The volume engages with this general cultural condition in relation both to the subcontinent s current synchronic reality and to certain aspects of the culture s underlying diachronic determinations It also reveals how the multiple heritages are negotiated through the subcontinent s long term sedimentational history It scrutinizes both conservative interpretations of heritage and a possibly incremental enrichment and the additional possibility of a mode of appropriation open to a dialectic of creative destruction in which the patrimonial imperative is challenged leaving room for processes of renewal and rejuvenation The collection is organized around four major topics Orientalism addressed by way of the Tamil Epic Manimekhalai through the evocation of the Hastings Circle and views on a possible Hindu Muslim unity sketched out by Sayyid Ahmed Khan modernism in Indian and Burmese texts written in English pictorial art through a consideration of the work of British Asian and Indian film directors and finally the current state of a body of critical thinking on gender

What's the Use of Art? Jan Mrazek, Morgan Pitelka, 2007-12-03 Post Enlightenment notions of culture which have been naturalized in the West for centuries require that art be autonomously beautiful universal and devoid of any practical purpose The authors of this multidisciplinary volume seek to complicate this understanding of art by examining art objects from across Asia with attention to their functional ritual and everyday contexts From tea bowls used in the Japanese tea ceremony to television broadcasts of Javanese puppet theater from Indian wedding chamber paintings to art looted by the British army from the Chinese emperor s palace from the adventures of a Balinese magical dagger to the political functions of classical Khmer images the authors challenge prevailing notions of artistic value by introducing new ways of thinking about culture The chapters consider art objects as they are involved in the world how they operate and are experienced in specific sites collections rituals performances political and religious events and imagination and in individual peoples lives how they move from one context to another and change meaning and value in the process for example when they are collected traded and looted or when their images appear in art history textbooks how their memories and pasts are or are not part of their meaning and experience Rather than lead to a single universalizing definition of art the essays offer multiple divergent and case specific answers to the question What is the use of art and argue for the need to study art as it is used and experienced Contributors Cynthia J Bogel Louise Cort Richard H Davis Robert DeCaroli James L Hevia Janet Hoskins Kaja McGowan Jan Mr zek Lene Pedersen Morgan Pitelka Ashley Thompson
