Mansfield And Vietnam A Study In Rhetorical Adaptation:

Mansfield and Vietnam Gregory A. Olson, 2012-01-01 Mansfield and Vietnam A Study in Rhetorical Adaptation is the first major work to examine the role played by Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield Democrat from Montana in the formulation and execution of U S Vietnam policy Drawing upon material from the Mansfield Papers personal interviews public speeches and recently declassified documents Olson traces Mansfield s journey from ardent supporter of Diem in the late 1950s to quiet critic of LBJ in the mid 1960s and finally to outspoken opponent of the Vietnam War in the late 1960s and early 1970s Olson focuses his attention on Mansfield s speaking ability and his use of the written word analyzing the ways in which they proved crucial in shaping the policies of the Eisenhower Kennedy Johnson Nixon and Ford presidential administrations He also examines the way personal and political situations converged to force Mansfield into the center of the stormy Vietnam controversy and eventually into a position of leadership in the campaign to end America s military presence in Southeast Asia To date little has been done to evaluate the roles played by key congressional figures in the Vietnam War debate thus Mansfield and Vietnam is bound to become a significant contribution not only to rhetorical studies but also to twentieth century diplomatic history and to the study of congressional presidential relations

Cauldron of Resistance Jessica M. Chapman, 2013-02-19 In 1955 Ngo Dinh Diem organized an election to depose chief of state Bao Dai after which he proclaimed himself the first president of the newly created Republic of Vietnam The United States sanctioned the results of this election which was widely condemned as fraudulent and provided substantial economic aid and advice to the RVN Because of this Diem is often viewed as a mere puppet of the United States in service of its Cold War geopolitical strategy That narrative Jessica M Chapman contends in Cauldron of Resistance grossly oversimplifies the complexity of South Vietnam s domestic politics and indeed Diem s own political savvy Based on extensive work in Vietnamese French and American archives Chapman offers a detailed account of three crucial years 1953 1956 during which a new Vietnamese political order was established in the south It is in large part a history of Diem s political ascent as he managed to subdue the former Emperor Bao Dai the armed Hoa Hao and Cao Dai religious organizations and the Binh Xuyen crime organization It is also an unparalleled account of these same outcast political powers forces that would reemerge as destabilizing political and military actors in the late 1950s and early 1960s Chapman shows Diem to be an engaged leader whose personalist ideology influenced his vision for the new South Vietnamese state but also shaped the policies that would spell his demise Washington s support for Diem because of his staunch anticommunism encouraged him to employ oppressive measures to suppress dissent thereby contributing to the alienation of his constituency and helped inspire the organized opposition to his government that would emerge by the late 1950s and eventually lead to the Vietnam War

Light at the End of the Tunnel Andrew J. Rotter, 2010-03-16 Of all of the wars in which the U S has been engaged none has been as divisive as the conflict in Vietnam The repercussions of this unsettling episode in American history still resonate in our society Although it ended more than 30 years ago the Vietnam War continues to fascinate and trouble Americans The third edition of Light at the End of the Tunnel gives a full overview of the conflict Starting with Ho Chi Minh's revolt against the French editor Andrew J Rotter takes the reader through the succeeding years as scholars government officials journalists and others recount the important events in the conflict and examine issues that developed during this tumultuous time This book is essential reading for anyone who has an interest in understanding the Vietnam War The readings in it will enlighten students about this turning point in the history of the United States and the world The third edition includes greater coverage of the Vietnamese experience of the war and reflects the growing interest in understanding the war as an international event not just a bilateral or trilateral conflict America's Vietnam War and Its French Connection Frank Cain, 2016-12-08 That America was drawn into the Vietnam War by the French has been recognized but rarely explored This book analyzes the years from 1945 with the French military reconquest of Vietnam until 1963 with the execution of the French endorsed dictator Ngo Dinh Diem demonstrating how the US should not have followed the French into Vietnam It shows how the Korean War triggered the flow of American military hardware and finances to underpin France's war against the Marxist oriented Vietnam Republic led by Ho Chi Minh Supplement to Vietnam 1964-1973 Elwood L. White, 2005 This bibliography is a supplement to the Special Bibliography Series Number 80 compiled in 1990 to support the 14th Military History Symposium It is primarily intended as a listing of scholarly works completed since 1990 on the Vietnam War although some works prior to that date are included The bibliography is selected from the holdings on that war housed in the McDermott library United States Air Force Academy and includes books journal articles government publications and technical reports Newspaper articles works of fiction collections of poetry and most personal narratives are not included The Clark Special Collections Branch of the library has extensive primary source materials and artifacts focused on American POW experiences in Southeast Asia Those items are also excluded from this bibliography since they are limited to in house use only Individuals wanting information about that collection should contact the Special Collections Curator and Academy Archivist Supplement to Vietnam 1964-1973, 2005 Defending the Free World Orrin Schwab, 1998-09-24 Schwab examines America's decision to stand in Vietnam with a fresh perspective provided by new archival materials and the intellectual synthesis of institutional political and diplomatic history Vietnam policy is shown at many different levels from the presidency down to the level of CIA operatives in the field and public opinion specialists on the White House staff The views of State Department officers foreign public opinion editorials in major U S newspapers and the powerful leaders of both Congressional houses reveal an informed and highly conflicted public leadership well before American combat troops were committed in large numbers in the summer of 1965 The study begins with John F Kennedy's inaugural address in January of 1961 and proceeds to show the decision making process regarding Vietnam and Indochina through the several critical events that led to Johnson's famous press conference speech of 1965 The author contends that responsibility for the war and its tragic consequences should not be placed upon individuals but rather at the levels of the state society and the international system This view of agency existing at a higher level than the presidency challenges the dominant view of most diplomatic historians and other writers who have focused on the blunders and misperceptions of policy makers The Good Neighbor Mary E. Stuckey, 2013-11-01 No modern president has had as much influence on American national politics as Franklin D Roosevelt During FDR s administration power shifted from states and localities to the federal government within the federal government it shifted from Congress to the president and internationally it moved from Europe to the United States All of these changes required significant effort on the part of the president who triumphed over fierce opposition and succeeded in remaking the American political system in ways that continue to shape our politics today Using the metaphor of the good neighbor Mary E Stuckey examines the persuasive work that took place to authorize these changes Through the metaphor FDR s administration can be better understood his emphasis on communal values the importance of national mobilization in domestic as well as foreign affairs in defense of those values his use of what he considered a particularly democratic approach to public communication his treatment of friends and his delineation of enemies and finally the ways in which he used this rhetoric to broaden his neighborhood from the limits of the United States to encompass the entire world laying the groundwork for American ideological dominance in the post World War II era The Manufacture of Consent Stephen M. Underhill, 2020-02-01 The second Red Scare was a charade orchestrated by a tyrant with the express goal of undermining the New Deal so argues Stephen M Underhill in this hard hitting analysis of J Edgar Hoover s rhetorical agency Drawing on Classification 94 a vast trove of recently declassified records that documents the longtime FBI director s domestic propaganda campaigns in the mid twentieth century Underhill shows that Hoover used the growing power of his office to subvert the presidencies of Franklin D Roosevelt and Harry S Truman and redirect the trajectory of U S culture away from social democracy toward a toxic brand of neoliberalism He did so with help from Republicans who opposed organized labor and Southern Democrats who supported Jim Crow in what is arguably the most culturally significant documented political conspiracy in U S history a wholesale domestic propaganda program that brainwashed Americans and remade their politics Hoover also forged ties with the powerful fascist leaders of the period to promote his own political ambitions All the while as a love letter to Clyde Tolson still preserved in Hoover s papers attests he strove to pass for straight while promoting a culture that demonized same sex love The erosion of democratic traditions Hoover fostered continues to haunt Americans today
