An Imperial Crisis in British India Caroline Keen, 2015-07-03 In 1891 a major anti British revolt erupted in the northeast Indian princely state of Manipur after a dangerously miscalculated attempt by the Government of India to assert its authority in the wake of a palace coup Following the murder of a number of senior officers a substantial British force descended upon the state to restore order and to bring the prime culprits to a questionable justice generating widespread condemnation in England The Manipur Uprising and its aftermath showed the fragility of indirect rule in India and British underestimation of native loyalty to princely rule With fresh archival research and contemporary reports Caroline Keen here provides a compelling account of erratic imperial policy making at the highest level

Maharaja's Household provides a unique and engrossingly intimate view of life in the erstwhile royal household of Manipur in northeast India. It brings to life stories of kingdoms long vanished and is an important addition to the untold histories of the British Raj. Maharaj Kumari Binodini Devi or Binodini as she preferred to be known published The Maharaja's Household as a series of essays between 2002 and 2007 for an avid newspaper reading public in Manipur. Already celebrated in Manipur for her award winning novel short stories and film scripts that had brought her to the attention of international followers of world cinema, Binodini entranced her readers anew with her stories of royal life told from a woman's point of view and informed by a deep empathy for the common people in her father's gilded circle. Elephant hunts, polo matches and Hindu temple performances form the backdrop for palace intrigues, colonial rule and White Rajahs. With gentle humour, piquant observations and heartfelt nostalgia, Binodini evokes a lifestyle and an era that is now lost. Her book paints a portrait of the household of a king that only a princess, his daughter, could have written. Published by Zubaan, London Quarterly Review, 1893. Treasurer's Report of the Receipts and Expenditures ... Brookline (Mass.), MASS BROOKLINE, 1892. Under a Cloud Binoo K. John, 2004. As Midnight Approaches, there is an aura of expectation in Cherrapunji. For a while even the pinpricks of light scattered here and there in the village like stars in a constellation seem to stop flickering. And then the rains begin. It is rain that has made Cherra famous. And Binoo's mission is to unravel the mystery behind the curious phenomenon which brings this area as much rain in three months as the rest of the country might not get in a whole year. But as he makes his way into each corner and crevice of Cherrapunji, he discovers that it is much more than the wettest place on earth. After the bustle and tension of Guwahati and Shillong, he finds in Cherrapunji a world of mesmerizing beauty peopled with unusual characters: from uncooperative bureaucrats and friendly auto drivers to women who run their own enterprises and forward-looking individuals who want to bring the sleepy little village from under the cloud into the modern world of telephones and tourism. And he takes a quick and curious walk down the lanes of Cherra's chequered history: a story of nineteenth-century evangelists and proselytization, the beginnings of education, the fierce earthquake of 1897 which almost obliterated the town, and battles against the colonizers ranging with consummate ease over topics as varied as religion, cuisine and meteorology. Under a Cloud paints an evocative picture of life in one of the most unusual places in India. Chamber's Biographical Dictionary, 1902. Chamber's Biographical Dictionary David Patrick, Francis Hindes Groome, 1900.
