Why Indiana is the Center of the Basketball World Michael G. Ludlow,2014-01-23 Basketball is now the second most popular sport world wide trailing only futbol soccer in the number of participants fans and leagues Its popularity is due to the fact that the game of basketball requires the most number of physical skills making basketball players the most complete athletes The speed grace and teamwork required to play the game combined with the athleticism required makes it beautiful to watch and fun to play The United States has always been and always will be the greatest basketball nation Although the rest of the world has been catching up with us note the increasing number of international players in the NBA from all parts of the world we invented it thank you Dr Naismith we perfected it thank you Coach Wooden Bill Russell Larry Magic Michael Lebron etc and we still have the highest concentration of excellence at all levels high school college and professional Indiana has long been known to be basketball crazy The image of a basketball goal on every garage barn or any other place you can put one including the governor s residence is based as most legends are on a ring of truth Indiana has always been basketball crazy Decades before March Madness became a national trademark Hoosier Hysteria rippled through the entire state at tourney time Other states can claim they are the best basketball state Certainly North Carolina does and cases can be made for Kentucky New York and California This study provides overwhelming statistical evidence and so much anecdotal support that it is undeniable that Indiana IS the center of the basketball world

The History of Loyola Basketball Fred Mitchell,2019-03-12 Only a seasoned journalist like Fred Mitchell could uncover the fascinating stories behind the Ramblers glorious journey to the NCAA championship Mitchell details surprising behind the curtain events which carry the reader on a breath taking trip to an unexpected hard fought victory Robert Jordan Jr Ph D Loyola University Retired Anchor Reporter WGN TV Chicago Loyola has become a national brand led by a pragmatic genuine and unassuming head coach Porter Moser is known for doing things the right way and encouraging his players to buy in to the culture of the program that stresses building character and encourages good sportsmanship teamwork and respect for the process The over arching national narrative of the 2017 18 NCAA men s basketball tournament became the valiant and totally unexpected run made by the Loyola Ramblers to the Final Four What a refreshing Cinderella Run that fans nationwide appreciated after a college basketball season overloaded with negative headlines The fabric of the team was woven from the initial threads of the 1963 NCAA championship Loyola squad that not only captured a national title but also made historic strides for college basketball and the nation with regard to civil rights and racial integration While the nation was admiring the grit maturity and determination of Loyola s relatively unheralded players they also fell in love with the sincerity of Sister Jean the ninety nine year old team chaplain and pop culture sensation now featured on bobbleheads and memes across the country This unique and colorful story is properly told through the voices of those who actually took part in the joyful games without shying away from the painful incidents that represent a significant part of our country s history University of Virginia Alumni News
