My Television:

TV Susan Bordo, 2021-03-11 Object Lessons is a series of short beautifully designed books about the hidden lives of ordinary things. Once upon a time the news was only 15 minutes long and middle class families huddled around a tiny black and white screen. TV dinners on their laps awaiting weekly sitcoms that depicted an all white world in which mom wore pearls and heels as she baked endless pies. If this seems a distant past that's a measure of just how much TV has changed and changed us. Weaving together personal memoir, social and political history and reflecting on key moments in the history of news broadcasting and prime time entertainment, Susan Bordo opens up the 75 year old time capsule that is TV and illustrates what a constant companion and dominant cultural force television has been for good and for bad in carrying us from the McCarthy hearings and The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet to Mad Men, Killing Eve and the emergence of our first reality TV president. Object Lessons is published in partnership with an essay series in The Atlantic. How To Pitch Your T.V. Series Idea To The T.V. Industry, 2018-04-19 How To Pitch Your T V Series Idea To The T V Industry is about how to get your foot in the door at any major television network and pitch your television series ideas directly to decision making executives. This book was written by a producer/ animator with 25 yrs experience reaching out to and talking with executives at BET, NBC, SYFY, Sprouts, Cartoon Network, Adult Swim and Nickelodeon either in person face to face or via phone calls. This process is honed down to an exact science that will get your foot in the door. Unplug! 101 Ways to Pull Your Kids Away from Television Wanda Kantan Hartfield, 2003 This is a book full of ideas to help lure your kids away from the enticing glow of television and into the world of creativity and imagination. It's motivational and practical, a good resource for anyone who works with kids: parents, teachers, grandparents, homeschoolers, group leaders and baby sitters. Prefaced by a chapter of statistics and references to current thought on children and television viewing, 101 activities supported with catchy graphics. Easy instructions are offered for kids varying in age up to preteens by former television producer and teacher of Romper Room, the longest running children's TV show in the country from 1953 to the late nineties. Today television is the number one activity for both kids and adults. Studies show that children devote up to 42 hours per week viewing television depending on what study you're willing to accept. A recent study by the Journal of Science March 29 2002 concludes that the more time kids spend watching television the more likely they are to behave aggressively in future. Kids would be better off if they watched LESS THAN one hour a day on average, said lead author Jeffrey Johnson of Columbia University. Social Media Television and Distributional Aesthetics Gry C. Rustad, 2025-03-10 Social Media Television and Distributional Aesthetics explores this distinct fictional form that merges the genres, structures and affordances of television with those of social media and what it entails for contemporary television and media culture and for our experience of new and old media in everyday life. Centred around five key case studies: Skam, Lik, Meg, Dead Girls, Detective Agency, Content and Eva Stories, this book offers insight into how different social media platforms facilitate distinct aesthetics and content transnational aspects of social media television and how different production cultures and industries operate in its production This analysis extrapolated out into broader principles and theoretical arguments that will help scholars working on a wide variety of questions of television and social media digitalization technology convergence media aesthetics production cultures audience cultures and globalization in the future Developing new theoretical perspectives to understand what social media television is and can be and creating new methodological frameworks to analyze television and new media as an aesthetic experience the author proposes distributional aesthetic as the main analytical framework arguing that distribution can be understood as an aesthetic form defined as a situated aesthetic experience in time and space This book will be relevant for scholars instructors students and practitioners working within television studies social media studies media aesthetics and visual and digital culture

Finding Mrs. Warnecke Cindi Rigsbee, 2010-03-15 Finding Mrs Warnecke tells the inspiring story of Cindi Rigsbee a three time Teacher of the Year and Barbara Warnecke the first grade teacher who had a profound and lasting impact on Cindi's life Cindi an insecure child who craved positive attention started her first grade year with a teacher who was emotionally abusive and played favorites in the classroom Two months into the school year her principal came into the classroom and announced that half the students were being moved to another classroom a dank windowless basement room with a young and inexperienced teacher This change turned out to be the best thing that ever happened to Cindi Her new teacher Mrs Warnecke made learning come alive for her students She went overboard caring for each child made her classroom magical and encouraged students to pursue their dreams Although Cindi was reluctant to explore her creativity as a student Mrs Warnecke encouraged her to read and write poetry which became a lifelong passion The two kept in touch for several years but lost track of each other when Mrs Warnecke moved out of state Cindi spent many years trying to reconnect so she could thank Mrs Warnecke for making such a difference in her life but to no avail Eventually Cindi became a teacher herself and thirty years later she has taught more than 2 000 children and been named Teacher of the Year for her home state She later came to realize that all those years she wasn't really trying to track down Barbara Warnecke but rather she was trying to find Mrs Warnecke within herself In Fall 2008 Cindi and Barbara were reunited on Good Morning America the show s producers had tracked Barbara down and brought both women on set for a tearful reunion Barbara was floored at this attention she had no idea she could have made such an impact on a former student s life As Cindi travels around talking with new and veteran educators she is always approached by audience members who are moved to tears and want to share the story of the Mrs Warnecke in their own lives Finding Mrs Warnecke not only tells the story of this teacher who made a lifelong impact on her students it illustrates the importance of the teacher student relationship in the classroom and offers principles for other teachers to follow to make a positive impact in their own classrooms

Byrd,1988 Collected Philosophical Essays John O'Loughlin,2022-03-16 As John O Loughlin s mature works became increasingly aphoristic and hence to his mind increasingly metaphysical with what he would regard as truth effectively eclipsing the fumblingly discursive nature of essays and indeed knowledge generally he totally abandoned both the essays as here and the dialogues published in a separate collective volume together with such early aphoristic material that at least had the merit so far as he was concerned of anchoring him in a more genuine approach to philosophy than could ever be found in works of a philosophical nature diluted by prose and hence by a discursive want of both logic and system unworthy in his estimation of true philosophy Nonetheless the reader will be aware that philosophical essays are still distinct from literary prose all the more so when as in this volume and various others the material has been centred the better to intimate of a sort of metaphysical aloofness from the pedament slaving world which customarily fights shy in the angularity of its untransvaluated nature of anything resembling no matter how metaphorically the curvilinear subjectivity of a dome particularly when intimating in true religious vein of transcendental possibility a possibility very much a part of the best of the essays included in this one volume presentation spanning the years 1977 84 of John O Loughlin s literary output A Centretruths Editorial *City of Muskegon Heights v. The Australian Country Girl: History, Image, Experience Professor Catherine Driscoll,2014-09-28 The Australian Country Girl History Image Experience offers a detailed analysis of the experience and the image of Australian country girlhood In Australia country girl names a field of experiences and life stories by girls and women who have grown up outside of the demographically dominant urban centres But it also names a set of ideas about Australia that is surprisingly consistent across the long twentieth century despite also working as an index of changing times For a long period in Australian history well before Federation and long after it public and popular culture openly equated Australian character with rural life This image of Australian ness sometimes went by the name of the bush man now a staple of Australian history This has been counterbalanced post World War II and increased immigration by an image of sophisticated Australian modernity located in multicultural cities These images of Australia balance rather than contradict one another in many ways and the more cosmopolitan image of Australia is often in dialogue with that preceding image of the bush This book does not offer a corrective to the story of Australian national identity but rather a fresh perspective on this history and a new focus on the ever changing experience of Australian rural life It argues that the country girl has not only been a long standing counterpart to the Australian bush man she has more importantly figured as a point of dialogue between the country and the city for popular culture and for public sphere narratives about Australian society and identity 365 Nights Charla

Muller,2011-04-04 For an entire year The Mullers had a solid marriage and two wonderful children but over the years sex had fallen low on their to do list The lack of intimacy wasn't causing them to drift apart exactly but their connection didn't seem as great as it could be Charla decided that the couple would embark on a year of scheduled sex falling over toy trucks and piles of laundry in an effort to make time for each other There were obstacles along the way when disasters at work intruded on their home life and when there were questions about the sex itself and faking it Would physical love whether good mediocre or ugly make up for things that weren't so good Charla and her husband had a whole year to find out

Puppet and Spirit: Ritual, Religion, and Performing Objects Claudia Orenstein,Tim Cusack,2024-10-17 This anthology of essays a companion to Puppet and Spirit Ritual Religion and Performing Objects Volume I aims to explore the many types of relationships that exist between puppets broadly speaking and the immaterial world The allure of the puppet goes beyond its material presence as historically and throughout the globe many uses of puppets and related objects have expressed and capitalized on their posited connections to other realms or ability to serve as vessels or conduits for immaterial presence The flip side of the puppet's troubling uncanniness is precisely the possibilities it represents for connecting to incarnate realities Where do we see such connections in contemporary artistic work in various mediums How do puppets open avenues for discussion in a world that seems to be increasingly polarized around religious values How do we describe analyze and theorize the present moment What new questions do puppets address for our times and how does the puppet's continued entanglement with these concerns trouble or comfort us The essays in this book from scholars and practitioners provide a range of useful models and critical vocabularies for addressing this aspect of puppet performance further expanding the growing understanding and appreciation of puppetry generally This book along with its companion volume offers for the first time robust coverage of this subject from a diversity of voices examples and perspectives

Recipe for Life Mary Berry,2013-09-12 As well as starring on The Great British Bake Off Mary Berry is returning to our TVs with her brand new series Britain's Best Home Cook so indulge and discover her autobiography From the moment she came into the world two weeks early throwing her parents lives into disarray Mary has gracefully but firmly done things her own way Born in 1935 in the city of Bath Mary's childhood was a curious mix of idyllic picnics and ramblings and alarming air raids of a spirited and outdoorsy home life and a dreaded school existence All nearly cut horribly short by an almost fatal bout of polio when she was thirteen which isolated Mary in hospital away from beloved family and friends for months Recovery saw her turn to her one true passion cookery And so began a love affair that has spanned six remarkable decades from demonstrating ovens in the early 1950s to producing glossy food magazines in the 60s and 70s gradually becoming the country s most prolific and many would say best loved cookery writer Until her emergence in the 21st century as a TV sensation and style icon on the Great British Bake Off In this touching evocative and fascinating memoir we accompany Mary on her journey of nearly eighty years a life lived to the full with a wicked sense of fun and an eye for the absurd it is the life of a delightfully traditional but thoroughly modern woman Digital Feudalism David Ardit, 2023-04-06 Digital Feudalism explores this new moment in capitalism and how reliant global economies have become on these processes of consumption work and debt
