My Twentieth Century Philosophy:

My Twentieth Century Philosophy Betty Porteus, Elizabeth Dole Porteus, 1987-01-01 Twentieth-Century Philosophy of Science: A History (Third Edition) Thomas J. Hickey, 2016-12-21 History of twentieth century philosophy of science opens with an introduction to contemporary philosophy of science as of the beginning of the twenty first century and describes the new specialty of computational philosophy of science Seven chapters describing the philosophies of several major philosophers of science follow this introductory chapter These major philosophers include Ernst Mach and Pierre Duhem Rudolf Carnap and Willard Van Quine Werner Heisenberg Karl Popper Thomas Kuhn and Paul Feyerabend Norwood Russell Hanson and Paul Thagard and Herbert Simon The book concludes with a large bibliography My Twentieth Century Hazel Andrews Reed, 1997 From Enon Valley in Pennsylvania to Singapore and beyond Hazel Andrews Reed traveled the world at a time when women normally stayed home protected and supported by family Born on October 28 1903 the author will inspire young and old alike to keep moving Columbia Companion to Twentieth-Century Philosophies Constantin V. Boundas, 2007 Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies is the first guide to cover both the Anglo American analytic and European continental traditions Organized thematically the volume thoroughly discusses the major movements and fields of each tradition and features the contributions of highly distinguished specialists in their fields This book is divided into three sections The first is devoted to highlighting the multidimensional work of philosophers identified with the analytic tradition with Nicholas Rescher writing on neoidealism Josephine Donovan commenting on feminist philosophy Tyler Burge discussing the philosophy of language and mind and Robert Hanna reflecting on Kant's legacy The second section presents the thought of those who identified themselves with the continental tradition featuring Jean Grondin on hermeneutics Leonard Lawlor on phenomenology Charles Scott on postmodernism and Babette Babich on the philosophy of science This volume also covers logical positivism naturalism pragmatism aesthetics existentialism Marxism the Frankfurt School structuralism psychoanalysis political philosophy ethics and the philosophy of religion The final section addresses concurrent trends in Indian Chinese Japanese and African philosophy and a comprehensive introduction by the editor not only provides a thorough outline of the problems and issues of the analytic and continental traditions but also boldly challenges the conviction that the two approaches must be rivals Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies is an invaluable overview of the ideas that have shaped a monumentally important century in the history of philosophy offering an unusually panoramic perspective that allows readers to form their own interpretations of original materials The Routledge Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophy Dermot Moran, 2008-10-27 The twentieth century was one of the most significant and exciting periods ever witnessed in philosophy characterized by intellectual change and development on a massive scale The Routledge Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophy is an outstanding authoritative survey and assessment of the century as a whole Featuring twenty two chapters written by leading international scholars this collection is divided into five clear parts and presents a comprehensive picture of the period for the first time major themes and movements logic language knowledge and metaphysics philosophy of mind psychology and science phenomenology hermeneutics existentialism and critical theory politics ethics aesthetics Featuring annotated further reading and a comprehensive glossary The Routledge Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophy is indispensable for anyone interested in philosophy over the last one hundred years suitable for both expert and novice alike My Twentieth-century Night-life Padraic Fiacc,1996 Gathering together original critical pieces autobiographical writings including his two much admired radio memoirs Hell's kitchen and Atlantic crossing as well as a generous selection of critical and artistic responses to his work this prose miscellany is a significant addition to our understanding of the most complex and urgent of Northern Irish poets P 4 of cover Richard Rorty David L. Hall,1994-01-01 This book is a discussion of the nature and import of Richard Rorty's philosophy particularly as it relates to his reevaluation of American pragmatism Rorty's thinking is assessed within the context of both modern and postmodern intellectual trends and his thought is contrasted with that of his principal contemporaries in America and Europe including Donald Davidson W V O Quine Jürgen Habermas Michel Foucault Martin Heidegger and Jacques Derrida Twentieth Century, 1890 Poststructuralism and Critical Theory's Second Generation Alan D. Schrift,2014-09-11 Poststructuralism and Critical Theory's Second Generation analyses the major themes and developments in a period that brought continental philosophy to the forefront of scholarship in a variety of humanities and social science disciplines and that set the agenda for philosophical thought on the continent and elsewhere from the 1960s to the present Focusing on the years 1960-1984 the volume examines the major figures associated with poststructuralism and the second generation of critical theory the two dominant movements that emerged in the 1960s Althusser Foucault Deleuze Derrida Lyotard Irigaray and Habermas Influential thinkers such as Serres Bourdieu and Rorty who are not easily placed in standard histories of the period are also covered Beyond this thematic essays engage with issues as diverse as the Nietzschean legacy the linguistic turn in continental thinking the phenomenological inheritance of Gadamer and Ricoeur the influence of psychoanalysis the emergence of feminist thought and a philosophy of sexual difference the renewal of the critical theory tradition and the importation of continental philosophy into literary theory Human Chemistry (Volume Two) Libb Thims,2007-09-01 Volume two begins with Goethe's theories of affinities i.e. the chemical reaction view of human life in 1809 This is followed by the history of how the thermodynamic 1876 and quantum 1905 revolutions modernized chemistry such that affinity the force of reaction is now viewed as a function of thermodynamic free energy reaction spontaneity and quantum valency bond stabilities The composition energetic state dynamics and evolution of the human chemical bond A-B is the centerpiece of this process The human bond is what gives yields and takes absorbs energy in life The coupling of this bond energy driven by periodic inputs of solar photons thus triggering activation energies and entropies connected to the dynamical work of life is what quantifies the human reaction process This is followed by topics including mental crystallization template theory LGBT chemistry chemical potential Le Chatelier's principle Muller dispersion forces and human thermodynamics Nature, Truth, and Value George Allan, Merle Frederick Allshouse, 2005-01-01 In this thorough compendium nineteen accomplished scholars explore in some manner the values they find inherent in the world their nature and relevance through the thought of Frederick Ferris. These essays informed by the insights of Ferris and coming from manifold perspectives ethics philosophy theology and environmental studies advance an ambitious challenge to current intellectual and scholarly fashions Philosophy of Nursing Janice M. Brencick, Glenn A. Webster, 2000-01-01 Employs philosophy to help illuminate the nature of nursing and provide a holistic view of both nursing and persons

Reinterpreting Revolution in Twentieth-Century Europe Moira Donald, Tim Rees, 2017-03-14 Until the dramatic fall of Communist regimes in the East placed the possibility of revolution on the agenda once again sudden and decisive political change had appeared a largely anachronistic phenomenon in Europe Looking back over the twentieth century it is plausible to argue that the twentieth rather than the nineteenth has been the most revolutionary of centuries In this volume leading specialists from a variety of disciplines examine the changing and conflicting meanings of revolution in modern and contemporary Europe Contributions include both broad essays on the global and historical context of European revolution and specific case studies reinterpreting a variety of revolutionary experiences A Philosophy of Prayer George Pattison, 2024-07-02 Exploring the silence of prayer in Post Kantian philosophy and traditional spirituality A Philosophy of Prayer explores prayer within the perspective of post Kantian philosophy Against a background of traditional sources including Augustine The Cloud of Unknowing and the seventeenth century French school of spirituality the book uses Schleiermacher Kierkegaard Dostoevsky Heidegger Berdyaev Tillich Marcel Simone Weil Emmanuel Levinas and Jean Louis Chr tian to provide an interpretation of what is meant by the passivity and self annihilation of the praying self suggesting an apophatics of the personality Pattison pays particular attention to the question of language and the implications of the role given to silence in traditional texts arguing that language remains a defining element of the human God relationship and that silence is not to be construed as the negation of language but as the revelation of the depth of language itself The basic structure of prayer is shown to be implicitly eschatological oriented toward a coming kingdom of justice and peace while at the same time expressing a deep desire for ontological homecoming a tension manifest in respectively Levinas and Heidegger On Pattison's reading prayer calls for and develops a particular orientation of the self toward existence corresponding to the virtue of humility long understood as the basic Christian virtue This is shown to be in tension with modernity's commitment to strong versions of autonomy However the choice of humility is not presented as the reinstatement of religious heteronomy but as a free choice of the praying self Memoirs of a Black Philosopher Richard A. Jones, 2024-01-26 Memoirs of a Black Philosopher is a chronicle of the life and times of Richard A Jones In these memoirs Jones relates the dislocations and disillusionments of Black people in the great migration of Southern Blacks to Northern cities He recalls the educational trauma brought on by Brown v Board and his education in the inner city public schools of Washington DC and Detroit Michigan Beginning his higher education in the HCBUs at Fisk and Howard Universities after serving in the US Air Force Jones begins his educational diaspora in Midwestern universities His struggles to attain an education culminates in a bachelor s degree in mathematics from Minot State University in 1970 After working as a federal Head Start director Marketing representative at IBM and college Minority Affairs Director Jones begins a new career as a high school mathematics teacher Never satisfied with his education he begins a new direction in academic philosophy After completing an MA in philosophy at the University of Denver he enrolls in a PhD program at the University of Colorado at the age of forty nine After completing the degree Jones teaches philosophy at Kansas State University followed by returning to Howard University where he finished his teaching career At Howard Jones realizes that philosophy is more than teaching and writing He becomes the Co coordinator of the Radical Philosophy Association RPA His political activity with RPA culminates in conferences in Cuba and South Africa where he sees the people s struggles with global capitalism Jones left Howard in 2013 and continues his philosophical praxes in contemplation and writing His story is one of the unending struggles for human dignity
