achieve your own style naming characters and creating them how one manages one's own identity with being a writer in time and space to the use of reference and allusion in one's work Cohen is a deft weaver of allusion himself In lieu of telling the reader how to master the elements of writing fiction he shows them through the work of the writers who most influenced his own development including Roth Ellison Kafka and Robinson Rooted in his own experiences this collection of essays shows readers how to use their influences and experiences to create bold personal and individual work While the first part of the book teaches writing the essays in the second part show how these elements come together The Cap Roman
