THOMAS, 2014-01-01 You intend to honour and glorify God but very often end up in denigrating and insulting God Your faith says that God is totally just and upright but you try to bribe God by offering all sorts of gifts Your faith says that God knows everything including the past the present and the future and even your innermost secret thoughts and desires and what is best for a person yet you request God what He should do when where and how Your faith says that God is absolute love yet you think that whatever that happen in your life and the world like wars accidents natural calamities terrorism communal violence sickness murder and rape happen according to some mysterious plan of God Your faith says that God is a totally free and impartial judge and umpire but you try to influence and manipulate Him by your prayers vows pilgrimages and penances Your faith says that God is absolutely compassionate and merciful and yet you think that God may punish you and take revenge on you if you do not pray for His help Your faith says that God is an all perfect personality who lacks nothing but some of your faith practices depict God as an egoistic and insecure person who constantly seeks praise gratitude adoration and glorification from believers

The Bible Exposed - Why God has Left the Building Keith Crowley, 2012-07-19 In The Bible Exposed Why God has left the building the author deconstructs many of Christianity's most cherished illusions He lifts the lid off the Christian Bible's collection of scientific errors ancient myths legends and constant contradictions and demonstrates that the Bible can only be a man-made artefact untouched by divine involvement or inspiration The difference between what the Bible actually says and what Christianity teaches will astonish you For instance who killed Goliath Everyone thinks that they know the answer Everyone is amazed when they read what the Bible actually says

Embracing Vulnerability Roberto Sirvent, 2017-04-27 Arguments in favour of divine impassibility take many forms one of which is moral This argument views emotional risk vulnerability suffering and self-love as obstacles to moral perfection In Embracing Vulnerability Human and Divine the author challenges these mistaken assumptions about moral judgment Through an analysis of Hebrew thought and modern philosophical accounts of love justice and emotion Roberto Sirvent reveals a fundamental incompatibility between divine impassibility and the Imitation of God ethic imitatio Dei This book shows that a God who is not emotionally vulnerable is a God unworthy of our imitation But in what sense can we call divine impassibility immoral To be sure God's moral nature teaches humans what it means to live virtuously But can human understandings of morality teach us something about God's moral character If true how should we go about judging God's moral character Isn't it presumptuous to do so After all if we are going to challenge divine impassibility on moral grounds what reason do we have to assume that God is bound by our standards of morality Embracing Vulnerability Human and Divine addresses these questions and many others In the process Sirvent argues for the importance of thinking morally about theology inviting scholars in the fields of philosophical theology and Christian ethics to place their theological commitments under close moral scrutiny and to consider how these commitments reflect and shape our understanding of the good life

God's Voice Riaan Engelbrecht,2023-10-12 There is this strange notion these days that God no longer speaks to His people It is said that God spoke in the Old Testament and that God today only speaks these days through His Word Yes it is true that God does speak through His Word but the wonderful and glorious news is that God does speak to His children He has a voice we have ears and there is definite communication Some even say that one is crazy to think one hears from God voices in the head apparently speak of a deep seated disorder Others claim it is purely your imagination This is sad because God is an incredibly personal God who wants to communicate with His children He wants to talk to us and He wants us to talk to Him Just because someone has not heard from God does not mean He doesn t speak Think about it The Creator of all actually speaks to us He does not just speak to the apostles or the prophets but to each and every believer This is the God whom we serve An awesome God who is not distant but a God who wants a personal relationship with us Yes we can hear from God as His children There is no simple formula but it boils down to relationship fellowship intimacy and willing to follow and listen
