Bloom, 2003 London 1921 The world's greatest wax sculptor watches in horror as flames consume his museum and melt his uncannily lifelike creations Twelve years later he opens a wax museum in New York Crippled disfigured and driven mad by the fire he resorts to body snatching and murder to populate his displays preserving the bodies in wax In a thousand years you will be as lovely as you are now he assures one victim In The Mystery of the Wax Museum 1933 director Michael Curtiz perfectly captures the macabre essence of realistic wax figures that have excited the darker aspects of the public's imagination ever since Madame Tussaud established her famous museum in London in 1802 Artists too have been fascinated by wax sculptures seeing in them and in the unique properties of wax itself an eerie metaphoric power with which to address sexual anxiety fears of mortality and other morbid subjects In Waxworks Michelle E. Bloom explores the motif of the wax figure in European and American literature and art In particular she connects the myth of Pygmalion to the obsession with wax statues of women in the nineteenth century fetishization of prostitutes and female corpses and as depicted in such wax fictions as Dickens's The Old Curiosity Shop 1841 Filmmakers too have sought inspiration from wax museums and Bloom analyzes works from the silent era to such waxwork-themed Hollywood horror films as Mad Love 1935 and House of Wax 1953 Bringing her discussion to the present Bloom examines the work of contemporary artists who use the medium of wax in ways never imagined by Madame Tussaud As extravagant new wax museums open in Las Vegas Times Square and Paris Waxwork offers a provocative cultural history of this enduring and disturbing art form Horror and Mystery Photoplay Editions and Magazine Fictionizations Thomas Mann, 2024-10-11 Photoplay editions were usually hardcover reprints of novels that had been made into movies illustrated with photographs from the film productions Sometimes instead they were fictionized versions of film scripts rewritten in narrative form Here is an annotated checklist of more than 500 horror and mystery photoplay novels and magazine fictionizations collected over a period of four decades Photo illustrated stories that are not strictly in the horror or mystery genres are included if they are linked to films with such stars as Lon Chaney Boris Karloff Bela Lugosi or other genre figures Mysteries are generally defined as novels or stories featuring a detective as the central character although in some cases melodramas thrillers and film noir books having crime as a plot element are included Science fiction and fantasy works and others having outre aspects are also within scope With a few exceptions the cut off date for inclusion in the catalog is the year 1970 In an entertaining introductory essay the author reflects on the attractions of assembling such a collection analyzes aspects of the social significance and aesthetic content of its books and draws many surprising inferences from their advertisements illustrations and marks of previous ownership The subsequent catalog is the first survey in the field to extend bibliographical coverage beyond books to movie tie in magazine stories Included in an appendix is the complete text of The
