Uttering the Word Armando Maggi, 1998-01-01 Employing contemporary theoretical perspectives Uttering the Word provides the first detailed analysis of the language and thought of Maria Maddalena de Pazzi 1566 1607 an important but neglected Renaissance mystic Borrowing from Lacan de Certeau and Deleuze Maggi analyzes de Pazzi's unique mystical discourse and studies how the Florentine visionary interprets the relationship between orality and writing authorship and audience sexual identity and language

Mystic Moderns James H. Thrall, 2020-01-21 Mystic Moderns examines the responses of three British authors Evelyn Underhill 1875 1941 May Sinclair 1863 1946 and Mary Webb 1881 1927 to the emerging modernity of the long early twentieth century moment encompassing the First World War As they explored divergent but overlapping understandings of what mystical experience might be these authors rejected claims that modernity's celebration of the secular and rational left no place for the mystical rather they countered sensitivity to a greater reality could both establish and validate personal agency and was integral to their identities as modern women Their preoccupations with the dynamism of human connection drew on prevailing ideas of vital energy or life force developed by Arthur Schopenhauer and Henri Bergson in ways that channeled modernity's erotic energy of change By using their fiction to describe new self-authenticating forms of mysticism separate from either the prevailing orthodoxy of establishment Christianity or the extreme heterodoxy of their era's enthusiasm for paranormal experimentation they also contributed to the rise of a generic concept of spirituality Mystic Moderns thus offers historical perspective on contemporary claims for self-constructed non-institutional spiritual experience associated with the claim I'm spiritual not religious Working as they did within the shadow of the First World War Underhill Sinclair and Webb were in the end attempting to determine what might be of authentic value for a modern age marked by ubiquitous death While not themselves utopian authors each was touched by her era's complicated hunger for the best of all possible worlds Their constructions of how an individual should be and act in the midst of modernity thus simultaneously projected visions of what that modernity itself should become

Satan's Rhetoric Armando Maggi, 2001-09 Reading innumerable treatises on demonology written during the Renaissance including Thesaurus exorcismorum the most important record of early modern exorcisms Maggi finds repeated attempts to define the language exchanged between the fallen progeny of Adam and the most notorious fallen angel of them all Satan Using points of departure taken from de Certeau and Lacan Maggi shows that Satan articulates his language first and foremost in the mind More than speaking the devil tries to make human beings understand his language and speak it themselves

Field-Being

Interpretation of Buddhist Philosophy Albert Shansky, 2015-09-29 Buddhism is a religion despite the negative attitude of some in the West who espouse that since it has no god it is atheistic and therefore cannot be a religion A religion is a unified system of beliefs and practices that unite into one single moral community A N Whitehead fortified this definition by saying Religion is what the individual does with his own solitariness Buddhism satisfies these definitions by guiding the individual in self reliance and introspection rather than entreaty to an unseen god or spirit It is hoped that the nine essays in this book depict situations where a set of symbolic forms and acts relate man to the ultimate condition of his existence The essays in this book have been written between the years of 1998 and 2000 while Albert Shansky the author was executive vice

Heaven Opens Matthew Lewis Sutton, 2014 Adrienne von Speyr was one of the most important mystical theologians of the last century However her work has been eclipsed in many ways by her personal connection to Hans Urs von Balthasar Heaven Opens provides one of the first comprehensive accounts of von Speyr's theology Matthew Lewis Sutton argues that the eternal immanent relations of the Triune God ground the mystical theological vision of von Speyr Here von Speyr's work is for the first time given an independent hearing expositing its content features and connections and assessing its contribution to contemporary Catholic theology

Through a Speculum That Shines Elliot R. Wolfson, 2020-06-30 A comprehensive treatment of visionary experience in some of the main texts of Jewish mysticism this book reveals the overwhelmingly visual nature of religious experience in Jewish spirituality from antiquity through the late Middle Ages Using phenomenological and critical historical tools Wolfson examines Jewish mystical texts from late antiquity pre kabbalistic sources from the tenth to the twelfth centuries and twelfth and thirteenth century kabbalistic literature His work demonstrates that the sense of sight assumes an epistemic priority in these writings reflecting and building upon those scriptural passages that affirm the visual nature of revelatory experience Moreover the author reveals an androcentric eroticism in the scopic mentality of Jewish mystics which placed the externalized and representable form the phallus at the center of the visual encounter In the visionary experience as Wolfson describes it imagination serves a primary function transmuting sensory data and rational concepts into symbols of those things beyond sense and reason In this view the experience of a vision is inseparable from the process of interpretation Fundamentally challenging the conventional distinction between experience and exegesis revelation and interpretation Wolfson argues that for the mystics themselves the study of texts occasioned a visual experience of the divine located in the imagination of the mystical interpreter Thus he shows how Jewish mystics preserved the invisible transcendence of God without doing away with the visual dimension of belief
