Orientalism and Religion offers us a timely discussion of the implications of contemporary post colonial theory for the study of religion Richard King examines the way in which notions such as mysticism religion Hinduism and Buddhism are taken for granted He shows us how religion needs to be reinterpreted along the lines of cultural studies Drawing on a variety of post structuralist and post colonial thinkers such as Foucault Gadamer Said and Spivak King provides us with a challenging series of reflections on the nature of Religious Studies and Indology The Reformations of Medicine Ekaterina N.

Lomperis, 2025 The Reformations of Medicine explores the transformations of religious approaches to medicine in early modernity with a particular focus on Martin Luther's thought Lomperis examines implications of these early modern developments for contemporary intersections of spirituality and healthcare Heavenly Bodies Ola Sigurdson, 2016-07-30

Deep and wide study of 2 000 years of Christian thought on the human body Does Christianity scorn our bodies Friedrich Nietzsche thought so and many others since him have thought the same Ola Sigurdson contends to the contrary that Christianity understood properly in fact affirms human embodiment Presenting his constructive contributions to theology in relation to both historical and contemporary conceptions of the body Sigurdson begins by investigating the anthropological implications of the doctrine of the incarnation He then delves into the concept of the gaze and discusses a specifically

Christian gaze of faith that focuses on God embodied in Jesus Finally he weaves these strands into a contemporary Christian theology of embodiment Sigurdson s profound engagement with the whole history of Christian life and thought not only elucidates the spectrum of Christian perspectives on the body but also models a way of thinking historically and systematically that other theologians will find stimulating and challenging

Exploring Lost Dimensions in Christian Mysticism Louise Nelstrop, Simon D. Podmore, 2016-04-15 Mystical theology has developed through a range of meanings from the hidden dimensions of divine significance in the community s interpretation of its scriptures to the much later science of the soul s ascent into communion with God The thinkers and questions addressed in this book draws us into the heart of a complicated beautiful and often tantalisingly unfinished conversation continuing over centuries and often brushing allusively into parallel concerns in other religions Raising fundamental matters of epistemology representation metaphysics and divine reality contributors approach the mystical from postmodern feminist sociological and historical perspectives through thinkers such as Meister Eckhart Thomas Aquinas Catherine of Siena Ignatius of Loyola William James Evelyn Underhill Ernst Troeltsch Rudolf Otto Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Marion and Jean Louis Chr tien Medieval and early modern radical prophetic approaches are also explored This book includes new essays by Sarah Apetrei Tina Beattie Raphael Cadenhead Oliver Davies Philip Endean Brian FitzGerald Ann Loades George Pattison Simon D Podmore Joel D S Rasmussen and Johannes Zachhuber

Covert Operations Karma Lochrie, 2012-05-28 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Book In Covert Operations Karma Lochrie brings the categories and cultural meanings of secrecy in the Middle Ages out into the open Isolating five broad areas confession women s gossip medieval science and medicine marriage and the law and sodomitic discourse Lochrie examines various types of secrecy and the literary texts in which they are played out She reads texts as central to Middle English studies as the Parson s Tale the Miller s Tale the Secretum Secretorum and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight as well as a broad range of less familiar works including a gynecological treatise and a little known fifteenth century parody in which gossip and confession become one As she does so she reveals a great deal about the medieval past and perhaps just as much about the early development of the concealments that shape the present day

Literature and the Encounter with God in Post-Reformation England Michael Martin, 2016-05-23 Each of the figures examined in this study John Dee John Donne Sir Kenelm Digby Henry and Thomas Vaughan and Jane Lead is concerned with the ways in which God can be approached or experienced Michael Martin analyzes the ways in which the encounter with God is figured among these early modern writers who inhabit the shared cultural space of poets and preachers mystics and scientists The three main themes that inform this study are Cura animarum the care of souls and the diminished role of spiritual direction in post Reformation religious life the rise of scientific rationality and the struggle against the disappearance of the Holy Arising from the methods and commitments of phenomenology the primary mode of inquiry of this study resides in contemplation not in a religious sense but in the realm of perception attendance and acceptance Martin portrays figures such as Dee Digby and Thomas Vaughan not as the eccentrics they are often depicted to have been but rather as participating in a religious mainstream that had been radically altered by the disappearance of any kind of mandatory or regular spiritual direction a problem which was further complicated and exacerbated by the rise of science Thus this study contributes to a reconfiguration of our notion of what religious orthodoxy really meant during the period and calls into question our own assumptions about what is or was orthodox and heterodox The Marrano Way Agata Bielik-Robson, 2022-05-09 The Marrano phenomenon is a still unexplored element of Western culture the presence of the borderline Jewish identity which avoids clear cut cultural and religious attribution and precisely as such prefigures the advent of the typically modern free oscillating subjectivity Yet the aim of the book is not a historical study of the Marranos or conversos who were forced to convert to Christianity but were suspected of retaining their Judaism undercover The book rather applies the Marrano metaphor to explore the fruitful area of mixture and cross over which allowed modern thinkers writers and artists of the Jewish origin to enter the realm of universal communication without at the same time making them relinquish their Jewishness which they subsequently developed as a hidden tradition The book poses and then attempts to prove the Marrano hypothesis according to which modern subjectivity derives to paraphrase Cohen out of the sources of the hidden Judaism modernity begins not with the Cartesian abstract ego but with the rich self reflexive self of Michel de Montaigne who wrestled with his own marranismo in a manner that soon became paradigmatic to other Jewish thinkers entering the scene of Western modernity from Spinoza to Derrida The essays in the volume offer thus a new view of a Marrano modernity which aims to radically transform our approach to the genesis of the modern subject and shed a new light on its secret religious life as surviving the process of secularization although merely in the form of secret traces

Mysticism in Early Modern England Liam Peter Temple, 2019 Mysticism in Early Modern England traces how mysticism featured in polemical and religious discourse in seventeenth century England and explores how it came to be viewed as a source of sectarianism radicalism and most significantly religious enthusiasm The Cambridge Companion to Christian Mysticism Amy Hollywood, Patricia Z. Beckman, 2012-09-17 The Cambridge Companion to Christian Mysticism is a multi authored interdisciplinary guide to the study of Christian mysticism with an emphasis on the third through the seventeenth centuries The book is thematically organized in terms of the central contexts practices and concepts associated with the mystical life in early medieval and early modern Christianity This book looks beyond the term mysticism which was an early modern invention to explore the ways in which the ancient terms mystic and mystical were used in the Christian tradition what kinds of practices modes of life and experiences were described as mystical What understanding of Christianity and of the life of Christian perfection is articulated through mystical interpretations of scripture mystical contemplation mystical vision mystical theology or mystical union This volume both provides a clear introduction to the Christian mystical life and articulates a bold new approach to the study of mysticism The Relationship of Philosophy to

Religion Today Paolo Diego Bubbio, Philip Andrew Quadrio, 2011-01-18 The Relationship of Philosophy to Religion Today is a collection of texts authored by philosophers with an interest in contemporary philosophy of religion its merits and its limitations The collection has been stimulated by such questions as What ought philosophy of religion be and How ought philosophy relate to religion today In pursuing such questions the editors have asked the contributors to offer their insights and reflections on issues that they see as important to contemporary philosophy of religion with the goal of producing a collection of texts offering the reader a variety of perspectives without privileging any particular philosophical religious or irreligious orientation The book covers such themes as the relationship between religion and modernity faith in keeping with reason contemplation the merits and limitations of the atheism and the relationship between philosophy religion and politics

The Cambridge History of Spanish Literature David T. Gies, 2004 Publisher Description The Mystical Science of the Soul Jessica A. Boon, 2012-12-07 The Mystical Science of the Soul explores the unexamined influence of medieval discourses of science and spirituality on recogimiento the unique Spanish genre of recollection mysticism that served as the driving force behind the principal developments in Golden Age mysticism Building on recent research in medieval optics physiology and memory in relation to the devotional practices of the late Middle Ages Jessica A Boon probes the implications of an embodied soul for the intellectual history of Spanish mysticism Boon proposes a fundamental rereading of the key recogimiento text Subida del Monte Si n 1535 1538 which melds the traditionally distinct spiritual techniques of moral self examination Passion meditation and negative theology into one cognitively adept path towards mystical union She is also the first English language scholar to treat the author of this influential work the Renaissance physician Bernardino de Laredo a pivotal figure in the transition from medieval to early modern spirituality on the Iberian peninsula and a source for Teresa of Avila s mystical language Indiscretion Thomas A. Carlson, 1999-02-02 How can one think and name an inconceivable and ineffable God Christian mystics have approached the problem by speaking of God using negative language devices such as grammatical negation and the rhetoric of darkness or unknowing and their efforts have fascinated contemporary scholars In this strikingly original work Thomas A Carlson reinterprets premodern approaches to God s ineffability and postmodern approaches to the mystery of the human subject in light of one another The recent interest in mystical theological traditions Carlson argues is best understood in relation to contemporary philosophy s emphasis on the idea of human finitude and mortality Combining both historical research in theology from Pseudo Dionysius to Aquinas to Eckhart and contemporary philosophical analysis from Hegel and Nietzsche to Heidegger Derrida and Marion Indiscretion will interest philosophers theologians and other scholars concerned with the possibilities and limits of language surrounding both God and human subjectivity
