Practical Mysticism in Islam and Christianity Saeed Zarrabi-Zadeh, 2016-01-29 Practical Mysticism in Islam and Christianity offers a comparative study of the works of the Sufi poet Jalal al Din Rumi 1207-1273 and the practical teachings of the German Dominican Meister Eckhart c.1260-1327/8 Rumi has remained an influential figure in Islamic mystical discourse since the thirteenth century while also extending his impact to the Western spiritual arena However his ideas have frequently been interpreted within the framework of other mystical philosophical or religious systems Through its novel approach this book aims to reformulate Rumi's practical mysticism by employing four methodological principles a mysticism is a coherent structure with mutual interconnection between its parts b the imposition of alien structures to interpret any particular mysticism damages its inward coherency c practical mysticism consists of two main parts namely practices and stages and d the proper use of comparative methodology enables a deeper understanding of each juxtaposed system Eckhart's speculative mysticism which differs from and enjoys similarities with the love-based mysticism of Rumi provides a mirror that highlights the special features of Rumi's practical mysticism Such comparison also allows a deeper comprehension of Eckhart's

An Introduction to Islam Frederick Denny,2015-09-21 An Introduction to Islam Fourth Edition provides students with a thorough unified and topical introduction to the global religious community of Islam In addition the author s extensive field work experience and scholarship combined with his engaging writing style and passion for the subject also sets his text apart. An Introduction to Islam places Islam within a cultural political social and religious context and examines its connections with Judeo Christian morals. Its integration of the doctrinal and devotional elements of Islam enables readers to see how Muslims think and live engendering understanding and breaking down stereotypes. This text also reviews pre Islamic history so readers can see how Islam developed historically. Interpreting Islam in China Kristian Petersen, 2018. During the early modern period Muslims in China began to embrace the Chinese characteristics of their heritage. Several scholar teachers incorporated tenets from traditional Chinese education into their promotion of Islamic knowledge. As a result some Sino Muslims established an educational network which utilized an Islamic curriculum made up of Arabic Persian and Chinese works. The corpus of Chinese Islamic texts written in this system is collectively labeled the Han Kitab. Interpreting Islam in China explores the Sino Islamic intellectual tradition through the works of some of its brightest luminaries. Three prominent Sino Muslim authors are used to illustrate transformations within this tradition: Wang Daiyu, Liu Zhi and Ma Dexin. Kristian Petersen puts these scholars in dialogue and demonstrates the continuities and departures within this tradition. Through an analysis of their writings he considers several questions: How malleable are religious categories and why are they variously interpreted across time? How do changing historical circumstances affect the interpretation of religious beliefs and practices? How do individuals navigate multiple sources of authority? How do practices inform belief? Overall he shows that these authors presented an increasingly universalistic portrait of Islam through which Sino Muslims were encouraged to participate within the global community of Muslims. The growing emphasis on performing the pilgrimage to Mecca, comprehensive knowledge of the Qur'an and personal knowledge of Arabic stimulated communal engagement. Petersen demonstrates that the integration of Sino Muslims within a growing global environment where international travel and communication was increasingly possible was accompanied by the rising self awareness of a universally engaged Muslim community. Islam, Christianity and the Realms of the Miraculous Ian Richard Netton, 2018-01-23. The first book length English language study of Hong Kong horror films. Islamic Architecture in Iran Saeid Khaghani, 2012-07-30. The architecture of the Islamic world is predominantly considered in terms of a dual division between tradition and modernity, a division which Saeid Khaghani here argues has shaped and limited the narrative applied to this architecture. Khaghani introduces and reconsiders the mosques of eighth to fifteenth century Iran in terms of poststructural theory and developments in historiography in order to develop a brand new dialectical framework. Using the examples of mosques such as the Friday Mosques in Isfahan and Yazd as well as the Imam mosque in Isfahan, Khaghani presents a new way of thinking about and discussing Islamic architecture, making this valuable reading for all interested in the study of the art, architecture and material culture of the Islamic world.
