Mysticism And The Institutional Crisis Concilium 1994 4:

The Beginning and the End of 'Religion' Nicholas Lash, 1996-06-28 The common view that religion is something quite separate from politics art science law and economics is one that is peculiar to modern Western culture In this book Professor Lash argues that we should begin to question seriously that viewpoint the modern world is ending and we are now in a position to discover new forms of ancient wisdom which have been obscured from view These essays explore this idea in a number of directions examining the dialogue between theology and science the secularity of Western culture and questions of Christian hope Part One examines the dialogue between Christianity and Hinduism while Part Two considers the relations between theology and science the secularity of Western culture and questions of Christian hope or eschatology Between the 'Mysticism of Politics' and the 'Politics of Mysticism' David Ranson, 2013-08-31 Between the Politics of Mysticism and the Mysticism of Politics traces the dialectic of the mystical and the political from both a theological and an historical perspective It presents the dialectic as a hermeneutic for the rise of the new ecclesial communities within the Roman Catholic Tradition and suggests it as the framework by which a trajectory for Christian holiness might emerge in the 21st century

Foucault, Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue Henrique Pinto, 2020-11-25 Foucault Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue develops a new model for interfaith dialogue using the work of the French historian of ideas Michel Foucault The author argues that it is the injustice done to the Other by Roman Catholic Protestant and other centred and unitary models of religious pluralism that allows the introduction of Foucault's de-centring of transcendence and human reason as an alternative model for understanding religious diversity and the role it ought to play in the constitution of the self and the making of society This Foucaultian approach provides a new direction for interfaith dialogue in the modern world and leads to an ethical rather than a nihilistic position while fostering a non unitary theology of religious pluralism and an open textured process of self transformation The author's original and imaginative application and expansion of Foucault's concept of the More from The Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 makes important and original contributions to academic work on Foucault and contemporary theology Michel Foucault and Theology James Bernauer, 2017-03-02 Whilst Foucault's work has become a major strand of postmodern theology the wider relevance of his work for theology still remains largely unexamined Foucault both engages the Christian tradition and critically challenges its disciplinary regime Michel Foucault and Theology brings together a selection of essays by leading Foucault scholars on a variety of themes within the history thought and practice of theology Revealing the diverse ways that the work of Michel Foucault 1926 1984 has been employed to rethink theology in terms of power discourse sexuality and the politics of knowledge the authors examine power and sexuality in the church in late antiquity Castelli Clark Schuld raise questions about the relationship between theology and politics Bernauer Leezenberg Caputo consider new challenges to the nature of theological knowledge in terms of Foucault's critical project Flynn Cutrofello Beadoin Pinto and rethink theology in terms of Foucault's work on the history of sexuality

Carrette Jordan Mahon This book demonstrates for the first time the influence and growing importance of Foucault's work for contemporary theology      Risking the Church Richard Lennan, 2004-10-14 As a consequence of numerous social and theological movements over the last few decades the Roman Catholic Church finds itself in a situation that some have described as a state of peril This book traces the emergence of that peril develops a systematic ecclesiology that identifies both the mission and resources of the Church in the present day and explores possible responses to some of the specific challenges facing the contemporary Church The book develops an understanding of the Catholic tradition in order to highlight its potential for development      Liturgical Spirituality and the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults Shawn Madigan, 1997 The Forum Essays series is a cooperative effort of The North American Forum on the Catechumenate and Liturgy Training Publications The purpose of the series is to provide a forum for exploring issues emerging from the implementation of the order of Christian initiation They are a great resource for anyone involved in initiation ministry and especially for pastors and RCIA directors      A World Transfigured Philip Sheldrake, 2022-10-15 In A World Transfigured The Mystical Journey Philip Sheldrake demonstrates the importance of the mystical dimension of religious belief and practice Using the words of the great theologian Karl Rahner Sheldrake makes the case that the Christian of the future will be either a mystic or nothing at all In our contemporary world this judgment applies equally to other religions as well After chapters on the meaning of mysticism and the connection between mysticism and beliefs Sheldrake describes important dimensions of mystical writings illustrated by a range of examples These are Love and Desire Knowing and Unknowing Wonder and Beauty Mysticism and Everyday Practice and The Mystic as Radical Prophet Finally the book briefly explores why mysticism fascinates so many people in our modern times      Mysticism and the Institutional Crisis Christian Duquoc, Gustavo Gutiérrez, 1994      The Mystical and Prophetic Thought of Simone Weil and Gustavo Gutiérrez Alexander Nava, 2001-11-01 Brings together the thought of liberation theologian Gustavo Gutiérrez and Christian philosopher Simone Weil to present a unique vision that can speak of both the reality of suffering and the desire for mystical experience      Gendering Global Transformations Chima J. Korieh, Philomina E Okeke-Ihejirika, 2008-11-19 This book employs gender as a category of analysis to capture the various ways men and women relate in society and the structures that define these relationships and place boundaries on them It presents alternative conceptual and theoretical approaches that tease out the nuances of gender as mediated by culture race and identity in a globalizing world      The Mystery and the World Maria Clara Bingemer, 2017-02-23 In The Mystery and the World Maria Clara Bingemer explores how the place of religion in society has dramatically shifted since the Enlightenment The modern era is characterised by a major change in humanity's fundamental desires that means that reason has taken the place of faith Human beings in their ongoing search for a scientific understanding of the world have drifted away from seeking any essence of transcendence in their lives Bingemer examines this transition and how especially in the postmodern era it has led to technology and superficial happiness becoming all important as opposed to the more sacred sense of contentment that governed us for centuries prior to the Enlightenment In her discussion however Bingemer demonstrates that we as humans have not lost our innate desire to believe in a higher power and that even in our world of instant satisfaction we still need to fill the void left by religion Through well researched analysis of the modern era and discussion of some of the mystics of more recent times she reveals to readers how our religious belief whilst changed is not dead and is still an important aspect of our existence      International Mission Bibliography Norman E. Thomas,2003-10-16 This massive reference is the key to finding the most important works on missiology published from 1960 2000 Representing the research of more than 30 sub editors in mission related disciplines including history theology social aspects education evangelism spirituality and political life and includes sections on Africa the Americas Asia Europe and Oceania Complete publication details and ISBNs are given for each entry      The Transformation of American Religion : The Story of a Late-Twentieth-Century Awakening Amanda Porterfield Professor of Religious Studies University of Wyoming,2001-04-05 As recently as a few decades ago most people would have described America as a predominantly Protestant nation Today we are home to a colorful mix of religious faiths and practices from a resurgent Catholic Church and a rapidly growing Islam to all forms of Buddhism and many other non Christian religions How did this startling transformation take place A great many factors contributed to this transformation writes Amanda Porterfield in this engaging look at religion in contemporary America Religious activism disillusionment with American culture stemming from the Vietnam war the influx of Buddhist ideas a heightened consciousness of gender and the vastly broadened awareness of non Christian religions arising from the growth of religious studies programs all have served to undermine Protestant hegemony in the United States But the single most important factor says Porterfield was the very success of Protestant ways of thinking emphasis on the individual s relationship with God tension between spiritual life and religious institutions egalitarian ideas about spiritual life and belief in the practical benefits of spirituality Distrust of religious institutions for instance helped fuel a religious counterculture the tendency to define spiritual truth against the dangers or inadequacies of the surrounding culture and Protestantism s pragmatic view of spirituality played into the tendency to see the main function of religion as therapeutic For anyone interested in how and why the American religious landscape has been so dramatically altered in the last forty years The Transformation of Religion in America offers a coherent and persuasive analysis      The Spectre of Mass Death David Noel Power,F. Kabasele Lumbala,François Kabasele Lumbala,1993 June 1993 T p verso Includes bibliographical references      Islam Hans Küng,Jürgen Moltmann,1994 In this issue of Concilium the worldwide journal of theology exciting voices from every part of the world describe experiences of Islam Issues such as perceived threats between Christianity and Islam Islamic views of women and human rights and the unity of politics and religion are explored in a true reflection of the world church      Walking in the Same Direction Jeanne Hinton,1995 The shape of the church to come says Brazilian theologian Leonardo Boff is to be seen in basic church communities Inspired by experiments among Catholics in Latin America in the 1960s a similar search for a new way of being church is now going on elsewhere in the world Under a variety of names house church small faith community cell group All are bringing together Christians determined to broaden and deepen their community not only among themselves but also across wider boundaries of geography and culture Drawing on her own contacts with such communities in Africa Asia Australia Europe Latin America and North America the author describes how this movement has grown what challenges these communities face and what significance they have for the shape of the church in the twenty first century from back cover      Religion Index Two ,1996

Pentecostal Movements as an Ecumenical Challenge Jürgen Moltmann,Karl-Josef Kuschel,1996      Christianity and Cultures Norbert Greinacher,1994 Irreplaceable as a reference to where Catholic theology is at any given moment Concilium maps the state of the most pressing questions with solid contributions from leading theologians and cutting edge voices Each volume addresses major issues in dialogue with wider public discourses regularly engaging perspectives from the religions of the world For volumes of substance breadth and insight Concilium provides a most impressive response to the most important issues in theology today Jeannine Hill Fletcher Fordham University      Feminist Theology in Different Contexts Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza,Mary Shawn Copeland,1996
